Shaw, Kevin E. Lawson, 2015-10-30 Theological education is a vital aspect of Christian mission The training of evangelical doctoral students in theological subject areas is therefore an important part of the mission of God This handbook presents doctoral supervision as a task involving both academic and spiritual formation Designed to be practical and relevant and to encourage self reflection at both individual and institutional levels it combines theological foundations with educational theory accompanied by questions exercises and case studies to develop doctoral level skills Central to the theme of this handbook is the promotion of excellence in academic training combined with a strong focus on the spiritual and pastoral dynamics of supervision a combination that evangelical students desperately need from their supervisors How to Get a PhD - 4th Edition Estelle M. Phillips, Estelle Phillips, Derek S. Pugh, 2005-06 This book examines everything students need to know about getting a PhD through research in any subject It also helps supervisors and examiners to better understand their role in the process

Doctoral Supervision and Research Culture Karen Clegg, Gillian Houston, Owen Gower, 2024-05-29 Drawing on original survey data, reflective accounts, and case studies of supervisory practice in different disciplines, Doctoral Supervision and Research Culture explores the supervisor experience and demonstrates the craft, compassion, and consistency required of supervisors in responding to different researchers' needs. Based on empirical data and using the voice of research supervisors, the authors throw a spotlight on the challenges and opportunities supervisors face in supporting doctoral researchers through to successful PhD completion. This book acts as an invitation to institutions, funders, industry, and academics to review what and how they support PhD provision and to elevate the status of supervision practice. It shows how research cultures, disciplinary, institutional, and individual, affect the supervisory experience and highlight the challenges that supervisors face, as well as the rewards that successful supervisory relationships bring. It is also a celebration of the contribution that doctoral researchers and all those who support research make to society. Designed to provide opportunities for sharing of practice across disciplines and the sector, Doctoral Supervision and Research Culture will be of interest to both new and experienced supervisors, to staff and researcher developers in institutions, and to funders, policy makers, and senior management in universities who seek to improve and enhance the supervisory experience for all agents.

Doctoral Supervision in Southern Africa Kakoma Luneta, Jennie Golding, Hileni M. Kapenda, Patricia Phiri Nalube, 2024-01-01 This book offers a unique perspective on doctoral supervision in southern Africa, showcasing the potential of scholarly reflection. The aim is to share the benefits with a wider audience, catalyzing the use of scholarly literature in global doctoral supervision.
