Sontag, 2010 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject English Literature Works grade 1-7 RWTH Aachen University Institut für Anglistik I course Hauptseminar American Drama language English abstract Tennessee Williams born Thomas Lanier Williams is not only known for being a talented perceptive and influential American playwright Day 1987 vii but also for his frequent use of symbols A Streetcar Named Desire 1947 the work which will be dealt with in this paper is a good example for of usage since it contains a lot of different kinds of symbolism for example concerning colours names music and many more Numerous works will be found if anyone searches for essays about symbolism in Williams works Moreover it is common knowledge that Streetcar is a play which deals not only superficially with a woman going insane but a play which brings into violent contrast a neurotic woman's dream world and the animalistic realism of her brother in law back of the book in the Diesterweg edition But since there does not seem to be any work which deals with the question of how exactly Williams drew this contrast by use of symbolism it will be my aim in this paper to analyse this question Consequently I will try to point out the main symbols with which Williams underlined the contrast between realism and illusion especially considering names colours clothes light music and certain rituals of the main characters In the second part of this paper I will deal with the question to what degree the main characters Stanley and Blanche are strictly opposed to each other or may have something in common I will also deal with the meaning of the ending concerning realism and illusion Therefore what will be discussed are the most striking antinomies and similes in the main characters attitudes A general conclusion about the topic of symbolism in Tennessee Williams Streetcar will be given in the end To introduce the reader to the topic an
