Lambert,2018 Singing the Resurrection brings music to the foreground of Reformation studies as author Erin Lambert explores song as a primary mode for the expression of belief among ordinary Europeans in the sixteenth century for the embodiment of individual piety and the creation of new communities of belief Together resurrection and song reveal how sixteenth century Christians from learned theologians to ordinary artisans and Anabaptist martyrs to Reformed Christians facing exile defined belief not merely as an assertion or affirmation but as a continuous living practice Thus these voices raised in song tell a story of the Reformation that reaches far beyond the transformation from one community of faith to many With case studies drawn from each of the major confessions of the Reformation Lutheran Anabaptist Reformed and Catholic Singing the Resurrection reveals sixteenth century belief in its full complexity Genealogy of the South Indian Deities Bartholomaeus Ziegenbalg, Daniel Jeyaraj, 2005 For the first time the work Genealogy of the South Indian Deities of the first Protestant missionary to India Bartholomaeus Ziegenbalg 1682 1719 is made accessible to an English readership Originally published in 1713 the text reveals Ziegenbalg's ethos in the emerging European Enlightenment and his willingness to learn from the South Indians The text contains the original voices of knowledgeable South Indians from various religious backgrounds and presents South India in a vivid direct and unfiltered way In this volume Daniel Jeyaraj edits and presents the German original in an English translation This is followed by a detailed textual analysis a glossary and an appendix This book is invaluable for anyone interested in reliable information about the interactions of Europeans with Hindu and Tamil religion and culture Wrestling with the Reformation in Augsburg, 1530 Emily Fisher Gray, 2023-10-24 In 1530 Holy Roman emperor Charles V called an imperial council in Augsburg hoping to resolve religious dissension in the empire introduced by Martin Luther whose 95 Theses criticized the church's practice of offering promises of forgiveness from sins in exchange for money Luther's allies in the town of Wittenberg presented the emperor with their theological positions Another faction aligned with Swiss reformer Ulrich Zwingli offered more radical reforms The Roman church responded with a defense of traditional doctrines but by then hope of a simple resolution to religious concerns had faded By the time the council ended local authorities in Augsburg recognized that its neutral middle way position could not continue The city would have to choose a side in the ongoing Reformation In the game students acting as members of the 1530 City Council of Augsburg must balance competing demands for reform from citizens who espouse the religious conservatism of Charles V while considering the implications of various Reformation positions for the city's military defense economic growth and spiritual purity Students will have to choose whether to align with the Zwingli or the Wittenberg faction uphold the traditions of the church in Rome or create a unique approach to religious practices Circular of Lord Stanley to Her Majesty's Representatives abroad, together with their replies Lord Stanley, 1868
