Waterfall in the Making

A waterfall is the precipitous fall of a river or other body of water over a rocky ledge into a plunge pool below. It is also one of the most breathtaking natural resources that is usually visited by travelers. Create a diorama of a waterfall using materials available in your home.

INSTRUCTIONS

In this diorama, you must create a view of waterfalls. Things that must be seen in the final output are the following:

- Water
- Cliff
- Grass
- Trees
- Clouds

Share your output with your classmates and give a brief description about your diorama. Goodluck!

Stories from My Father's Barbershop Joe David Garner Jr.,2012-06-07 BARBERSHOPS have long been the social hub of the neighborhood Here men gather to swap tales debate politics and share memories For Joe David Garner Jr soaking up the stories of such men in his father s Mississippi barbershop served as a pivotal part of his childhood A compendium of witty amusing and sometimes tragic tales Stories from My Father's Barbershop relates anecdotes from six men who regularly congregated in Garner Sr s barbershop Spanning the early 1900s to the 1970s these tales return to rural Mississippi at a time when educational economic and political barriers including the Jim Crow laws had a significant impact on these men s lives Colorful characters bring these stories to vivid life There s Ward Ellis son of two poor sharecroppers and considered by many to be a genius gambling buddies Bender Giles and Ralph Henson who almost lost it all college educated Vernon Nevins who embarks on the road trip of a lifetime and William Walker who rose from poverty to become a highly successful businessman Through the power of storytelling Stories from My Father's Barbershop provides a rich multifaceted look at the American South during some of its most turbulent times Fire by Night Melissa Florer-Bixler, 2019-04-09 What do we do with the Old Testament How do we read words written in a world so different from ours stories so ruthless and so filled with grace In Fire by Night pastor Melissa Florer Bixler invites readers to marvel at the Old Testament Page after page in stories and poems and prophecies the Hebrew Scripture introduces us to a God who is unwieldy and uncontrollable common and extraordinary and who brings both life and death Using stories from Scripture and from her ministry Florer Bixler braids together the text with the sometimes ordinary sometimes radical grace of God The same passages that confuse and horrify and baffle us can if we are paying attention lure us closer toward God This God has traveled with people through cloud and fire by day and by night since the beginning of time The Old Testament is a perplexing book of profound grace hope and beauty It's a book of fire To read the Old Testament is to draw close to God's love which continues to burn away our expectations and set us ablaze This God has traveled with people through pillars of cloud and fire by day and by night since the days of the exodus Six by Two. Stories of Old Schoolfellows. With ... Plates Edith Helen Dixon, 1873 Healing the Mind with Faith, Friendship and Love B.S. Kesavan M.D., 2018-07-09 This is my maiden attempt to write a memoir with events portrayed the way I remember them It is about faith friendship and love Also it is a story about a dreamer who was determined to overcome all odds illness death and failure did not deter him from achieving his goal It is a story about resilience and facing disappointments with grace It is about finally trying to seek the truth about the meaning of life and attempting to tread the path towards spirituality Struggling to Find Our Way Stephanie Oudghiri, 2022-10-01 Rural communities across the United States are experiencing a rapid increase in the number of immigrant students While the number of culturally and linguistically diverse students continues to grow within midwestern states the demographics of teachers remain white female and monolingual Often teachers have little to no training working with students and their families whose backgrounds differ from their own Thus there is a great urgency for teachers to develop culturally competent teaching practices that address the needs of all students The purpose of this year long school based narrative inquiry was to examine the beliefs attitudes and practices of rural educators as they described their work with Latinx immigrant elementary students negotiated the space between a professional and personal identity and demonstrated an ethic of care This inquiry is arranged into livings tellings retellings and relivings Clandinin 2012 work on authentic caring and Valenzuela's 1999 concept of culture and caring relations for Latinx students Swanson's middle range theory of care 1991 1993 which served as the conceptual framework that illuminated how my participants discussed working with and caring for their Latinx immigrant students In Struggling to Find Our Way Rural Educators Experiences Working with And Caring for Latinx Immigrant Students Stephanie Oudghiri's one year school based narrative inquiry is a carefully crafted balance of creativity and rigor with the right notes to engage the reader challenge them to think wonder at what they can do and imagine possibilities for a more socially just education system In this book Oudghiri examines the beliefs attitudes and practices of two white teachers and one Hispanic paraprofessional working with and caring for immigrant students in a rural Indiana community Due to the sensitive nature of this inquiry which focuses on teachers relationships with vulnerable populations immigrant and undocumented Oudghiri s book serves as a model for active engagement by creating a strong sense of place a strong sense of who these teachers and students are and a strong sense of being in the midst of community and school life What is unique and compelling about Oudghiri s writing is her focus on stories of the teachers working in her school site and the children in their classrooms She provides strong evidence using a compassionate lens and the art of storytelling to illuminate lives in the school

Group-Centered Prevention Programs for At-Risk Students Elaine Clanton Harpine,2010-11-09 School psychologists counselors and educators in the K 12 setting face the daunting responsibility of finding balance between mandated testing students mental health concerns and additional academic help for at risk students One solution to this dilemma is to implement a school based mental health approach that combines learning and counseling needs into a single program Several types of successful programs are available though week long intensive programs have recently increased in popularity Group Centered Prevention Programs for At Risk Students focuses on the development of such a week long prevention program and provides professionals with step by step directions to create their own program It also focuses on the use of group centered interventions as an opportunity to prevent at risk behaviors as a means of correcting or changing dysfunctional behavior This highly readable volume addresses such challenging issues as Using self reflection to teach writing skills Increasing interpersonal interaction while honing etiquette Enhancing group acceptance and reading comprehension Rebuilding self efficacy by increasing word recognition and decoding skills With its solid research foundation combined with clear practical program descriptions this volume is an essential addition to the libraries of researchers and practitioners alike in the disciplines of school psychology education social work psychotherapy and counseling and clinical child psychology
