The Department of Basic Education (DBE) has established the Further Education Secondary Programme to attract able and committed men and women into teaching by providing them with a full-cost bursary to enable them to qualify as teachers in primary schools of learning. In return, red-jackets will be placed in a provincial education department to teach in a public school in which a vacancy is reported, thereby repaying the nation in service for the benefit of their higher education. Bursaries cannot otherwise apply directly to a school or to a teacher. Bursaries cannot apply directly to a school or to a teacher. Bursaries cannot apply directly to a school or to a teacher.

Each year of service will repay one full-time year of tuition-related study. The tuition is capped to be paid up placement immediately on completion of the initial teaching qualification. Placement cannot be deferred for any reason. For example, teachers who complete their initial qualification without their placement order to continue study in an education programme. If a course of study is not successfully completed on the mandatory teaching service period is not satisfactorily completed the remaining value of the bursary will be converted into a loan which teachers will be required to repay according to the conditions of the repayment.

Florida Lushness Insurance is available to eligible South African students who choose a course of study in any of the following programmes and are enrolling in study in a designated industry area:
