Christian Shrinks Answer All Your Questions... Ab Abercrombie, Karen Abercrombie, 2005-07 American Visions
Dolores LaGuardia, Hans P. Guth, Karen Harrington, 1994-09 American Visions offers a rich sampling of literature for writing classes with a multicultural perspective exploring the historical context and contemporary relevance of major themes that have shaped our consciousness as a nation American Visions of the Netherlands East Indies/Indonesia Frances Gouda, 2002 A revealing reassessment of the American government's position towards Indonesia's struggle for independence

U.S. vision for space exploration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, 2004 Towards a Diagnosis of Our Times Nikolai Genov, 2025-09-30 This monograph offers a critical diagnosis of the current epoch marked by globalization de globalization and re globalization Arguing that the concept of society gives way to that of globalization as an explanatory core the author shows how constructivist ideas open the way to four new conceptualizations of global trends upgrading the rationality of organizations individualization spread of instrumental activism and homogenization of culture RISC Each trend is presented by two explanatory models The trend of upgrading rationality of organizations is exemplified by analyses of the volatile rationality of industrial organizations and the tensions of regional integration Individualization is dealt with by comparing the development and impact of leaders in Asia and the individualization in the present day war Commercialization together with consumerism is analyzed as a component of the global trend of instrumental activism The homogenization of culture is dealt with through discussions on the dynamic relations of values and norms and the controversial development of social science knowledge The creative approach to global processes is finalized in a discussion on tensions and conflicts in each trend and in their interplay As such it develops a new analytical framework while identifying action fields and activities which reproduce stability and change in contemporary global society The intellectually refreshing critical and constructive ideas of this volume will attract researchers lecturers and upper level students with interests in sociological theory globalization the sociology of culture and the challenges facing contemporary civilization more broadly

Roundtable Discussion on United States-Soviet Relations and the Future of Arms Control United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Security, and Science, 1991 Rivers in History Christof Mauch, Thomas G. Zeller, 2008-07-27 Throughout history rivers have run a wide course through human temporal and spiritual experience They have demarcated mythological worlds framed the cradle of Western civilization and served as physical and psychological boundaries among nations Rivers have become a crux of transportation industry and commerce They have been loved as nurturing providers nationalist symbols and the source of romantic lore but also loathed as sites of conflict and natural disaster Rivers in History presents one of the first comparative histories of rivers on the continents of Europe and North America in the modern age The contributors examine the impact of rivers on humans and conversely the impact of humans on rivers They view this dynamic relationship through political cultural industrial social and ecological perspectives in national and transnational settings As integral sources of food and water local and international transportation recreation and aesthetic beauty rivers have dictated where cities have risen and in times of flooding drought and war where they ve fallen Modern Western civilizations have sought to control rivers by channeling them for irrigation raising and lowering them in canal systems and damming them for power generation Contributors analyze the regional national and international politicization of rivers the use and treatment of waterways in urban versus rural environments and the increasing role of international commissions in ecological and commercial legislation for the protection of river resources Case studies include the Seine in Paris the Mississippi the Volga the Rhine and the rivers of Pittsburgh Rivers in History is a broad environmental history of waterways that makes a major contribution to the study preservation and continued sustainability of rivers as vital lifelines of Western culture Joseph Kandel,Christine A.
