Activist Pedagogy and Shared Education in Divided Societies ,2022-02-14 Collaborative engagement between activist academics from Israel and Northern Ireland highlighted the challenges and potential of working through education to promote shared learning and shared life in divided societies Following these initial explorations the volume brought together educationalists from Europe the United States and South Africa to widen the range of experience and insights and broaden the base of the conversation The result is this book on the role of shared education not only in deeply divided societies but also in places where minorities face discrimination where migrants face prejudice and barriers or where society fails to deal positively with cultural diversity Together the contributors challenged themselves to develop theoretical and practical paradigms based on practical knowledge and experience to promote activist pedagogies Their shared purpose was to work for more humane just and democratic societies in which education offers genuine hope for sustained transformational change The four main themes around which the book is organized are educating for democratic multicultural citizenship models of shared learning nurturing intercultural competencies and reconciling dialogue in the face of conflicting narratives The book draws on a wide range of international perspectives and insights to identify practical strategies for change in local contexts

Journey Against One Current Julia Duan,1997 At the age of 72 and after years of teaching Julia Duan left China and returned to student life at Whitworth College Spokane Washington and later at Moody Bible Institute Her story was discovered by Linda Hunt a writing professor at Whitworth when she read Julia s description of her first night in the labor camp Touched by this chapter in Julia s life Linda suggested she write her entire story She prayed and ultimately agreed to let her life be a spectacle to the world for God s glory      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1957      Environment and Children Christopher Day,Anita Midbjer,2007 How does the built environment affect children their health their behaviour education and development To support them what do we need to consider and what do we need to do Can our surroundings foster environmental and social awareness and responsibility Based on Christopher Day s experiences designing schools and early childhood centres in the United States and Britain this groundbreaking book sets out to answer these questions and to offer solutions Children all too often find themselves living in alien surroundings designed with the needs of adults in mind cut off not just from the natural environment but also childhood itself Society s reaction to cocoon children from the outside world or to resort to drugs to control behaviour fails to address the fundamental causes of problems which lie in the environment not the children themselves One of the world s leading thinkers on the impact of buildings on people Christopher Day s insights offer new light on one of the most important issues for today s society
