Hales, 2013-12-04 A much needed and delightful book It shows how history can be taught with the meaningful experiences of each child at its centre making connections between the child the locality and community the national and global past and concepts of time Throughout the authors empower teachers to adopt their philosophy by showing them how to plan select resources and strategies and reflect on ideas and case studies Hilary Cooper Emeritus professor of history and pedagogy The University of Cumbria UK Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places puts the local environment and community at the heart of history showing how it can be used as the context for successful history teaching across the primary age range It considers how to develop children s concepts and skills through local history how to link local national and global aspects of history and helps you develop your own historical knowledge understanding and confidence in teaching the subject Practical topics explored include Investigating children s cultural and geographical roots through fieldwork Finding and visiting local museums archives and heritage sights Choosing and using resources Using significant people events and buildings to link with national history Environmental education and sustainable development through local history Understanding the links between history and everyday life Planning and assessing history Based on the latest research and practice in the field Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places offers an exciting template of creative ideas and activities to show teachers how they can make history relevant to all children 100 Places That Made Britain David

Musgrove, 2011 In this brilliant new book BBC History Magazine editor Dave Musgrove takes us on an unforgettable journey through British history from the Roman invasion to the present day Women of the Anarchy Sharon Bennett

Connolly, 2024-01-15 The story of the Anarchy from the unique perspective of the two women at the centre of the struggle for the crown Ladies of Magna Carta Sharon Bennett Connolly, 2020-05-30 An innovative take on Magna Carta history that examines the impact and influence of women 39 No man shall be taken imprisoned outlawed banished or in any way destroyed nor will we proceed against or prosecute him except by the lawful judgment of his peers or by the law of the land This clause in Magna Carta was in response to the appalling imprisonment and starvation of Matilda de Braose the wife of one of King John's barons Matilda was not the only woman who influenced or was influenced by the 1215 Charter of Liberties now known as Magna Carta. Women from many of the great families of England were affected by the far-reaching legacy of Magna Carta from their experiences in the civil war and as hostages to calling on its use to protect their property and rights as widows. Ladies of Magna Carta looks into the relationships through marriage and blood of the various noble families and how they were affected by the Barons Wars. Magna Carta and its aftermath the bonds that were formed and those that were broken. Including the royal families of England and Scotland the Marshalls the Warennes the Braoses and more. Ladies of Magna Carta focuses on the roles played by the women of the great families whose influences and experiences have reached far beyond the thirteenth century.

Place, Race, and Story Ned Kaufman, 2009-09-11 In Place Race and Story author Ned Kaufman has collected his own essays dedicated to the proposition of giving the next generation of preservationists not only a foundational knowledge of the field of study but more ideas on where they can take it. Through both big picture essays considering preservation across time and descriptions of work on specific sites the essays in this collection trace the themes of place race and story in ways that raise questions stimulate discussion and offer a different perspective on these common ideas. Including unpublished essays as well as established works by the author Place Race and Story provides a new outline for a progressive preservation movement the revitalized movement for social progress.

King John's Right Hand Lady Sharon Bennett Connolly, 2023-07-30 In a time when men fought and women stayed home Nicholaa de la Haye held Lincoln Castle against all comers. Not once but three times earning herself the ironic praise that she acted manfully. Nicholaa gained prominence in the First Baron's War the civil war that followed the sealing of Magna Carta in 1215. Although recently widowed and in her 60s in 1217 Nicholaa endured a siege that lasted over three months resisting the English rebel barons and their French allies. The siege ended in the battle known as the Lincoln Fair when 70-year-old William Marshal the Greatest Knight in Christendom spurred on by the chivalrous need to rescue a lady in distress came to Nicholaa's aid. Nicholaa de la Haye was a staunch supporter of King John remaining loyal to the very end even after most of his knights and barons had deserted him. A truly remarkable lady Nicholaa was the first woman to be appointed sheriff in her own right. Her strength and tenacity saved England at one of the lowest points in its history. Nicholaa de la Haye is one woman in English history whose story needs to be told.

landscape paintings it is rare in the Indian tradition to find depictions of landscapes for their sheer beauty and mood without religious or courtly significance There is one glorious exception Painters from the city of Udaipur in Northwestern India specialized in depicting places including the courtly worlds and cities of rajas sacred landscapes of many gods and bazaars bustling with merchants pilgrims and craftsmen Their court paintings and painted invitation scrolls displayed rich geographic information notions of territory and the bh va or feel emotion and mood of a place This is the first book to use artistic representations of place to trace the major aesthetic intellectual and political shifts in South Asia over the long eighteenth century While James Tod the first British colonial agent based in Udaipur established the region s reputation as a principality in a state of political and cultural deterioration author Dipti Khera uses these paintings to suggest a counter narrative of a prosperous region with beautiful and bountiful cities and plentiful rains and lakes She explores the perspectives of courtly communities merchants pilgrims monks laypeople and officers and the British East India Company s officers explorers and artists Throughout she draws new conclusions about the region s intellectual and artistic practices and its shifts in political authority mobility and urbanity

A Dictionary, Geographical, Statistical and Historical, of the Various Countries, Places, and Principal Natural Objects in the World John Ramsay McCulloch, 1849 London's 100 Strangest Places David Long, 2011-11-30 The bustling metropolis of London is home to scores of unusual and unique places and spaces In this feast of peculiarities author David Long guides you off the beaten path and allows you under the skin of the hidden city that is modern day London revealing a new side to the capital you thought you knew

Artists' Things Katie Scott, Hannah Williams, 2024-01-09 Histories of artists personal possessions shed new light on the lives of their owners Artists are makers of things Yet it is a measure of the disembodied manner in which we generally think about artists that we rarely consider the everyday items they own This innovative book looks at objects that once belonged to artists revealing not only the fabric of the eighteenth century art world in France but also unfamiliar and sometimes unexpected insights into the individuals who populated it including Jean Antoine Watteau Fran ois Boucher Jean Baptiste Greuze and Elisabeth Vig e LeBrun From the curious to the mundane from the useful to the symbolic these items have one thing in common they have all been eclipsed from historical view Some of the objects still exist like Jean Honor Fragonard s color box and Jacques Louis David s table Others survive only in paintings such as Jean Sim on Chardin s cistern in his Copper Drinking Fountain or in documents like Fran ois Lemoyne s sword the instrument of his suicide Several were literally lost including pastelist Jean Baptiste Perronneau s pencil case In this fascinating book the authors engage with fundamental historical debates about production consumption and sociability through the lens of material goods owned by artists The free online edition of this open access publication is at www.getty.edu/publications/artists_things and includes zoomable illustrations Free PDF and EPUB downloads of the book are also available

Places on the Margin Rob Shields, 2013-12-16 The debate on modernity and postmodernity has awakened interest in the importance of the spatial for cultural formations But what of those spaces that exist as much in the imagination as in physical reality This book attempts to develop an alternative geography and sociology of space by examining places on the margin Catalogue of books, on sale William Ridler, 1883
