A Scrap Of Time And Other Stories:

A Scrap of Time and Other Stories Ida Fink, 1995 Named a New York Times Notable Book Winner of the PEN Book of the Month Club Translation Prize Winner of the Anne Frank Prize These shattering stories describe the lives of ordinary people as they are compelled to do the unimaginable a couple who must decide what to do with their five year old daughter as the Gestapo come to march them out of town a wife whose safety depends on her acquiescence in her husband s love affair a girl who must pay a grim price for an Aryan identity card My Mother's Voice Adrienne Kertzer, 2001-12-11 How do children's books represent the Holocaust How do such books negotiate the tension between the desire to protect children and the commitment to tell children the truth about the world If Holocaust representations in children s books respect the narrative conventions of hope and happy endings how do they differ if at all from popular representations intended for adult audiences And where does innocence lie if the children's fable of Roberto Benigni's Life is Beautiful is marketed for adults and far more troubling survivor memoirs such as Anita Lobel s No Pretty Pictures A Child of War are marketed for children How should Holocaust Studies integrate discourse about children's literature into its discussions In approaching these and other questions Kertzer uses the lens of children's literature to problematize the ways in which various adult discourses represent the Holocaust and continually challenges the conventional belief that children's literature is the place for easy answers and optimistic lessons Short Story Index ,1994 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading Holocaust Literature David G. government which denied what was happening In response the mothers of the disappeared came together and marched in Buenos Aires at the Plaza de Mayo demanding week after week that their children be returned or accounted for Democracy was finally restored with promises of truth and justice As memory gave way to historical amnesia however and judicial processes to reconciliation the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo continued to march Do not forget they insisted do not forgive Sixty years later a nonlocalizable electronic agent that calls itself the Daughters of the Plaza de Mayo emerges on the global Network No one knows what the Daughters are or what they want They tell horrifying stories from Argentina and elsewhere They provide seemingly endless lists of victims names They invoke El Eternauta a comic book character from a space beyond time to press a moral perspective that demands the impossible They are singular and plural informative and obscure irritating threatening unclassifiable and relentless in the pursuit of their agenda whatever that may be Reference Guide to Holocaust Literature Thomas Riggs, 2002 Covering the entire spectrum of the literature of the Holocaust era from the beginnings of Nazism through the concentration camp experience survivor syndrome and second generation response this detailed survey includes entries on more than 200 authors and 300 works Author entries include detailed biographical information as well as expert analytical interpretation Work entries discuss each work in detail and include a critical essay written by an expert in the field Value added features include chronologies further reading lists and nationality concentration Using and Abusing the Holocaust Lawrence L. Langer, 2006-06-21 Langer by the force of camp and title indexes scholarship and literary precision rather than dogmatic affirmation and pathos is one of the few writers with the exception of significant poets and novelists who unsettles both our customary language and conceptual instruments His book is a moral as well as an intellectual act of a very high order Geoffrey Hartman author of The Longest Shadow In this new volume Langer one of the most distinguished scholars writing on Holocaust literature and representation assesses various literary efforts to establish a place in modern consciousness for the ordeal of those victimized by Nazi Germany's crimes against humanity Essays discuss the film Life Is Beautiful the uncritical acclaim of Fragments the fake memoir by Benjamin Wilkomirski reasons for the exaggerated importance still given to Anne Frank's Diary and a recent cycle of paintings on the Old Testament by Holocaust artist Samuel Bak The Old Willow Tree and Other Stories Carl Ewald, 2023-07-20 The Old Willow Tree and Other Stories by Carl Ewald is a captivating collection of short stories that transports readers into a world of imagination wonder and reflection Through these tales the author explores various themes emotions and human experiences leaving a lasting impression on readers of all ages The title story The Old Willow Tree revolves around an ancient tree that stands as a witness to the passing of time and the unfolding of human lives It becomes a focal point for a diverse cast of characters who seek solace wisdom and comfort beneath its branches The story beautifully conveys the tree s significance as a symbol of resilience continuity and the cyclical nature of life In The Magic Cap readers are introduced to a young boy who stumbles upon a magical cap that grants him the power to understand the language of animals Through this newfound ability he embarks on exciting adventures and learns valuable life lessons emphasizing the importance of empathy and compassion Other stories in the collection explore themes of friendship love and the complexities of human relationships Each narrative introduces distinct characters and situations that resonate with readers making them reflect on their own experiences and emotions Carl Ewald's storytelling is imbued with a sense of wonder and a deep connection to nature and the human spirit. His prose flows gracefully drawing readers into the worlds he creates with vivid imagery and emotional depth Throughout. The Old Willow Tree and Other Stories Ewald's narratives touch on universal themes that transcend time and place making the collection a timeless treasure Whether it's the enchanting encounters with animals the exploration of human emotions or the celebration of the beauty of nature each story has its own unique charm and resonance Readers of The Old Willow Tree and Other Stories will be captivated by Carl Ewald's ability to weave heartfelt tales that evoke a wide range of emotions The collection serves as a reminder of the power of storytelling to connect us to our shared humanity and the world around us

The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of World War II Marina MacKay, 2009-01-22 The literature of World War II has emerged as an accomplished moving and challenging body of work produced by writers as different as Norman Mailer and Virginia Woolf Primo Levi and Ernest Hemingway Jean Paul Sartre and W H Auden This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of the international literatures of the war both those works that recorded or reflected experiences of the war as it happened and those that tried to make sense of it afterwards It surveys the writing produced in the major combatant nations Britain and the Commonwealth the USA Japan Germany France Italy and the USSR and explores its common themes With its chronology and guide to further reading it will be an invaluable source of information and inspiration for students and scholars of modern literature and war studies Ethics, Art, and Representations of the Holocaust Simone Gigliotti, Jacob Golomb, Caroline Steinberg Gould, 2013-11-22 The American Jewish philosopher Berel Lang has left an indelible impression on an unusually broad range of fields that few scholars can rival From his earliest innovations in philosophy and meta philosophy to his ground breaking work on representation historical writing and art after Auschwitz he has contributed original and penetrating insights to the philosophical literary and historical debates on ethics art and the representation of the Nazi Genocide In honor of Berel Lang's five decades of scholarly and philosophical contributions the editors of Ethics Art and Representations of the Holocaust invited seventeen eminent scholars from around the world to discuss Lang's impact on their own research and to reflect on how the Nazi genocide continues to resonate in contemporary debates about antisemitism commemoration and poetic representations Resisting what Alvin Rosenfeld warned as the end of the Holocaust the essays in this collection signal the Holocaust as an event without closure of enduring resonance to new generations of scholars of genocide Jewish studies and philosophy Readers will find original and provocative essays on topics as diverse as Nietzsche s reputed Nazi leanings Jewish anti apartheid activists in South Africa wartime rescue in Poland philosophical responses to the Holocaust hidden diaries in the Kovno Ghetto and analyses of reactions to trauma in classic
