Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove,Geoff Harris,2019-06-14
Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it

Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna,2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe s extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country Indigenisation of Zimbabwe s extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities This policy however was a response to political economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe s government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000 2003 An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption co optation and collusion which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power capital and minerals and placing extractive industry Indigenisation in capitalism this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining Indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries natural resource management African politics and African development Gender and Rural Globalization Jose Quero-Garcia, Amy Iezzoni, Joanna Pulawska, Gregory A Lang, 2017-08-11 This book explores how rural gender relations are changing in a globalizing world that fundamentally impacts on the structure of agricultural life in rural areas and urban rural relations It analyses the development of rural gender relations in specific places around the world and looks into the effects of the increasing connectivity and mobility of people across places The themes covered are gender and mobility gender and agriculture Gender and rural politics rurality and Gender identity and women and international development Each theme has an overview of the state of the art in that specific thematic area and integrates the case studies that follow Colonial Heritage, Memory and Sustainability in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2015-12-12 This book serves as a drive and medium for constructive analysis critical thinking and informed change in the broad area of cultural heritage studies In Africa how to overturn the gory effects and reverse the wholesale obnoxious and unpardonable losses suffered from the excruciating experience of colonialism in a manner that empowers the present and future generations remains a burning question Colonial and liberation war heritage have received insignificant attention The relevance nature and politics at play when it comes to the role of memory and colonial heritage in view of nation building and sustainability on the continent is yet to receive careful practical and theoretical attention and scrutiny from both heritage scholars and governments Yet colonial heritage has vast potentials that if harnessed could reverse the gargantuan losses of colonialism and promote sustainable development in Africa The book critically reflects on the opportunities constraints and challenges of colonial heritage across Africa It draws empirical evidence from its focus on Zimbabwe South Africa Nigeria Ghana Zambia and Mozambique to advance the thesis that cultural heritage in Africa and in particular colonial heritage faces challenges of epic proportions that require urgent attention Parenting Sayyed Ali Samadi, 2022-05-04 Parenting is a lifelong task and parents are always remaining as a parent Parenting in the present situation faces many challenges which need to be reviewed and understood with profuse equanimity and alacrity This book tries to consider the process of parenting in different conditions such as during COVID 19 lockdown in the refugee camps and in different cultural structures and economic conditions Situations that families face due to changing conditions such as global changes which cause lifestyles immigration patterns social conflicts and raising children with developmental disabilities have been discussed Topics such as professional concern with child care and education gender roles and caregiving and father s involvement in parenting have been covered in different chapters of the book Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religio cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists
