A Tale of Two Villages Alina Mungiu, 2010      Global Villages Ger Duijzings, 2014-12-01 This book explores the multiple effects of globalization on urban and rural communities providing anthropological case studies from postsocialist Bulgaria As globalization has been studied largely in urban contexts the aim of this volume is to shift attention to the under examined countryside and analyse how transnational links are transforming relations between cities towns and villages The volume also challenges undifferentiated notions of the countryside calling for an awareness of rural economic and social disparities which are often only associated with urban environments The work focuses on how the urban and rural have been reconfigured following the end of socialism and the advent of globalization in socioeconomic as well as political ideological and cultural terms      Peasants under Siege Gail Kligman, Katherine Verdery, 2011-07-25 In 1949 Romania's fledgling communist regime unleashed a radical and brutal campaign to collectivize agriculture in this largely agrarian country following the Soviet model Peasants under Siege provides the first comprehensive look at the far reaching social engineering process that ensued Gail Kligman and Katherine Verdery examine how collectivization assaulted the very foundations of rural life transforming village communities that were organized around kinship and status hierarchies into segments of large bureaucratic organizations forged by the language of class warfare yet saturated with vindictive personal struggles Collectivization not only overturned property relations the authors argue but was crucial in creating the Party state that emerged its mechanisms of rule and the new persons that were its subjects The book explores how ill prepared cadres themselves unconvinced of collectivization's promises implemented technologies and pedagogies imported from the Soviet Union through actions that contributed to the excessive use of force which Party leaders were often unable to control In addition the authors show how local responses to the Party's initiatives compelled the regime to modify its plans and negotiate outcomes Drawing on archival documents oral histories and ethnographic data Peasants under Siege sheds new light on collectivization in the Soviet era and on the complex tensions underlying and constraining political authority

Stategraphy Tatjana Thelen, Larissa Vetter, Keebet von Benda-Beckmann, 2017-11-30 Stategraphy the ethnographic exploration of relational modes boundary work and forms of embeddedness of actors offers crucial analytical avenues for researching the state By exploring interactions and negotiations of local actors in different institutional settings the contributors explore state transformations in relation to social security in a variety of locations spanning from Russia Eastern Europe and the Balkans to the United Kingdom and France Fusing grounded empirical studies with rigorous theorizing the volume provides new perspectives to broader related debates in social research and political analysis      Repression, Resistance and Collaboration in Stalinist Romania 1944-1964 Monica Ciobanu, 2020-10-14 This book examines how the process of remembering Stalinist repression in Romania has shifted from individual family and group representations of lived and witnessed experiences characteristic of the 1990s to more recent and state sponsored expressions of historical remembrance through their incorporation in official commemorations propaganda sites and restorative and compensatory measures Based on fieldwork dealing with Stalinist repression and memorialization together with archival research on the secret police Securitate it adopts an interdisciplinary approach to reveal the resurfacing of particular themes As such it draws on concepts from sociology political science and legal studies related to memory justice redress identity accountability and reconciliation A study of competing narratives concerning the meaning of the past as part of a struggle over the legitimacy of the post communist state Repression Resistance and Collaboration in Stalinist Romania 1944 1964 combines memory studies with a transitional justice approach that will appeal to scholars of sociology heritage and memory studies politics and law Public Policy in Agriculture Ashok K. Mishra, Davide Viaggi, Sergio Gomez y Paloma, 2017-08-07 In recent years developed countries have formulated public policies in agriculture ranging from supporting rural life and farm income to promoting sustainability of food and fibre production Public Policy in Agriculture Impact on Labor Supply and Household Income addresses the lack of empirical research in this area It explores the impact of differing approaches to public policy through a series of international case studies from the USA and Canada to South Korea Norway Slovenia and Taiwan At a time when much of the developed world has been experiencing budget deficits and policy makers and the public in general have re opened the debate on public expenditures in the agricultural sector this is a timely volume Mishra Viaggi and Gomez y Paloma have written an authoritative guide to agricultural public policy that will serve as a reference for academics researchers students and policy makers Doing Spatial History Riccardo Bavaj, Konrad Lawson, Bernhard Struck, 2021-12-30 This volume provides a practical introduction to spatial history through the lens of the different primary sources that historians use It is informed by a range of analytical perspectives and conveys a sense of the various facets of spatial history in a tangible case study based manner The chapter authors hail from a variety of fields including early modern and modern history architectural history historical anthropology economic and social history as well as historical and human geography highlighting the way in which spatial history provides a common forum that facilitates discussion across disciplines The geographical scope of the volume takes readers on a journey through central western and east central Europe to Russia the Mediterranean the Ottoman Empire and East Asia as well as North and South America and New Zealand Divided into three parts the book covers particular types of sources different kinds of space and specific concepts tools and approaches offering the reader a thorough understanding of how sources can be used within spatial history specifically but also the different ways of looking at history more broadly Very much focusing on doing spatial history this is an accessible guide for both undergraduate and postgraduate students within modern history and its related fields When Things Become Property Thomas Sikor, Stefan Dorondel, Johannes Stahl, Phuc Xuan To, 2017-04-01 Governments have conferred ownership titles to many citizens throughout the world in an effort to turn things into property Almost all elements of nature have become the target of property laws from the classic preoccupation with land to more ephemeral material such as air and genetic resources When Things Become Property interrogates the mixed outcomes of conferring ownership by examining postsocialist land and forest reforms in Albania Romania and Vietnam and finds that property reforms are no longer if they ever were miracle tools available to governments for refashioning economies politics or environments The

Anthropology of East Europe Review ,2004 A Story of Ambivalent Modernization in Bangladesh and West Bengal Pranab Chatterjee,2010 This book details the evolution of Bengali culture in both Bangladesh and West Bengal since antiquity and argues for its modernization Originally peripheral to Hindu civilization based in North India Bengali culture was subjected to various forms of Sanskritization Centuries of invasions 1204 1757 resulted most notably in the Islamization of Bengal Often there were conflicts between Sanskritization and Islamization Later colonization of Bengal by Britain 1757 led to a process of Anglicization which created a new middle class in Bengal that in turn created a form of elitism among the Bengali Hindu upper caste After British rule ended 1947 Bengali culture lost its elitist status in South Asia and has undergone severe marginalization Political instability and economic insufficiency as reflected by many quantitative and qualitative indicators are common and contribute to pervasive unemployment alienation vigilantism and instability in the entire region A Story of Ambivalent Modernization in Bangladesh and West Bengal is appropriate not only for Bengali intellectuals and scholars but for sociologists political scientists cultural anthropologists historians and others interested in a case study of how and why a given culture becomes derailed from its path toward modernization Bulletin of the Atomic

Political Thought in East Central Europe Balázs Trencsényi,Michal Kopeček,Luka Lisjak Gabrijelčič,Maria Falina,Mónika Baár,Maciej Janowski,2018-10-18 A History of Modern Political Thought in East Central Europe is a synthetic work authored by an international team of researchers covering twenty national cultures and 250 years It goes beyond the conventional nation centered narratives and presents a novel vision especially sensitive to the cross cultural entanglement of political ideas and discourses Its principal aim is to make these cultures available for the global market of ideas and revisit some of the basic assumptions about the history of modern political thought and modernity as such The present volume is a sequel to Volume I Negotiating Modernity in the Long Nineteenth Century It begins with the end of the Great War depicting the colorful intellectual landscape of the interwar period and the increasing political and ideological radicalization culminating in the Second World War Taking the war experience both as a breaking point but in many ways also a transmitter of previous intellectual traditions it maps the intellectual paradigms and debates of the immediate postwar years marked by a negotiation between the democratic and communist agendas as well as the subsequent processes of political and cultural Stalinization Subsequently the post Stalinist period is analyzed with a special focus on the various attempts of de Stalinization and the rise of revisionist Marxism and other critical projects culminating in the carnivalesque but also extremely dramatic year of 1968 This volume is followed by Volume II Negotiating Modernity in the Short Twentieth Century and Beyond Part II 1968 2018

Ulmer Bernd Herzogenrath,2009-05-20 Considered the King of Poverty Row Edgar G Ulmer 1904 1972 was an auteur of B productions A filmmaker with an individual voice Ulmer made independent movies before that category even existed From his early productions like The Black Cat 1934 and Yiddish cinema of the late 1930s to his final films of the late 1950s and early 1960s Ulmer created enduring works within the confines of economic constraints Almost forgotten Ulmer was rediscovered first in the 1950s by the French critics of the Cahiers du Cinema and then in the early 1970s by young American directors notably Peter Bogdanovich But who was Edgar G Ulmer The essays in this anthology attempt to shed some light on the director and the films he created films that are great possibly because of rather than despite the many restrictions Ulmer endured to make them In The Films of Edgar G Ulmer Bernd Herzogenrath has assembled a collection of essays that pay tribute to Ulmer s work and focus not only on his well known films including Detour but also on rare gems such as From Nine to Nine and Strange Illusion In addition to in depth analyses of Ulmer s work this volume also features an interview with Ulmer s wife and an interview Ulmer gave in 1965 in which he comments on actors Bela Lugosi and Boris Karloff as well as fellow directors Tod Browning and James Whale
