Through the Crosshairs Roger Stahl,2018-06-21 Now that it has become so commonplace we rarely blink an eye at camera footage framed by the crosshairs of a sniper s gun or from the perspective of a descending smart bomb But how did this weaponized gaze become the norm for depicting war and how has it influenced public perceptions Through the Crosshairs traces the genealogy of this weapon s eye view across a wide range of genres including news reports military public relations images action movies video games and social media posts As he tracks how gun camera footage has spilled from the battlefield onto the screens of everyday civilian life Roger Stahl exposes how this raw video is carefully curated and edited to promote identification with military weaponry rather than with the targeted victims He reveals how the weaponized gaze is not only a powerful propagandistic frame but also a prime site of struggle over the representation of state violence     The Last Punisher Kevin Lacz,Ethan E. Rocke,Lindsey Lacz,2017-02-21 A first person account of the Iraq War from a Navy SEAL who was part of SEAL Team 3 with American Sniper Chris Kyle describes their legendary unit The Punishers and provides gripping details of their missions in Ramadi NoveList     The Medal of Honor Dwight S. Mears,2018-08-22 The Medal of Honor may be America s highest military decoration but all Medals of Honor are not created equal The medal has in fact consisted of several distinct decorations at various times and has involved a number of competing statutes and policies that rewarded different types of heroism In this book the first comprehensive look at the medal s historical legal and policy underpinnings Dwight S Mears charts the complex evolution of these developments and differences over time The Medal of Honor has had different qualification thresholds at different times and indeed three separate versions one for the army and two for the navy existed contemporaneously between World Wars I and II Mears traces these versions back to the medal s inception during the Civil War and continues through the ongoing wars in Iraq and Afghanistan along the way describing representative medal actions for all major conflicts and services as well as legislative and policy changes contemporary to each period He gives particular attention to retroactive army awards for the Civil War World War I legislation that modernized and expanded the army s statutory award authorization the navy s grappling with both a combat and noncombat Medal of Honor through much of the twentieth century the Vietnam era act that ended noncombat awards and largely standardized the Medal of Honor among all services and the perceived decline of Medals of Honor awarded in the ongoing Global War on Terror Mears also explores the tradition of awards via legislative bills of relief extralegislative awards administrative routes to awards through Boards of Correction of Military Records restoration of awards previously revoked by the army in 1917 judicial review of military actions in federal court and legislative actions intended to atone for historical discrimination against ethnic minorities Unprecedented in scope and depth his work is sure to be the definitive resource on America s highest military honor     Focus On: 100 Most Popular Drama Films Based on Actual Events Wikipedia contributors,     Mission Unaccomplished Alan Nadel,2025 Throughout his career prominent film scholar Alan Nadel has explored the idea of cultural narratives and how every social unit sees and explains the world through the stories we tell In this book he identifies how the war film genre has changed in the 21st century after 9 11 and more specifically Bush s announcement of Mission Accomplished He explains how the traditional war film narrative in which soldiers have a specific mission or objective to achieve in battle changed to one in which war is treated as a daily occupation with no larger mission that will lead even in the long run to peace He examines how films such as Saving Private Ryan at the end of the 20th century have morphed into films such as Jarhead The Hurt Locker and The Green Zone With the indefinite and ill planned occupation of Afghanistan and Iraq including the privatization of many military services through contractors this new situation has led to films in which we follow soldiers day to day lives as they go through their duties or even after they've come home as in American Sniper Another change in war films during the Global War on Terror puts the emphasis on just surviving and getting out such as in Hacksaw Ridge which even carries over to films about for example WWII such as Dunkirk Again combatants have no specific goal other than escaping or helping others to escape or just surviving long enough to go home Nadel shows how this change has also affected non war films such as Sully Captain Phillips Deepwater Horizon and Get Out and even the television series Lost Nadel deftly moves between political history and film analysis with this wide ranging lucid examination of the changing nature and role of war films I Glanced Out the Window and Saw the Edge of the World Catherine Halsall, 2020-07-08 This book is about WAR not the causes and results not the planning and the campaigns not the artillery and the bombs It is about the heinous crimes committed by the combatants the horrifying experiences of civilians the devastation of cities and villages the killing and the dying the glory leading to revulsion and guilt and the assimilation of suffering that either ends in death or in the triumph of the soul It looks at the struggle of the church to remain faithful and the servants of the church who seek to bring sense and solace to the victims It discusses antisemitism racism and war itself from biblical perspectives It reveals the unjustifiable reasons for engaging in war and how this brings catastrophic results for all peoples the mental instability of the survivors and the loss and grief of those on the home front In war how can men and women carry out the actions that they do As Viktor Frankl writes After all man is that being who has invented the gas chambers of Auschwitz however he is also that being who has entered those gas chambers upright with the Lord's Prayer or the Shema Yisrael on his lips Soldier of Fortune, 2007
