A Vietnam Experience James B. Stockdale, 2013-09-01 The decade that followed James Stockdale's seven and a half years in a North Vietnamese prison saw his life take a number of different turns from a stay in a navy hospital in San Diego to president of a civilian college to his appointment as a senior research fellow at the Hoover Institution In this collection of essays he offers his thoughts on his imprisonment Describing the horrors of his treatment as a prisoner of war Stockdale tells how he discovered firsthand the capabilities and limitations of the human spirit in such a situation As the senior officer in confinement he had what he humbly describes as the easiest leadership job in the world to maintain the organization resistance and spirit of ten of the finest men I have ever known His reflections on his wartime prison experience and the reasons for his survival form the basis of the writings reprinted here In subject matter ranging from methods of communication in prison to military ethics to the principles of leadership the thirty four selections contained in this volume are a unique record of what Stockdale calls a melting experience a pressure packed existence that forces one to grow Retired Vice Admiral James B Stockdale a Hoover Institution fellow from 1981 to 1996 was Ross Perot's 1992 presidential running mate and a recipient of the Medal of Honor after enduring seven and a half years as a prisoner of war in North Vietnam He died in 2005 at the age of 81

Professional Journal of the United States Army, 1985 Courage Under Fire James B. Stockdale, 2013-09-01 When physical disability from combat wounds brought about Jim Stockdale's early retirement from military life he had the distinction of being the only three star officer in the history of the navy to wear both aviator wings and the Congressional Medal of Honor His writings have been many and varied but all converge on the central theme of how man can rise with dignity to prevail in the face of adversity Military Review, 1985 Voices of the Vietnam POWs Craig Howes, 1993-09-30 Unsure whether they would be greeted as traitors or heroes POWs returning from Vietnam responded by holding tight to their chosen motto Return with Honor We're giving the American people what they want and badly need heroes said a Vietnam jungle POW I feel it's our responsibility our duty to help them where possible shed the idea this war was a waste useless as unpopular as it may have been In the first book to explore the entire range of memoirs biographies and group histories published since America's Vietnam POWs returned home Craig Howes explores the development of a collective history He describes how these captives drew upon their national heritage to compose a unified common story while still in prison and how individual POWs have responded to this Official Story Examining what racial cultural and political assumptions support this shared Official Story Howes places the POWs experiences squarely in the center of American history and within those larger clashes of opinion and belief which characterized the nation's response to the Vietnam War The result is an engrossing study of what these captivity narratives can tell us about the POWs their captors and America's Vietnam legacy gripping history of aircraft carrier USS Oriskany s three deployments to Vietnam with Carrier Air Wing 16 CVW 16 Its tours coincided with the most dangerous phases of Operation Rolling Thunder the ill fated bombing campaign against North Vietnam and accounted for a quarter of all the naval aircraft lost during Rolling Thunder the highest loss rate of any carrier air wing during Vietnam The Johnson administration s policy of gradually applied force meant that Oriskany arrived on station just as previous restrictions were lifted and bombing raids increased As a result CVW 16 pilots paid a heavy price as they ventured into areas previously designated off limits by Washington DC Named after one of the bloodiest battles of the Revolutionary War the Oriskany lived up to its name After two years of suffering heavy losses the ship caught fire a devastating blow given the limited number of carriers deployed With only three months allotted for repairs Oriskany deployed a third and final time and ultimately lost more than half of its aircraft and more than a third of its pilots The valor and battle accomplishments displayed by Oriskany s aviators are legendary but the story of their service has been lost in the disastrous fray of the war itself Fey portrays the Oriskany and its heroes in an indelible memorial to the fallen of CVW 16 in hopes that the lessons learned from such strategic disasters are not forgotten in today s sphere of war bent politics The Secrets of Happiness Richard Schoch,2006-11-14 Unhappy is the story of happiness More than two thousand years ago when the ancient Greeks first pondered what constitutes the good life happiness was considered a civic virtue that demanded a lifetime s cultivation Not just mere enjoyment of pleasure and mere avoidance of suffering true happiness was an achievement not a birthright Now in an age of instant gratification and infinite distraction history professor Richard Schoch takes a refreshingly contemplative look at a question that s as vital today as ever What does it mean to be happy Schoch consults some of history s greatest thinkers from Aristotle to Thomas Aquinas to Buddha in his quest to understand happiness in all its hard won forms Packed with three thousand years worth of insights many long forgotten The Secrets of Happiness is a breath of ancient wisdom for anyone who yearns for the good life New Books National Defense University. Identities for Life and Death Robert J. Pellegrini, 2010-09 This book is all about stories The stories that shape our identities and how those identities shape our destinies for better or worse for good or evil in humanizing or dehumanizing ways Working from the Shakespearian metaphor All the world s a stage and all the men and women merely players Pellegrini argues that only by understanding how our storied selves develop can we acquire the tools to modify the roles they dictate for us to play on the stage in the theater of real life The author deconstructs a wide variety of what he calls toxic dehumanizing death oriented self scripts as well as creative humanizing life oriented narratives of groups as well as individuals Following the Native American parable of two wolves engaged in mortal combat within us one good the other evil the fundamental premise here is that our identity determines which of our inner wolves we feed and thus which of them will prevail Pellegrini maintains that what s at stake in this battle between humanity s collective inner wolves is not just the quality but the very survival of life on earth From this perspective as individual and group selves are humanizingly or dehumanizingly narratized by the way we exercise our God given free will in the choices we make so shall life be impacted throughout the world To advance the cause of detoxifying identities in our global society the author presents a rationale and program for an international grass roots social movement aimed at achieving a universal sense of belongingness to a global life system You can watch and listen to a video in which Dr Bob Pellegrini talks about this book and why he wrote it by entering Identities for Life and Death in the search bar at youtube com
