When Can U Register For 2016 At Sol Plaatje:

Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokahe, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works. Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance. It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written. Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts, humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history. Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance. The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten. They include Magesa Fuze, John Dube, Aggrey Klaaste, Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane, Mandisi Sindo, William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees. The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power, promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo. Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers, critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics, it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life. This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa.

Inclusive Education in South African Further and Higher Education Tsediso Michael Makoelle, Cina P. Mosito, 2025-05-26 A historical overview of the evolution of inclusive education alongside the emergence of concepts such as equity and access, highlighting how these ideas have evolved, been enacted and practiced in the higher education institutions of South Africa since 2001.

University on the Border Lis Lange, Vasu Reddy, Siseko H. Kumalo, 2021-08-27 The volume explores and thinks through the process of decolonising the South African higher education system by examining MustFall. The text offers theoretical insights from a historical, contemporary and multidisciplinary lens while examining the embedded meanings of the university as an institution, idea and set of practices to show the shifts and changes that were inaugurated by MustFall along with the historicities that define the university both locally and globally. The retro and prospective insights presented in the book surface the crisis of authority that places the university in a state of precarity which is framed in the book as the border. The volume proposes the concept of the border recognising its conceptual and analytical dynamism as a generative space that can facilitate new imaginaries and articulations of this social institution the university

Sensitive Negotiations Nikki Hessel,2021-08-01 Throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Indigenous peoples in North America and the Pacific engaged with the latest and most fashionable British Romantic poetry as part of transcontinental and transoceanic cross cultural negotiations about sovereignty treaty rights and land claims In Sensitive Negotiations Nikki Hessel uses examples from North America Africa and the Pacific to show how these Indigenous figures quoted lines from famous poets like Lord Byron and Felicia Hemans to build sympathy and community with their audience Hessel makes new connections by setting aside European derived genre barriers to bring literary studies to bear on the study of diplomacy and scholarship from diplomatic history and Indigenous studies to bear on literary criticism By connecting British Romantic poetry with Indigenous diplomatic texts artefacts and rituals Hessel reimagines poetry as diplomatic and diplomacy as poetic

Home is where Your Politics are Jessica A. Scott,2024 Home Is Where Your Politics Are is a vivid consideration of queer and trans activism in the US South and South Africa situated in their own contexts and international narratives about those contexts The book traverses international borders as boldly as the activists present in the text declare these spaces home

Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa Janet Remington, Brian Willan, Bhekizizwe Peterson,2016-10-01 Sheds new light on Native Life appearing at a critical historical juncture and reflects on how to read it in South Africa s heightened challenges today First published in 1916 Sol Plaatje s Native Life in South Africa was written by one of the South Africa s most talented early twentieth century black leaders and journalists Plaatje s pioneering book arose out of an early African National Congress campaign to protest against the discriminatory 1913 Natives Land Act Native Life vividly narrates Plaatje s investigative journeying into South Africa s rural heartlands to report on the effects of the Act and his involvement in the deputation to the British imperial government At the same time it tells the bigger story of the assault on black rights and opportunities in the newly consolidated Union of South Africa and the resistance to it Originally published in war time London but about South Africa and its place in the world Native Life travelled far and wide being distributed in the United States under the auspices of prominent African American W E B Du Bois South African editions were to follow only in the late apartheid period and beyond The aim of this multi authored volume is to shed new light on how and why Native Life came into being at a critical historical juncture and to reflect on how it can be read in relation to South Africa s heightened challenges today Crucial areas that come under the spotlight in this collection include land race history mobility belonging war the press law literature language gender politics and the state

The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, Nene Ernest Khalema,2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Africa presents a comparative analysis of sociological thinking in Africa Focusing on examples from Africa this diverse collection presents to a broad readership an accessible comprehensive up to date and topical analysis of sociological thinking in Africa Sociological discourse about African societies has been challenging and difficult due to a lack of both comprehensive analyses and holistic sociological evidence that covers Africa from past to present This Handbook locates African sociological thinking in historical context and takes a critical look at its current manifestations across the continent Decolonising Curricula and Pedagogy in Higher Education Shannon Morreira, Kathy Lockett, Siseko H.

Kumalo, Manjeet Ramgotra, 2021-05-31 This book brings together voices from the Global South and Global North to think through what it means in practice to decolonise contemporary higher education Occasionally a theoretical concept arises in academic debate that cuts across individual disciplines Such concepts which may well have already been in use and debated for some time become suddenly newly and increasingly important at a particular historical juncture Right now debates around decolonisation are on the rise globally as we become increasingly aware that many of the old power imbalances brought into play by colonialism have not gone away in the present The authors in this volume bring theories of decoloniality into conversation with the structural cultural institutional relational and personal logics of curriculum pedagogy and teaching practice What is enabled in practice when academics set out to decolonize their teaching spaces What commonalities and differences are there where academics set out to do so in universities across disparate political and geographical spaces This book explores what is at stake when decolonial work is taken from the level of theory into actual practice The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Thematics Antimicrobial Research and One Health in Africa Akebe Luther King Abia, Sabiha Yusuf Essack, 2023-02-27 Antimicrobial resistance is recognised among the world's most challenging problems Despite its global spread Africa specifically sub Saharan Africa is the most affected by this malaise Poor living conditions and inadequate access to sanitation and potable water supplies are among contributing factors that have influenced a high disease burden on the continent requiring extensive antimicrobials Weak health systems and the absence of firm policies further aggravate the problem as the use of antimicrobials is mostly unregulated The increasing demand for animal protein to meet the starving populations demands has also influenced the use of these antimicrobials including those banned on other continents for food animal production The ripple effect of indiscriminate use in humans and animals is the massive discharge of antimicrobials their residues antimicrobial resistant microorganisms and their associated genes into the environment This 14 chapter unique masterpiece presents the AMR problem in Africa addressing the various compartments of the One Health humans animals and the environment to illustrate the need for concerted efforts in the fight against AMR especially in Africa Authors from the four cardinal points present diverse aspects of AMR in Africa starting with behavioural and social drivers of AMR in Africa Antimicrobial stewardship in an African context is also discussed AMR in humans is presented through studies on antibiotic resistant neonates and nontyphoidal Salmonella infections and the clinical relevance of the genetics of viral resistance Topics on AMR in mastitis biosecurity in animal farming and the linkage between disinfectants and AMR are discussed The environmental dimension of AMR is discussed notably in the aquatic environment and its implication for aquaculture and irrigation and using nanomaterials to treat polluted waters from such environments are highlighted Finally Africa s rich floral diversity is portrayed as an eco friendly and cost effective approach to combat AMR Hopefully the work presented will spur greater collaboration between scientists environmental animal and human health practitioners the general population and policymakers to assimilate and implement the One Health approach to combating AMR rather than working in silos on their various sectors Inequalities and the Progressive Era Guillaume

Vallet,2020-06-26 Inequalities and the Progressive Era features contributors from all corners of the world each exploring a different type of inequality during the Progressive Era 1890s 1930s Though this era is most associated with the United States it corresponds to a historical period in which profound changes and progress are realized or expected all over the globe

Unsettling Apologies Melanie Judge,Dee Smythe,2022-09-29 Drawing on the histories of injustice dispossession and violence in South Africa this book examines the cultural political and legal role and value of an apology Youth-Led Social Movements and Peacebuilding in Africa Ibrahim Bangura,2022-05-23 This book critically examines and analyses the active role played by youth led social movements in pushing for change and promoting peacebuilding in Africa and their long term impacts on society Africa s history is characterised by youth movements The continent s youth populations played pivotal roles in the campaign against colonialism and ever since independence Africa s youth have been at the center of social mobilisation Most recently social media has contributed significantly to a further rise in youth led social movements However the impact of youth voices is often marginalised by patriarchal and gerontocratic approaches to governance denying them the place voice and recognition that they deserve Drawing on empirical evidence from across the continent this book analyses the drivers and long term impacts of youth led social movements on politics in African societies especially in the area of peacebuilding The book draws attention to the innovative ways in which young people continue to seek to re engineer social space and challenge contexts that deny them their voice place recognition and identity This book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of social movement studies youth studies peace and conflict studies history political sciences social justice and African studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Until We Have Won Our Liberty Evan Lieberman,2024-09-24 A compelling account of South Africa s post Apartheid democracy At a time when many democracies are under strain around the world Until We Have Won Our Liberty shines new light on the signal achievements of one of the contemporary era s most closely watched transitions away from minority rule South Africa s democratic development has been messy fiercely contested and sometimes violent But as Evan Lieberman argues it has also offered a voice to the voiceless unprecedented levels of government accountability and tangible improvements in quality of life Lieberman opens with a first hand account of the hard fought 2019 national election and how it played out in Mogale City a post Apartheid municipality created from Black African townships and White Afrikaner suburbs From this launching point he examines the complexities of South Africa s multiracial society and the unprecedented democratic experiment that began with the election of Nelson Mandela in 1994 While acknowledging the enormous challenges many South Africans continue to face including unemployment inequality and discrimination Lieberman draws on the country s history and the experience of comparable countries to demonstrate that elected Black led governments have without resorting to political extremism improved the lives of millions In the context of open and competitive politics citizens have gained access to housing basic services and dignified treatment to a greater extent than during any prior period Countering much of the conventional wisdom about contemporary South Africa Until We Have Won Our Liberty offers hope for the enduring impact of democratic ideals

Using African Epistemologies in Shaping Inclusive Education Knowledge Mbulaheni Obert Maguvhe,Mfundo Mandla Masuku,2023-07-13 This book thus explores the role of African epistemologies in addressing the myriad challenges posed by the inclusive education system in Africa and other contexts In recent years the shift from special education to inclusive education has had a significant impact on the provision of education and the education system as a whole in Africa The impact has been felt in all institutions of learning from low to high public and private government and across departments of education Inclusive education if shaped correctly by using African epistemologies would empower learners to attain the relevant skills knowledge values and attitudes for their own intellectual growth and personal development

Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube,2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book s blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip

readers to contribute to sustainable global development

The Rise of the African Novel

Mukoma Wa Ngugi, 2018-03-27 Engaging questions of language identity and reception to restore South African and diaspora writing to the African literary tradition

Predicaments of Knowledge Suren Pillay, 2024-09-01 Predicaments of Knowledge explores the difficult questions South African universities face after apartheid Is there a difference between Africanising a university and decolonising a university What about differences between deracialising and decolonising the curricula taught at universities across disciplines Through a range of reflections on race language colonial postcolonial and decolonial knowledge projects from Africa and Latin America this book explores the pitfalls and possibilities that face a post apartheid generation inventing the future of knowledge The distinctions between Africanisation decolonisation and deracialisation are often conflated in the political demands put to universities Suren Pillay emphasises all three as important but distinct imperatives If an intervention is undertaken with the aim of decolonising the university while actually addressing deracialisation it can undermine the effort to decolonise Similarly if an initiative to Africanise the university does not address decolonisation both processes can be undermined Drawing on more than two and a half decades of the author s participation in these debates these essays aim to intervene in and elucidate questions and predicaments rather than offering blue prints they are dialogical in spirit even when polemical in tone In conversation with existing continental African and Latin American experiences they offer incisive reflections on current South African debates Cultivating Race Julia Tischler, 2025-02-17 Simultaneous to the rise of industrial capitalism agriculture still the mainstay of most human communities around the globe in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries underwent dramatic changes In many countries including most settler economies a large scale input heavy and increasingly mechanized commercial agricultural sector emerged while scores of struggling rural producers were squeezed off the land The same period saw the rise of a global colour line increasingly rigid social categorizations based foremost on skin colour By considering agricultural progressivism as both a Pan Africanist and white supremacist movement Julia Tischler here demonstrates how the agrarian question and the colour line intersected Taking a uniquely transnational and comparative approach the book explores these rural transformations through the lens of agricultural education including agricultural colleges extension services children s clubs and domestic training In so doing and by taking South Africa in the segregation period as its central case study an extreme example of both rapid agrarian change and state sanctioned racism the book offers important insights into global questions of rural reform and race politics addressing all scholars and students who seek to understand the intricate links between race knowledge and rural reform in the twentieth century
