Joiner, 2000 Financial Assistance by Geographic Area, 1978 Place, Race, and Identity Formation Ed Douglas McKnight, 2017-04-07 In this work of curriculum theory Ed Douglas McKnight addresses and explores the intersections between place with specific discussion of Kincheloe's and Pinar's conceptualization of place and identity and race specifically Winthrop Jordan's historical analysis of race as an Anglo European construction that became the foundation of a white mythos To that end he employs a form of narrative construction called curriculum vitae course of life a method of locating and delineating identity formation which addresses how theories of place race and identity formation play out in a particular concrete life By working through how place racializes identity and existence the author engages in a long Southern tradition of storytelling but in a way that turns it inside out Instead of telling his own story as a means to romanticize the sins of the southern past he tells a new story of growing up within the white discourse of the Deep South in the 1960s and 70s tracking how his racial identity was created and how it has followed him through life Significant in this narrative is how the discourse of whiteness and place continues to express itself even within the subject position of a curriculum theorist teaching in a large Deep South university The book concludes with an elaboration on the challenges of engaging in the necessary anti racist complicated conversation within education to begin to work through and cope with heavy racialized inheritances Directory: Public Elementary and Secondary Day Schools, 1968-69: Southeastern region Diane Bochner Gertler, 1970 North Caddo Parish Sam Collier, 2007 In 1835 the United States purchased close to one million acres of land from the Caddo Confederacy of Native Americans the Louisiana portion became known as Caddo Parish The Indian agency's protection of that land delayed the settlement of the parish for 25 years or more after it began in other parts of Louisiana Texas and Arkansas The Red River logjam that existed for a few hundred years backed up bayous which in return created navigable streams and lakes The uplands contained massive stands of virgin timbers and bountiful fruit berries fish and game The first land patents were sold in 1841 and by 1850 the area was known as Caddo Prairie For a majority of the next 100 years steamboat traffic homesteaders plantations subsistence farmers logging operations entrepreneurs and a building boom brought on by the railroad and oil industries uniquely melded to define local cultural history Today three towns and five villages are located in north Caddo Parish while the memories of 10 historic communities remain strong Brush Bayou Flood Control, Caddo Parish, 1973 Huntington Park Phase II Development, Shreveport, 1978 Reports of Committees United States.
