Transforming Tertiary Agricultural Education in Africa David Kraybill, John Lynam, Adipala Ekwamu, 2021-11-24

Enormous changes are affecting African production agriculture urbanization and food consumption patterns requiring new approaches to training and knowledge generation and dissemination to achieve food security Many agricultural universities and other tertiary agricultural education TAE organizations have been slow to respond hindered by inadequate staffing and facilities and growing competition for funds However some African agricultural universities are transforming themselves and are achieving remarkable success This book documents successful approaches to remaking TAE in Africa to inspire leaders both formal and informal of other TAE organizations It emphasises adaptive strategies and processes creating an internal culture driven by stakeholder needs and where organizational transformation improves the quality and relevance of teaching research and outreach The chapters cover the role of TAE in agricultural transformation trends in TAE in Africa solutions to the rigour versus relevance dilemma curriculum design informed by actual and emerging labour market conditions innovation and entrepreneurship TAE quality assurance and networking among TAE institutions Engineering Design and Mathematical Modelling Nnamdi Nwulu, Mammo Muchie, 2020-12-17

Engineering Design and Mathematical Modelling Concepts and Applications consists of chapters that span the Engineering design and mathematical modelling domains Engineering design and mathematical modelling are key tools techniques in the Science Technology and Innovation spheres Whilst engineering design is concerned with the creation of functional innovative products and processes mathematical modelling seeks to utilize mathematical principles and concepts to describe and control real world phenomena Both of these can be useful tools for spurring and hastening progress in developing countries They are also areas where Africa needs to skill up in order to build a technological base The chapters in this book cover the relevant research trends in the fields of both engineering design and mathematical modelling This book was originally published as a special issue of the African Journal of Science Technology Innovation and Development Advances in Human Factors, Business Management, Training and Education Jussi Ilari Kantola, Tibor Barath, Salman Nazir, Terence Andre, 2016-07-26 This book reports on practical approaches for facilitating the process of achieving excellence in the management and leadership of organizational resources. It shows how the principles of creating shared value can be applied to ensure faster learning, training, business development and social renewal. In particular, the book presents novel methods and tools for tackling the complexity of management and learning in both business organizations and society. It covers ontologies, intelligent management systems, methods for creating knowledge and value added. It gives novel insights into time management and operations optimization as well as advanced methods for evaluating customers' satisfaction and conscious experience. Based on the AHFE 2016 International Conference on Human Factors Business Management and Society held on July 27-31, 2016, Walt Disney World, Florida, USA, the book provides both researchers and professionals with new tools and inspiring ideas for achieving excellence in various business activities.

Multipliers of Change Wolf, Tobias, Niedermeier, Frank, Qin, Xia, Faaß, Marcel, Cheng, Ming Yu, Ong, Duu Sheng, Mustafa, Marzuki, Ewe, Hong Tat, Pillai, Stefanie, Ong, Sue Lyn, Abdul Rahman, Mohd Basyaruddin, Waswa, Fuchaka, Abenga, Elizabeth, Indede, Florence, Echeverría King, Luisa Fernanda, Acuña Paez, Katherine, Coronado Vargas, Carlos, Musa Alokpo, Dieudonné, Oulare, Kabiné, Randhahn, Solveig, Mawa, Michael, 2020-12-02

Higher Education Leadership and Management have become increasingly important throughout the years due to the complexities that have to be addressed by universities worldwide. This can be seen not only in professionalisation in fields such as faculty management or in areas of quality assurance and internationalisation but also in the need for exchange and training in academic leadership such as that of deans or study deans or of university leadership in general. The Dialogue on Innovative Higher Education Strategies DIES is addressing this need in emerging countries by building platforms of exchange and offering training courses. Not only is the programme supporting capacity building of human resources but it is also specifically focusing on inducing change within the universities such as introducing new instruments or tools in the area of quality assurance and internationalisation and addressing specific challenges or setting up new structures in the form of projects in the frame of the training. The National Multiplication Trainings Programme under DIES is further addressing the sustainability and multiplication of the DIES Programme that is alumni are enabled to implement capacity building in higher education leadership and management in their national context. The articles within this volume of the Potsdamer Beitr ge zur Hochschulforschung Potsdam Contributions to Higher Education Research analyse and share the experiences of such training programmes held in Colombia, Democratic Republic of Congo, Guinea, Malaysia, Kenya and Uganda. They all revolve around the best ways to address the needs and challenges in higher education leadership and management and in building capacities in these areas.

The Pentecostal World Michael Wilkinson, Jörg Haustein, 2023-04-01. The Pentecostal World provides a comprehensive and critical introduction to one of the most vibrant and diverse expressions of contemporary Christianity. Unlike many books on Pentecostalism, this collection of essays from all continents does not attempt to synthesize and simplify the movement's inherent diversity and fragmented dispersion. Instead, the global flows of Pentecostalism are firmly grounded in local histories and expressions as well as the various modes of their worldwide reproduction The book thus argues for a new understanding of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements that accounts for the simultaneous processes of pluralization and homogenization in contemporary World Christianity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors across various disciplines the volume is comprised of six parts with each offering a critical perspective on classical themes in the study of Pentecostalism Led by a programmatic introduction the thirty six chapters within these parts explore a variety of themes history and historiography conversion spirit beliefs and exorcism prosperity politics gender relations sexual identities racism development migration pilgrimage interreligious relations media ecumenism and academic research The Pentecostal World is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history political science religious studies sociology and theology The book will also be very useful for those in related fields such as culture studies black studies ethnic studies and gender studies

Trauma-sensitivity and Peacebuilding Lydia Wanjau Gitau, 2017-08-18 This book identifies a gap in peacebuilding theory and practice in terms of sensitivity to trauma and its impact on the survivors of war and other mass violence The research focuses on the traumatic experiences and perceptions of peace of South Sudanese refugees in Kakuma Refugee Camp in Northwestern Kenya It further explores the possibilities for peacebuilding identified in these perceptions A lack of sensitivity to the trauma experienced by the survivors of conflict and mass violence leads to interventions that are at best removed from and at worst detrimental to the welfare of the survivors Interventions that take into consideration the complex and multifaceted ways in which the survivors experience and respond to the traumatic events encourage capacities for resilience in the survivors engage the creative arts in peacebuilding and emphasise the centrality of community and relationships are seen to assist the survivors in recovery from trauma and to facilitate peacebuilding Diverse anecdotes and real life stories from the research participants The journey as a recurring motif throughout the book weaved in a clear easy to read style of writing

Is Landscape... ? Gareth Doherty, Charles Waldheim, 2015-10-08 Is Landscape surveys multiple and myriad definitions of landscape Rather than seeking a singular or essential understanding of the term the collection postulates that landscape might be better read in relation to its cognate terms across expanded disciplinary and professional fields The publication pursues the potential of multiple provisional working definitions of landscape to both disturb and develop received understandings of landscape architecture These definitions distinguish between landscape as representational medium academic discipline and professional identity Beginning with an inquiry into the origins of the term itself Is Landscape features essays by a dozen leading voices shaping the contemporary reading of landscape as architecture and beyond
