The Teaching of Instrumental Music Richard Colwell, Michael Hewitt, 2015-08-20 This book introduces music education majors to basic instrumental pedagogy for the instruments and ensembles most commonly found in the elementary and secondary curricula. This text focuses on the core competencies required for teacher certification in instrumental music. The first section of the book focuses on essential issues for a successful instrumental program: objectives, assessment, and evaluation; motivation; administrative tasks; and recruiting and scheduling, including block scheduling. The second section devotes a chapter to each wind instrument plus percussion and strings and includes troubleshooting checklists for each instrument. The third section focuses on rehearsal techniques from the first day through high school.

The Instrumentalist ,1980 The Amateur Flautist Hugh Evans,2014-10-28 Many people learn the flute Most give it up as an adult because they cannot easily find anyone to play with and a lack of practice makes it less enjoyable to play This book is aimed at helping such people The first chapter diagnoses why most amateur flautists give up playing and sets out a number of remedies The most important is finding other musicians with whom to play whether in an orchestra or more importantly in chamber groups The author explores how you might set about finding players for chamber music and how you might set about finding the music itself The second chapter gives guidance about the music for all the principal combinations of chamber groups which involve the flute The most significant ones are flute and piano two to four flutes trio sonatas with another melody instrument and piano and the wind quartet The author describes the principal works for each of these groups which are fun and manageable for amateurs rather than listing everything that is available Listed are the significant works that are available for free on the internet The third chapter suggests a short practice regime to counteract the deficiencies in the playing of most amateur flautists which are poor tone and tuning Practicing half an hour a few times a week should do the trick
