Violence Deidre Nicole Green, 2016-11-10 As she constructively engages feminist critiques of Christianity's complicity in violence Deidre Nicole Green challenges traditional beliefs that self sacrifice amounts to love and that suffering is inherently redemptive by arguing for a Kierkegaardian conception of Christian love that limits self sacrifice Back cover The Catholic Biblical Quarterly, 2008 Includes various reports of the Association A Doorway Into Thanks Tim Vivian, 2023-04-07 Poetry should be transitive and deal with something other Thus a doorway offers transition liminal space an invitation a going across into possibly numerous somethings other We can't assume however that the door is always open if closed we need to open it A doorway can confront us Have we the courage to reach for the handle Given the horrors of 2020 and 2021 we must open the door both to grieving and thanksgiving The poems here are midrashim Midrash is a reflection on scripture These poems first imagine passages and stories from the Bible and then reimagine them they build stages create and breathe life into characters and landscape biblical passages with new often challenging backgrounds Many of the poems here have religio political subtexts The poems speak of darkness the things that darken our country and our hearts but they also speak of the life giving lights of mystery wonder and thanksgiving the things that give us hope As writer and poet Louise Erdrich tells us This is how our lives complete themselves as effortless as weather circles blaze in ordinary days and through our waking selves they reach to touch our true and sleeping speech Understanding the Hebrew Bible John Barton, 2025-02-01 This is the latest in a series of volumes published about every twenty five years since 1924 surveying the current state of the academic study of the Old Testament more often called the Hebrew Bible in scholarly contexts It is written by leading members of the Society for Old Testament Study the professional organization for scholars in that field in the UK and Ireland but with international members too some of whom have contributed to the volume It provides academics students of the Bible clergy and rabbis and intelligent general readers with a snapshot of the main approaches and issues in the study of the Hebrew Bible since approximately the year 2000 There are chapters on specific biblical books in their ancient context grouped mainly by genre but also on methodological aspects of biblical studies today including interdisciplinary perspectives and contemporary questions such as the Bible in sociological theological historical archaeological literary and linguistic perspectives and the influence of concerns about gender race visual culture and psychology A particular recent interest is represented by a chapter on the reception history of the Hebrew Bible in the visual arts music and literature including drama and film The concern throughout is to encapsulate contemporary currents in interpretation rather than to put forward the contributors' personal views but also to suggest how biblical study may or should develop next in these areas As with previous volumes what is provided is a view of global scholarship as seen from these islands that will be useful to serious students of the Hebrew Bible throughout the world As well as describing their field the contributors also provide substantial bibliographies pointing readers to other modern discussions Imagining Eden Jamall A. Calloway, 2025-11-25 A number of Black writers have drawn inspiration from the biblical tale of the expulsion from paradise In this deeply interdisciplinary and poetically written book Jamall A Calloway explores the presence of Eden and the aftermath of the Fall in works by James Baldwin Toni Morrison Richard Wright and Alice Walker In reflecting on Eden he contends these writers rethought what paradise could mean in the face of the catastrophes of the Black experience By placing key novels in conversation with major religious thinkers Calloway shows how Black writers adopted Edenic motifs to rebut orthodox interpretations of Genesis with striking theological implications He argues that Baldwin s Giovanni s Room counters St Paul s proclamations on the mortification of the flesh reads Morrison s Paradise against St Augustine s City of God as a challenge to the exclusions of the Garden of Eden investigates Wright s use of S ren Kierkegaard s interpretation of Adam in The Outsider and demonstrates how Walker s The Color Purple and Catholic theologian Ivone Gebara offer a radical reconceptualization of the serpent in Genesis The book concludes with a reflection on Lucille Clifton s poetry Revealing the richness of Black writers engagement with theology Imagining Eden is a profoundly original consideration of literature and liberation God and humanity

Because of Eve Joseph E. Early, Jr., 2022-10-15 Because of Eve is a thorough examination of how the Church and Christian men sought to define women and the roles women must play within the church home and society for more than two thousand years The book examines the works of theologians decrees of councils canon law statements of faith and a myriad of other pronouncements that affected their generation and the following generation s beliefs concerning women Each chapter considers the era in which these beliefs were voiced as much of what was accepted as orthodoxy was reflected in or based on cultural beliefs WORDS OF PRAISE This important study surveys the roles of women roles often assigned to them by men through both biblical testaments and across Christian history to the contemporary church It is a significant research resource for understanding historical theological spiritual and cultural interactions between males and females and the religious dogmas that influenced and divided them Bill J Leonard Emeritus Professor of Divinity Wake Forest University Joseph Early has meticulously researched the primary sources throughout the history of the Church to show definitively how men for their own purposes have used the Bible to categorize and define women Early then goes further to show how these erroneous and unbiblical beliefs are reflected and amplified in some modern day theologies and practices As an observer of this six year long research project I can attest to the author s innate dedication and fidelity to the task of showing how God s word is not detrimental to women but instead uplifts them as co heirs with Christ and indeed on equal ground with their brothers in Christ Twyla K Hernandez Professor of Missions Campbellsville University Joseph Early s Because of Eve Historical and Theological Survey of the Subjugation of Women in the Christian Tradition is an incredibly useful compendium of Christian men s beliefs about women across church history With careful detail and ample primary source evidence Early demonstrates how for most of church history men have offered biblical interpretations and constructed misogynistic theologies that maintain and reproduce the subordination of women This volume will be helpful for academics and general readers alike for its comprehensive documentation of the treatment of women in men's thinking and writing from biblical times until the present Susan M Shaw Professor of Women Gender and Sexuality Studies Oregon State University
