Parry, 2008 Written for students who want to question what they are learning in their leadership course but are short on time this entertaining and accessible book will be the perfect accompaniment to any course on leadership With controversial ideas and funny stories it covers topics that readers will recognize from their course and some new but equally important areas to challenge their thinking Part of a highly popular new series this book will make you better able to question and understand this burgeoning field A Very Short Fairly Interesting and Reasonably Cheap Book About Studying Leadership Brad Jackson, Ken Parry, 2011-05-30 The Second Edition of Studying Leadership guides the reader through the cacophony of competing perspectives and models of leadership now updated with expanded discussion of hot topics like followership gender ethics authenticity and leadership and the arts set against the backdrop of the global financial crisis Conceived by Chris Grey as an antidote to conventional textbooks each book in the Very Short Fairly Interesting and Reasonably Cheap series takes a core area of the curriculum and turns it on its head by providing a critical and sophisticated overview of the key issues and debates in an informal conversational and often humorous way Suitable for students researchers and practitioners studying leadership across all disciplines Everyday Wisdom Hans Gustafson, 2023-10-17 Over the last decade interreligious and interfaith studies have flourished in religion and theology departments emphasizing the value of religious literacy for professional vocational and civic leadership Everyday Wisdom offers an accessible introduction with an emphasis on lived religion interreligious studies and interfaith engagement and leadership Hans Gustafson first explores the study of religion and interreligious studies including the complexity and dynamism of religious identity the global religious landscape lived religion approaches to the study of religion and inter religious literacy He then examines the relationship between the academic field of interreligious studies and the civic project of interfaith engagement Focusing on interreligious studies he explores various responses to religious diversity while welcoming the role of secular and pluralist forces in religiously diverse societies Gustafson introduces the dominant theological modes of approach to other religious traditions and to interreligious theological encounter and examines the vital experience of human relationship across religious difference for inter and intra personal and purpose development changemaking and leadership By holistically tying together several of the ultimate aims and common learning objectives of interreligious studies courses Gustafson proposes a framework based on practical wisdom for interreligious studies and interfaith leadership Everyday Wisdom aims to be a core text in undergraduate and graduate courses in the fast emerging field of interreligious and interfaith studies as well as for the wider context of the study of religion and leadership A Very Short, Fairly Interesting, Reasonably Cheap Book About... International Marketing A. J. Earley, 2019-07-08 Looking beyond the usual colonial narrative of the subject Amanda Earley encourages the reader to think reflectively and critically about overlooked aspects of International Marketing

such as power relations history ethics culture and politics

Global Perspectives of Leadership Alexander Deicke, 2009-03-18 Essay from the year 2008 in the subject Business economics Miscellaneous grade 1 6 Copenhagen Business School Copenhagen Business School language English abstract Leadership is an art that can be learned to some extent It is the communication of a vision to followers and superiors in dependence on the environment in and outside of the organization and the qualities and skills of the manager How and why does the way we answer that question matter A definition of leadership is like a mirror to the management skills of the person that describes it It affects the way we react in an organization with our supervisors and with our followers We see the results of decisions every day in the media but if we are not willing to look behind and see the complex structure of such decisions we are blind and get the wrong conclusions A try to understand leadership is the beginning of a way to understand organizations and politics at all

Revitalising Leadership Suze Wilson, Stephen Cummings, Brad Jackson, Sarah Proctor-Thomson, 2017-07-20 Revitalising leadership connects leadership theory and practice with context It argues that the universal prescriptions favoured by most leadership scholars ignore the reality that context always matters in leadership practice and so it should matter in leadership theorizing too Addressing this gap the book offers a novel framework that enables the development of context sensitive leadership theory and practice This framework directs theoretical and practical attention to the key challenges for leadership in different organizational contexts It involves developing a specific purpose for leadership in a given context as well as formulating the values norms and domains of action which should guide leadership efforts in that context Determining these various matters then informs the role responsibilities rights behaviours and attributes relevant to leaders and followers for that context and the focus purpose and boundaries of the leader follower relationship Deploying this framework six in depth illustrative theorisations are provided showing how leadership practice might best take shape in the contexts of supervisory management HR management innovation and entrepreneurship strategy governance and leadership studies itself Revitalising leadership will appeal to diverse audiences due to its theoretical novelty its diversity of illustrative examples its practice focussed orientation and its clear engaging style These include leadership scholars concerned with the lack of attention being paid to context in leadership theorizing organizational scholars wanting to learn how leadership thinking can be brought to bear on the different management functions the book explores practitioners seeking leadership ideas that are tailored to the context they lead and follow in and those involved in MBA or leadership development programmes who are looking to combine the personal reflection sought by such programmes with a thoughtful analysis of the context in which their leadership practice takes place

Researching Leadership-As-Practice Vasilisa Takoeva, 2021-04-20 One current challenge of conducting research from the leadership as practice perspective is a practical one how to capture and analyse the elusive practice of leadership within the web of mundane organising processes Although a number of researchers have attempted to address the issue there is not yet a definitive how to guide to making sense of the empirical manifestations of leadership practices The book responds directly to this challenge and offers a theoretical framework and practical guidance to capturing identifying and analysing evidence of leadership practice emergence and provides implications of this approach for leadership academics and practitioners The developed framework enables a method for understanding these leadership instances as they are enacted by individuals within and against the evolving activities of their day to day work The framework is underpinned by cultural historical activity theory and critical realism and it conceptualises leadership practice by placing agents actions and interactions within the context of their relationships objectives experiences material and non material artefacts and wider organising processes and organisational structures work that has not yet been undertaken in the field It offers a strong theoretical foundation for further development of our understanding of leadership as practice providing a methodological guidance for undertaking leadership as practice research and enables a discussion on the variety of underlying processes and elements as they emerge from empirical observations It will be of value to researchers academics professionals and students in the fields of business and management with a particular interest in management theory organisational studies and leadership research
