Women in American Operas of the 1950s Monica A. Hershberger, 2023 The first feminist analysis of some of the most performed works in the American opera canon emphasizing the voices and perspectives of the sopranos who brought these operas to life In the 1950s composers and librettists in the United States were busy seeking to create an opera repertory that would be deeply responsive to American culture and American concerns They did not break free however of the age old paradigm so typically expressed in European opera that is of women as either saintly and pure or sexually corrupt with no middle ground As a result in American opera of the 1950s women risked becoming once again opera s inevitable victims Yet the sopranos who were tasked with portraying these paragons of virtue and their opposites did not always take them as their composers and librettists made them Sometimes they rewrote through their performances the roles they had been assigned Sometimes they used their lived experiences to invest greater authenticity in the roles With chapters on The Tender Land Susannah The Ballad of Baby Doe and Lizzie Borden this book analyzes some of the most performed yet understudied works in the American opera canon It acknowledges Catherine Clement s famous description of opera as the undoing of women while at the same time illuminating how singers like Beverly Sills and Phyllis Curtin worked to resist such undoing years before the official resurgence of the American feminist movement In short they ended up helping to dismantle powerful gendered stereotypes that had often reigned unquestioned in opera houses until then

The ^ABallad of John Latouche Howard Pollack, 2017-10-06 In his short life the Virginia born John Treville Latouche 1914-56 made a profound mark on America s musical theater as a lyricist book writer and librettist His signature achievements include theatrical works with composers Earl Robinson Vernon Duke Duke Ellington Jerome Moross and Leonard Bernstein

Digital Scenography in Opera in the Twenty-First Century Caitlin Vincent, 2021-09-15 Digital Scenography in Opera in the Twenty First Century is the first definitive study of the use of digital scenography in Western opera production The book begins by exploring digital scenography s dramaturgical possibilities and establishes a critical framework for identifying and comparing the use of digital scenography across different digitally enhanced opera productions The book then investigates the impacts and potential disruptions of digital scenography on opera s longstanding production conventions both on and off the stage Drawing on interviews with major industry practitioners including Paul Barritt Mark Grimmer Donald Holder Elaine J McCarthy Luke Halls Wendall K Harrington Finn Ross S Katy Tucker and Victoria Vita Tzykun author Caitlin Vincent identifies key correlations between the use of digital scenography in practice and subsequent impacts on creative hierarchies production design processes and organisational management The book features detailed case studies of digitally enhanced productions premiered by Dutch National Opera Komische Oper Berlin Op ra de
