A School Of Love The Cistercian Way To Holiness:

A School of Love M. Basil Pennington, 2000 Cistercian spirituality may be seen as rooted in the lilt of an extended family in all its simplicity and ordinariness but yet touching hearts and minds with words that make ancient truths new and incisive for succeeding generations Esther de Waal in the Foreword The renowned author Basil Pennington leads us on an exploration of the life and energy of the Cistercian way in the company of four of its greatest teachers William of Saint Thierry offers practical guidance to the journey of faith which begins with contemplation of God and leads by way of love to union with God Aelred of Rievaulx celebrates Friendship and shows how we can integrate our emotions with our love of the divine and the human Guerric of Igny provides those vital down to earth qualities without which we can never make progress in work or prayer Bernard of Clairvaux points us to the goal of our journey the embrace of divine love and traces the inward and outward paths that we must follow to attain this prize Finally and with all the practical wisdom of the Cistercian way we are shown how to practice how to pray continually and contemplatively and how to develop a personal rule of life that will bring joy and spiritual empowerment

Taking Your Soul to Work R. Paul Stevens, Alvin Ung, 2010-11-09 R Paul Stevens and Alvin Ung tap into the wisdom of the Bible and the Christian spiritual tradition to redefine the workplace as an arena for personal spiritual growth Together they discuss real life dilemmas and give practical guidance on turning professional work into the catalyst for a richer more balanced spiritual life from publisher description

Walking the Compassionate Road Rev. Peter Devenish-Meares, 2012-06-11 Walking the Compassionate Road is a deeply invitational book that calls us to stop examine and adjust what we do so as to be more aware mindful and caring of ourselves so as to be more compassionate towards others Drawing on monastic life and psychology the book offers practical tips and examples that urge us to reflect on what we do and perhaps more importantly who we are The author long experienced in walking alongside people who are busy or disaffected and who seek healing and meaning in their lives offers a unique perspective on a much sought after virtue compassion Self care humility and compassion are aged old steps towards wholeness The author offers an experiential approach that draws the best from psychology and spirituality in a way that the searcher the busy manager or the tired worker can all use what they need as they go

Archangel Raphael Mary LaSota, Transforming Renewal Andy Lord, 2015-01-12 Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements have seen great growth over the last century and have engaged with many Christian traditions Yet there are signs that all is not well and there is a need to develop theologies of renewal that engage with practice and across the traditions if the movements are to continue to grow In particular this book seeks an ecumenical engagement between David Watson and Thomas Merton leaders in the charismatic and monastic renewal movements The aim is to reflect on the theological roots of these renewal movements through a study of particular people who lived them in practice and sought to help others understand how the triune God was at work This is done against the wider background of contemporary renewal theology to develop constructive proposals for renewal theology in the future Receptive ecumenism provides the method for bringing the different voices into conversation in ways that also point forward in approaches to ecumenical dialogue It is thus a study relevant to those seeking new ways in theology those involved in renewal and ecumenical movements students of Thomas Merton and all who seek to better understand the Christian renewal movements that have swept the world

Plunging into the Kingdom Way Tim Dickau, 2011-01-01 What practices might a community of faith take up that will bear witness to the alternative world Jesus envisions and calls us towards That is the question that Grandview Calvary Baptist Church an initially small and fragile group of Christ followers has kept asking over the last twenty years Along the way this small group has spawned a vibrant community of faith that has traveled along four trajectories towards a shared life in community radical hospitality justice for the least and confession leading to transformation In a culture where individualism consumerism injustice and autonomy shape us all these practices have re shaped not only the people of this church but also the neighborhood they inhabit in the East side of Vancouver British Columbia For anyone wanting to recover ancient but newly shaped practices of the first disciples Plunging into the Kingdom Way offers renewed hope By relating their story in conversation with a host of theologians sociologists and philosophers Tim Dickau sparks the imagination for how you and your friends your community or your church can live out the radical vision of Jesus in your neighborhood today Plunge in and you will discover renewed hope that you can actually follow the way of Jesus today

Aelred of Rievaulx on Love and Order in the World and the Church John R. Sommerfeldt, 2006 The universe is a product of God s infinite love according to the expansive thinking of Aelred of Rievaulx a Cistercian abbot of the Middle Ages Aelred sees human existence order and action as reflections of God s love But Aelred knows that although they have been created for happiness humans are neither perfect nor happy At the same time however he is sure that the flood of God s love can overwhelm people who do not reject this divine gift Because Aelred knows that humans exist only in relationship he searches out the social order necessary for happiness So he explores the nature of the church as a community and the support that each social group or calling gives to the whole of existence This study examines how Aelred sees God informing the cosmos and the humans who inhabit it according to the divine order and principle of love It follows Aelred s analysis of the disordering sources of human unhappiness which happens when humans reject God s love and then investigates Aelred s understanding of God s re ordering of the human condition through the gifts and graces flowing from his greatest gift his son Jesus BOOK JACKET

Centering Prayer Basil Pennington, 2010-12-15 The practice of prayer and meditation in modern Western Christianity is rooted in the Eastern tradition of early Church prayer as well as the wisdom of early Church fathers In Centering Prayer M Basil Pennington the author of the highly acclaimed Daily We Touch Him returns to these roots offering contemporary Christians a new approach to ancient prayer forms Pennington combines the best of the Eastern spiritual exercises such as the Jesus Prayer with a spirituality for today s world Addressing the obstacles that discourage people from praying well he explains how to relax for prayer how to listen to and be directed by the Other and how to handle the pain and distractions that can stifle attempts to communicate with God Centering Prayer has sold more than a quarter million copies since it was first published in 1982 In this eminently practical book simple inspiring instructions will help readers find the comfort and the guidance they seek through prayer

Cistercian Spirituality Francis Acharya,2011-04-01 Cistercian Spirituality An Ashram Perspective is a spiritual directory written by Fr Francis Acharya for the monastic community that he founded at Kurisumala Kerala India As the editor Fr Michael Casey relates in the introduction This book is offered to a wider world in the hope that it will serve as a means of making and deepening contact with the spirit of the Cistercian tradition not so much as it is written but as it has been lived for over six decades by a deeply spiritual man To those who know of Kurisumala Ashram or who have read the biography of Fr Francis it will provide a gateway to an understanding of the interior life of this remarkable monk In particular his description of the stages of the experience of prayer will certainly be helpful to many who like him are lifelong seekers of the unseen God Francis Acharya OCSO left the Belgian monastery of Scourmont in 1955 after twenty years as a Trappist to live his monastic life in India His experiences put him in contact with such other pioneering spirits as Henri Le Saux Abishiktananda Jules Monchanin In Quest of the Absolute and Bede Griffiths Return to the Centre The Golden String and led to an uncommonly successful inculturation of Christian monasticism within Indian culture and spirituality at Kurisumala where he served as Acharya teacher until his death in 2001 His biography Kurisumala Francis Mahieu Acharya A Pioneer of Christian Monasticism in India is also published by Cistercian Publications
