Abortion Policy and Christian Social Ethics in the United States Mako A. Nagasawa, 2021-01-06 Today s Christian pro life movement has misplaced its priorities The issue of abortion is more complex than the movement often appreciates For a start Scripture is less clear about the moral weight of the fetus than we often think In fact early Christians took different positions on abortion because they also relied on different scientific sources about the unborn Furthermore Christian conservatives today do not acknowledge that in American history as today Christian stances on abortion were motivated by other political fears White Protestant Americans developed different state laws on abortion to accomplish anti immigrant goals in the North but anti black racism in the South That messiness impacts U S constitutional law including Roe v Wade Meanwhile Scripture commissions God s people to confront socio economic factors that push abortion rates higher male privilege and the disempowerment of women the high cost of child raising the causes of birth defects the desire to care narrowly for just my children mistaken views about contraception and the culture wars and most of all poverty This book incorporates biblical studies church history science social science history and public policy to argue that we must not approach abortion policy primarily from a criminal justice standpoint as modern conservatives do but from a broad social and economic standpoint meant to benefit and bless all children

The Father and the Feminine Spencer Miles Boersma, 2024-09-12 How should Christians speak of the transcendent yet personal God when our language for persons is almost always gendered Is male imagery such as Father Son or King the only appropriate way Are there ways to talk of God using female gendered metaphors and pronouns And how does the use of such language impact humans as gendered people Moving beyond the extremes in this debate The Father and the Feminine seeks to clarify the ways Christians speak about God whether this is by recognizing revelation and Christian tradition upholding God's ineffability using analogies metaphors and narratives referring to God as Father Son and Spirit or by seeking a liberating way of life in community Spencer Miles Boersma argues that male language for God need not be problematic if used and understood correctly but at the same time that it cannot be the exclusive way Christians speak of the Divine The grammar of Christian Scripture and tradition both authorize the use of female language which Christians ought to use in pursuing a deeper relationship with God and others as well as a more authentic view of self Make the Devil Homeless Vladimir Savchuk,2025-10-07 Shut the door on darkness before it consumes your soul While reading this book you will be able to recognize spiritual oppression break curses and overcome soul ties You will also be able to slam the door shut on any dark forces trying to take control In Make the Devil Homeless pastor and deliverance minister Vladimir Savchuk offers a practical guide to breaking free from demonic strongholds and living victoriously Drawing from biblical truths and ministry experience Savchuk will equip you to Recognize spiritual oppression Break curses Overcome soul ties Move from deliverance to dominion Covering topics like haunted houses bloodline curses and second heaven warfare this book empowers readers to shut the door on darkness and walk in God's abundant freedom Whether seeking personal breakthrough or helping others Make the Devil Homeless is your roadmap to lasting spiritual victory The Scandal of a Divine Messiah Brian J. Crawford,2024-12-30 In this groundbreaking book Brian J Crawford navigates the complex intellectual landscape that has traditionally separated Jews and Christians His focus is on a scandalous claim God became a man as Jesus of Nazareth Since the Middle Ages Jewish philosophers have said such an idea is impossible and absurd and Jewish mystics have said the idea is redundant for all things are inhabited by divine sparks By critically examining the philosophical underpinnings of the Maimonidean and Kabbalistic thought that has shaped Jewish theology Crawford constructs a compelling case for the incarnation that is grounded in the Hebrew Scriptures consistent with history informed by science and illuminated by philosophical inquiry Included within is a deep interaction with Maimonides's Guide to the Perplexed the Jewish mystical tradition historical Christian orthodoxy and Messianic Jewish theology This landmark study promises to reinvigorate Jewish Christian discourse on the nature of God the Jewishness of the Trinity and the incarnation and the role of philosophy in Judaism and Christianity The Meaning of Singleness Danielle Treweek,2023-05-09 Drawing upon ancient and contemporary theologians Dani Treweek offers biblical historical cultural and theological reflections to retrieve a theology of singleness for the church today Far from being a burden she shows that singleness presents the church with a foretaste of the eschatological reality that awaits all of God's people From Rus' to Rímur Shaun F. Anna Litvina James McIntosh Dirk H Steinforth Fjodor Uspenski Towards a Social Bioarchaeology of the Mycenaean Period Ioanna Moutafi, 2021-06-09 This book investigates the complex relationship between funerary treatment and wider social dynamics through a contextual analysis of human skeletal remains and associated mortuary data from Voudeni an important Mycenaean 1450 1050 BC chamber tomb cemetery in Achaea Greece Voudeni is one of the most significant sites of Achaea thoroughly investigated under the direction of the Honorary General Director of Antiquities Dr Lazaros Kolonas Over 60 chamber tombs spanning the entire Late Helladic III period have been excavated yielding an unprecedented wealth of biocultural information This study explores the post mortem treatment of the body in the Voudeni cemetery through a novel interpretive approach that transcends unproductive cross disciplinary divisions This biosocial approach integrates traditional archaeology current reflections in mortuary archaeological theory and cutting edge bioarchaeological methods primarily focused on funerary taphonomy and archaeoethnology of commingled skeletal assemblages The author proposes that the most effective route to explore the social dimensions of mortuary data is through an emic understanding of historically situated actions and experiences both of the living actors the mourners and of the dead themselves Human skeletal remains are used as the primary strand of evidence both as the object of the acts of the living and the subject of their own lived experiences Most importantly this study aspires to show how reconciliation between abstract theoretical advances and empirical biocultural data may be possible providing the most insightful path to a better understanding of the archaeological mortuary record The book provides a thorough background on Mycenaean mortuary research and explores the topic in successive stages a theoretical and methodological framework b detailed taphonomic analysis and osteological results of 20 tombs c multivariate analysis of bio cultural data across socio temporal parameters with special emphasis on the distinction between the palatial LHIIIA B and the transitional post palatial LHIIIC period and d final synthesis addressing questions pertaining to changing social conditions in Achaea and key issues of current Mycenaean mortuary research These include tomb re use form diversity sequence and frequency of mortuary activities mortality profiles differential inclusion visibility and funerary treatment of different groups identities changes in treatment of the dead body reflecting shifts in notions of the self and social relationships The results shed new light on social developments in Mycenaean Achaea showing that the complex interaction between changing social conditions and mortuary practice is often reflected in subtle yet meaningful shifts of emphasis in the post mortem treatment of bodies and bones rather than in blatant radical changes Everyday Ethics Michael Lamb, Brian A. Williams, 2019-10-01 What might we learn if the study of ethics focused less on hard cases and more on the practices of everyday life In Everyday Ethics Michael Lamb and Brian Williams gather some of the world's leading scholars and practitioners of moral theology including some GUP authors to explore that question in dialogue with anthropology and the social sciences Inspired by the work of Michael Banner these scholars cross disciplinary boundaries to analyze the ethics of ordinary practices from eating learning and loving thy neighbor to borrowing and spending using technology and working in a flexible economy Along the way they consider the moral and methodological questions that emerge from this interdisciplinary dialogue and assess the implications for the future of moral theology Sanctifying Theology Jacob Lett,Jonathan M. Platter,2023-10-30 Sanctification is not merely a practical and isolated doctrine but should permeate the whole horizon of theology dogmatics ethics practices as well as the sciences and the arts The essays are collected under the twin convictions that theology can be sanctified and sanctifying The whole of theology is inflected by holiness and so theology should aim to share in God s sanctifying work Sanctifying Theology contributes new possibilities in Wesleyan holiness theology and explores their contribution to various Christian doctrines and contemporary issues Written in honor of the work of Thomas Arthur Noble the essays in this book are attentive to the streams of theology that have most influenced him the fathers the Wesleys and the Torrances Both constructive and exploratory the topic of the essays cover among other things 1 consideration of how Wesleyan holiness theologies contribute to ecumenical theological discussions 2 readings of Wesleyan holiness theology through the lens of the church fathers and the Torrances and 3 explorations of how these conversations and sources might shape contemporary practical and ethical concerns The essays work both for the Wesleyan tradition and from the Wesleyan tradition for the church catholic showing how recent trajectories in Wesleyan holiness theology might contribute to broader discussions Art Historical Perspectives on the Portrayal of Animal Oshisanya,2022-07-10 A Compendium of Jurisprudential Annotations of Cases with Treaties Statutes Rules and Commentaries Race, Nation, History Oded Y. Steinberg,2019-08-02 In Race Nation History Oded Y Steinberg examines the way a series of nineteenth century scholars in England and Germany first constructed and then questioned the periodization of history into ancient medieval and modern eras shaping the way we continue to think about the past and present of Western civilization at a fundamental level Steinberg explores this topic by tracing the deep connections between the idea of epochal periodization and concepts of race and nation that were prevalent at the time especially the role that Germanic or Teutonic tribes were assumed to play in the unfolding of Western history Steinberg shows how English scholars such as Thomas Arnold Williams Stubbs and John Richard Green and German scholars such as Christian Karl Josias von Bunsen Max Müller and Reinhold Pauli built on the notion of a shared Teutonic kinship to establish a correlation between the division of time and the ascent or descent of races or nations For example although they viewed the Germanic tribes conquest of the Roman Empire in A D 476 as a formative event that symbolized the transformation from antiquity to the Middle Ages they did so by highlighting the injection of a new and dominant ethnoracial character into the decaying empire But they also rejected the idea that the fifth century A D was the most decisive era in historical periodization advocating instead for a historical continuity that emphasized the significance of the Germanic tribes influence on the making of the nations of modern Europe Concluding with character studies of E A Freeman James Bryce and J B Bury Steinberg demonstrates the ways in which the innovative schemes devised by this community of Victorian historians for the division of historical time relied on the cornerstone of race Church of Our Granddaughters Carrie Frederick Frost,2023-02-16
