Mole Under the Fence Ron Ferguson, Mark Chater, 2006 Roland Walls is a name known only by word of mouth and few of his teachings ever appeared in print until now For the first time the view of this prophetic wise mischievous and deeply loved former priest in charge of the famed Rosslyn Chapel are available and accessible to all in his favourite conversational form The book offers an impression of a man who thinks while he talks While Walls is not performing an academic act nevertheless his thoughts convictions questions doubts hope humour compassion irony almost tumble out of the pages yet in an orderly pure manner And there is much more Hence the short conclusion must be go and buy Coracle Busloads of tourists arrive at Rosslyn Chapel because it features in the blockbuster novel The Da Vinci Code Nearby in a slightly dilapidated building is the home of the Community of the Transfiguration Many people have visited this place too It is what Ron Ferguson calls an arena of healing hope and inspiration He visited it to record conversations with Roland Walls a remarkable popular and inspiring theologian who has many illuminating things to say about our times

EXTRACT Roland how do you understand the kingdom of God One of the things that is really distressing about the switch of attention from the phenomenal church to the kingdom of God which is good and I m wholeheartedly behind it is that in making this tremendous shift from identifying the kingdom of God with the church most of us go to town about building the kingdom Now so far as I know there is no mention in the Bible whatsoever of building the kingdom or indeed of building Jerusalem The Lord builds up Jerusalem and he comes down from heaven to us And that deflected arrow from God to us is the constant temptation of the zealous and the active It s a common thing isn t it this talk of building the kingdom having a blueprint That s right as if we ve got a blueprint and all we ve got to do is build it But that overthrows the essential good news of the gospel which is that it is all going to be gift It s going to arrive You re going to enter it You re going to be invited to see it to enter it to be given it And it s going to arrive from God to us Now what do we mean then by the kingdom of God Is it here Is it coming What are we actually offering people Well I think the kingdom of God in its meaning in the Aramaic and Greek and in the Latin regnum means the rule of God where God has his way the kingdom comes In the Lord s Prayer we pray eschatologically about the end but we also pray fervently Thy will be done today by us but also in spite of us Now the kingdom comes when the will is done So all we should do is either a make a space where God can himself do something and we sit back and watch it which is marvellous most of the time God can t do any will of his because we re having our religious or spiritual wills fulfilled by ourselves or b say Well look Lord put me in the way of your will so that I can do it by the insights and the strengths you ve given me So in a way God s doing it yes through us I believe that the kingdom can be prepared for by making a space by following the little insignificant seemingly insignificant will of God in how we spend money and how we treat one another and all the rest of it But in the end the kingdom itself the bliss of the kingdom is sheer grace nothing we can manage So the stuff about building the kingdom is a real heresy Yes it s the usual Western semi Pelagianism When we ask anybody about the sacraments when we talk about the Word when we talk about prayer theologically we know we have to avoid semi Pelagianism but in actual practice especially in preaching we get on to semi Pelagianism because it s so easy to invite people into some incredible challenges and all that nonsense The word challenge another word that never appears in scripture seems to occur until you re knee deep in challenges after most sermons That s right it s all about challenge building and great exhortations Yes What are we going to do about it and all that The minister in the pulpit loves that bit of the sermon when he s done with all the exposition of the text and gets on to well what are we going to do about it That s one of the things that seems to run through the whole church spectrum the challenge to build produce some kind of results Those who preach that show the kind of oughtness they re living with There s a real anxiety there and a terrible guilt that they haven t done this or they haven t done that That s what gives them the nerve to tell other people And the terrible thing is that just at the moment when the Church of Rome is reviewing what it thinks of Luther some of them going so far as to say that one of these days he ll be declared in some of his writings a Doctor of the Church the Protestant world seems to have gone on to a works thing Recommended by Rowan Williams John Miller Keith O Brien Brian Smith Iain Torrance and Alison Newell The
