

The background image is a photograph of the interior of a grand Baroque church. The view is from the entrance looking down a wide aisle towards the altar. The ceiling is a large, dark dome with intricate frescoes, including a central figure with outstretched arms. The walls are covered in ornate stucco and paintings. A series of large, arched windows with multiple panes line the side walls, allowing light to filter in. The altar area at the far end features a large, ornate structure with candles. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and religious artistry.
