Australia 1943 Peter J. Dean, 2013-09-27 By January 1943 Australia had emerged from the shadow of war in a strong position. The victories in 1942 at Kokoda, Guadalcanal, Buna, Gona, and Sanananda had secured the northern coastlines of Papua and Australia. Australian forces were now poised for a full-scale offensive to liberate New Guinea from the Japanese, the largest and most complicated operations in their history. Australia 1943 explores the high point of Australia's influence on operations and strategy in the South West Pacific, a campaign that has been traditionally overshadowed by the drama of Kokoda. It investigates critical operations from January 1943 to April 1944, including Salamaua, Lae, Nadzab, Finschhafen, Shaggy Ridge, the Markham Valley, and the Huon Peninsula. Australia 1943 is the first detailed single-volume study of Australia's military operations in the Pacific during 1943, Australia's finest hour in the Second World War.

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama. Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day, including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz, whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate. Additionally, the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national, regional, and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality. In addition to the Western tradition, it includes substantial assessments of African, Asian, and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies.

New Challenges and Future Perspectives in Nutrition and Sustainable Diets in Africa Hettie Carina Schönfeldt, Gloria Essilfie, Yunyun Gong, 2024-05-06

Africa is confronted with the triple burden of malnutrition; it is also faced with the triple challenges of poverty, inequality, and unemployment. In many African countries, large proportions of the population rely on agriculture not only for their food but also for their livelihoods. A transformed agricultural and food system is thus a necessary condition for addressing this double-triple challenge. Additionally, post-harvest and food waste and losses reduce the availability of sufficient quantities of safe, edible, and preferable foods. At least one-third of food produced at farm level is lost due to inappropriate storage infrastructure and agro-processing technologies in developing countries, and one-third of food purchased is wasted at

A Short History of Women's Rights Eugene Hecker,2005-12-01 Perhaps a word on the status of women in slavery among the Germanic nations will not be out of place The new nations looked upon a slave as chattel much as the Romans did If a wrong was done a slave woman her master received a recompense from the aggressor but she did not for to hold property was denied her from Women among Germanic PeoplesThe fight for women s rights particularly with regards to the right to vote made such enormous strides between 1910 when the first edition of the book was published and 1914 when its second edition was released with an update on the effort that within the space of those few brief years it became almost a historical document not a rundown of current affairs But that second edition of which this is a replica remains an important document for understanding the struggle of women in the early 20th century Its survey of older history is still significant exploring the surprisingly liberated state of women in ancient Roman the inferiority of women under Christian doctrine and the condition of women s person hood in more recently English and American eras As a record of a moment in the feminism this is fascinating reading
