What Does Biust Have For 2015:

Economic Diversification in Africa Imogen Mogotsi, Ndateelela Namwoonde, 2023-08-29 Botswana is a major producer of the world's diamonds and has been a pacesetter for beneficiation in the country. All mineral resources are finite. Botswana is working towards diversifying the economy before the diamonds run out. As one of the most stable and prosperous countries in Africa, Botswana sets an example to follow. This book gives a practical review of topical issues and the roles of government, the private sector, economic institutions, and the international community in driving economic diversification. It highlights challenges faced by many small open economies in Africa as they search for new engines of growth. Improving the Performance of Construction Industries for Developing Countries Pantaleo D. Rwelamila, Abdul-Rashid Abdul-Aziz, 2020-12-21 This book documents the experiences, development, and prospects of the construction industry in numerous developing countries. It will provide a strong base of reference for countries looking to improve their construction industries as part of their wider economic development programme. The opening chapter presents a strategic overview of the contents of the book, and each country-specific chapter is structured to consider the legal and policy frameworks, administrative infrastructure, and procedures and implementation mechanisms, as well as the experiences, current activities, and future plans and programmes with respect to construction industry development in each country. The concluding chapter looks forward and considers the implications of future trends for the construction industries in developing countries and the actions which will be required to address them. Chapters cover India, Singapore, Chile, South Africa, Tanzania, Malaysia, Botswana, Ghana, Uganda, Indonesia, China, Croatia, and Eswatini. Readers will learn about the wealth of comparable stories from global coverage from the detailed country-specific cases. Building on important scholarly works in the field, this book is essential reading for academics, researchers, and policy makers in built environments, economics, construction management, infrastructure management, and the wider construction industry. Wireless Communication Networks and Internet of the Black Sea region has again become the focus of world history. In this handbook international scholars from various historical and cultural disciplines provide deep historical insights into the structures of conflict, cooperation and interrelations between the Balkans, the Middle East, the Caucasus and Eastern Europe in the space referred to as the Black Sea world. The trans-maritime communication and intra-regional circulations spanning from Antiquity to the present day via Byzantium, the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, the Crimean Khanate, the Venetian, Safavid, Ottoman and Romanov empires, two World Wars and the Cold War highlight the autonomy of this historical region in the larger transcontinental setting designated in various times and varying languages as the Pontus Euxinus, the Mare Maggiore, the Kara Deniz, the Chernoe More or the Black Sea. This voluminous edition sheds real light upon the history of the Black Sea region from antiquity until the end of the 20th century. Not only does this first-rate book provide a host of excellent historical essays across time, it also devotes considerable attention to important questions regarding how the Black Sea region is conceptualized and theorized. A very useful contribution. James H. Meyer, Montana State University. In the wake of several research projects, monographs and journals, this is the first groundbreaking handbook on the cohesive history of the Black Sea as a historical meso-region. It gathers 39 excellent contributions that provide the conceptual apparatus, survey the history of the region from a Greek to Byzantine to Ottoman lake to conflicting rivalries to its recent transformation from a quasi-Soviet to a quasi-NATO lake, examine the ideas that underpin the various national, ethnic and religious identities, research the different mobilities through migration, transport infrastructure and take stock of its turbulent history through conflicts and war. Maria Todorova, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Mostly the work of scholars from Central Europe and the Black Sea region, this massive volume focuses on the relationship between historical research and memory, in particular the difficulty of certain groups living in the region when confronted with empires and nation-states whose centers may be quite distant from the Black Sea. Attentive readers may thus view the present handbook not merely as a work of reference on history, memory and movement but also as a testimony to the historical perspectives developed by a significant number of Central European and Black Sea scholars during the first quarter of the twenty-first century. Suraiya Faroqhi, Ibn Haldun University, Istanbul.

Jobst,Stefan Rohdewald,Stefan Troebst,2024-12-30 Following the annexation of Crimea by the Russian Federation in spring 2014 160 years after the Crimean War and the full scale invasion of Ukraine in February 2022
