warfare against any visible enemies constituted progress for the Communist cause Yet the first Chinese Communists failed miserably both as members of the Kuomintang coalition and on their own The reasons for the great debacle of the 1920s are set out in this book for the first time in all their complexity As important as this history is Hofheinz declares the lessons Mao learned from his defeats are of even greater significance Mao and his followers shaped every decision in later years to avoid the errors of the past The author demonstrates how Mao used ruralism militarization worship of numbers and not territory and a fierce autonomy from other political groups to gain his ends
