Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,2012 Learning to Teach History in the Secondary School Terry Haydn,Alison Stephen,James Arthur,Martin Hunt,2014-10-10 An excellent companion to Learning to Teach in Secondary School full of good ideas and better advice Mentors will certainly want to use it and so I m sure will the rest of the history department Make sure they buy one and keep your copy under lock and key Michael Duffy Times Educational Supplement A very well written and readable book Overall this is an excellent book and one which students and teachers outwith England would find a valuable addition to their library Scottish Association of Teachers of History Resources Review This book is without question the standard text for the history PGCE market Dr Ian Davies

University of York on the first edition Learning to Teach History in the Secondary School provides an accessible introduction to teaching and learning history at secondary level Underpinned by a theoretical perspective and backed up by the latest research it encourages student teachers to develop a personal approach to teaching history This fourth edition has been thoroughly updated for the new curriculum with a brand new chapter on subject knowledge and a new section on action research to better support those reflecting on and developing their own practice It provides an array of references and materials that give a sound theoretical foundation for the teaching of history including weblinks to further resources while a range of tasks will enable students to put their learning into practice in the classroom Practical advice is combined with reference and access to a wide range of recent and relevant research in the field of history education to support Masters Level research and aid reflective practice Key issues covered include The benefits of learning history Planning The use of language and strategies for teaching Inclusion Technology in history teaching Assessment Continuing professional development Offering comprehensive and accessible support to becoming a history teacher this book remains an invaluable resource for all training and newly qualified history teachers

Bringing the English Curriculum to Life David Didau, 2024-04-12 Bringing the English Curriculum to Life builds on David Didau's groundbreaking book Making Meaning in English by showing how the principles of the original book can be applied in schools and classrooms Drawing together experiences of designing teaching supporting and assessing English across the schools within Ormiston Academies Trust OAT this book demonstrates what an ambitious coherently sequenced broad and balanced English curriculum with successful adaption for students with SEND can look like in practice Designed around the explicit teaching of the powerful conceptual knowledge students need to master the discipline the book offers a fully resourced English curriculum packed with teaching suggestions and examples of high quality practice Covering intent implementation and assessment and outlining in detail what is included in each module for KS3 and 4 the curriculum can be adopted in its entirety but is also flexible enough for departments to take modules and slot them into their own curriculum Providing an inspiring model for teaching English that enables all students to succeed this is an essential resource for all English teachers and school leaders responsible for curriculum development

Teaching English as an Additional Language in Secondary Schools Seán Bracken, Catharine Driver, Karima Kadi-Hanifi, 2016-11-10 With increasing numbers of learners in secondary schools having English as an additional language it is crucial for all teachers to understand the learning requirements of these students and plan distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them This book provides school leaders trainee teachers and qualified teachers with the skills and practical knowledge they need to strengthen the learning outcomes of students for whom English is an additional language Teaching English as an Additional Language in Secondary Schools sets out realistic ways in which EAL learners can be engaged and stretched in their learning building on their prior literacy cultural experiences and language learning It clearly explains the theory and key research into how additional languages are acquired and offers practical classroom teaching and learning strategies to show teachers how they can help EAL learners to access the curriculum and reflect on their learning through assessments Features include tasks to help put the ideas into practice case studies illustrating the key challenges faced by EAL learners summaries of key research findings reflections to encourage deeper thinking Drawing on the daily experiences of teachers and teaching assistants this book will be essential reading for all trainee and practising teachers that want to ensure students with EAL fulfil their true learning potential Closing the Writing Gap Alex Quigley, 2022-05-16 This book explains seven critical steps to improve children's writing Though seemingly natural writing proves devilishly difficult for far too many school pupils and closing this gap can have a lasting impact on their academic and life success With the goal of giving every teacher the knowledge and skill to teach writing with confidence it makes sense of the history and science of writing synthesising the debates and presenting a wealth of usable evidence about how children develop most efficiently as successful writers It trains teachers to be an expert in how pupils learn to write from the big picture of planning editing and revising your writing to the vital importance of grammar and spelling with accuracy Highly practical strategies and easy to use classroom activities are included to help teachers seize opportunities across the curriculum every school day to teach the critical writing process Closing the Writing Gap will guide teachers at every stage of their career and when used with Alex Quigley's much loved books on Vocabulary and Reading gives school leaders evidence based approaches to literacy that can be applied across a school or a group of schools

Systematic Political Geography Martin Ira Glassner, Harm J. De Blij, 1980 Urban Emergency (Mis)Management and the Crisis of Neoliberalism, 2021-08-24 This volume places the Flint Michigan water contamination disaster in the context of a broader crisis of neoliberal governance in the United States Authors from a range of disciplines including sociology criminal justice anthropology history communications and jurisprudence examine the failures in Flint but with an emphasis upon comparison calling attention to similar trajectories for cities like Detroit and Pontiac in Michigan and Stockton in California While the studies collected here emphasize policy failures class conflict and racial oppression they also attend to the resistance undertaken by Flint residents Michiganders and U S activists as they fought for environmental and social justice Contributors include Terressa A Benz Jon Carroll Graham Cassano Daniel J Clark Katrinell M Davis Michael Doan David Fasenfest A E Garrison Peter J Hammer Ami Harbin Shea Howell Jacob Lederman Raoul S Lievanos Benjamin J Pauli and Julie Sze Forward with Classics Arlene Holmes-Henderson, Steven Hunt, Mai Musié, 2018-08-09 Despite their removal from England's National Curriculum in 1988 and claims of elitism Latin and Greek are increasingly re entering the mainstream educational arena Since 2012 there have been more students in state maintained schools in England studying classical subjects than in independent schools and the number of schools offering Classics continues to rise in the state maintained sector The teaching and learning of Latin and Greek is not however confined to the classroom community based learning for adults and children is facilitated in newly established regional Classics hubs in evenings and at weekends in universities as part of outreach and even in parks and in prisons This book investigates the motivations of teachers and learners behind the rise of Classics in the classroom and in communities and explores ways in which knowledge of classical languages is considered valuable for diverse learners in the 21st century The role of classical languages within the English educational policy landscape is examined as new possibilities exist for introducing Latin and Greek into school curricula The state of Classics education internationally is also investigated with case studies presenting the status quo in policy and practice from Australasia North America the rest of Europe and worldwide The priorities for the future of Classics education in these diverse locations are compared and contrasted by the editors who conjecture what strategies are conducive to success
