

The background of the image is a scene from the movie Jurassic Park, showing the iconic stone archway entrance. The archway is covered in ivy and has the words "JURASSIC PARK" in large, red, block letters with a yellow outline. The archway is flanked by two stone pillars, each with a small, glowing lantern. The scene is set in a lush, green jungle with mountains in the background. The lighting suggests a bright, sunny day.

 walk with a stone in your shoe Many American evangelicals are experiencing pain and discomfort in their relationship to the church Stones in their shoes make the faith journey uncomfortable and increasingly untenable They either leave the church altogether become church shoppers or live on the margins of the church as outliers This book presents the vantage point of a lifelong evangelical pastor and religious educator who sees himself as an outlier Walters draws on decades of pastoral life and classroom experience to engage the church in a conversation aimed at clarifying the concerns and discomforts of evangelical outliers While this is one person's story it intersects with the stories of many others in American evangelicalism especially clergy In identifying the stones which trouble and discomfort so many like him Walters continually calls the church his church back to its biblical and theological foundations Mendel's Ark Amy Lynn Fletcher,2014-09-19 Does extinction have to be forever As the global extinction crisis accelerates conservationists and policy makers increasingly use advanced biotechnologies such as reproductive cloning polymerase chain reaction PCR and bioinformatics in the urgent effort to save species Mendel's Ark considers the ethical cultural and social implications of using these tools for wildlife conservation Drawing upon sources ranging from science to science fiction it focuses on the stories we tell about extinction and the meanings we ascribe to nature and technology The use of biotechnology in conservation is redrawing the boundaries between animals and machines nature and artifacts and life and death The new rhetoric and practice of de extinction will thus have significant repercussions for wilderness and for society The degree to which we engage collectively with both the prosaic and the fantastic aspects of biotechnological conservation will shape the boundaries and ethics of our desire to
