Unintended Consequences of Internationalization in Higher Education Shahrzad Kamyab, Rosalind Latiner

Raby, 2023-02-08 By presenting case studies of internationalization in institutions of higher education around the world this volume identifies unforeseen or unintended impacts within and across countries With contributions from Africa Asia Europe Latin America Middle East and North America the volume considers the nature and origin of positive and negative unintended consequences of internationalization policy and practice in national contexts while also offering uniquely comparative insights Chapters consider how internationalization is reflected in curricula teaching research and mobility initiatives to highlight common pitfalls as well as best practice for effective sustainable and equitable internationalization globally Using a critical lens the book explores how internationalization offers opportunities for learning for entrepreneurial change and for knowledge dissemination and generates paradoxes and dilemmas in terms of political and ethical issues for individuals communities and the institutions themselves Foregrounding the study of internationalization in countries not typically studied this book is a valuable resource for researchers and academics with an interest in internationalization comparative and international education and the sociology of education

Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 3, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Changing Education Education in the Pandemic Sustaining University Education and Embracing the Future in a Global World It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic Raising an 'A' Student Dr Chinwe Njoku, 2021-01-25 Do you ever stay up at night wondering if your child is going to fulfil their potential by following the academic path they are on Are you tired of feeling like there is something the education system is holding back from your child's success Don't you long to remove the guesswork from helping your child achieve consistent academic excellence Raising an A Student is your step by step playbook on the most important steps every parent needs to take as your child's biggest cheerleader Instead of 101 rules do's and don'ts on how to raise an A student this book will guide you on how to develop and harness your child's cognitive skills You would also learn how to Ask the right questions in school choices Work collaboratively with your child to plan their future Get your child's educational providers on your side Secure your child's education in the best schools for free Failure proof tests exams and other assessments Having spent most of her life in education at the receiving and giving end of academia Dr Chinwe Njoku a qualified teacher and researcher is passionate about parents being confident in their decisions for their children's education Commonwealth Universities Yearbook T. Craig, Hugh W. Springer, 1979 PISA 2015 Results (Volume II) Policies and Practices for Successful Schools OECD, 2016-12-06 The OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA examines not just what students know in science reading and mathematics but what they can do with what they know Results from PISA show educators and policy makers the quality and equity of learning outcomes achieved elsewhere The Teaching of Criminal Law Kris Gledhill, Ben Livings, 2016-08-19 The Teaching of Criminal Law provides the first considered discussion of the pedagogy that should inform the teaching of criminal law It originates from a survey of criminal law courses in different parts of the English speaking world which showed significant similarity across countries and over time It also showed that many aspects of substantive law are neglected This prompted the question of whether any real consideration had been given to criminal law course design This book seeks to provide a critical mass of thought on how to secure an understanding of substantive criminal law by examining the course content that best illustrates the thought process of a criminal lawyer by presenting innovative approaches for securing active learning by students and by demonstrating how criminal law can secure other worthwhile graduate attributes by introducing wider contexts This edited collection brings together contributions from academic teachers of criminal law from Australia New Zealand the United Kingdom and Ireland who have considered issues of course design and often implemented them Together they examine several innovative approaches to the teaching of criminal law that have been adopted in a number of law schools around the world both in teaching methodology and substantive content The authors offer numerous suggestions for the design of a criminal law course that will ensure students gain useful insights into criminal law and its role in society This book helps fill the gap in research into criminal law pedagogy and demonstrates that there are alternative ways of delivering this core part of the law degree As such this book will be of key interest to researchers academics and lecturers in the fields of criminal law pedagogy and teaching methods Reimagining Nigeria's Educational System Joseph A. Balogun, 2023-09-20 This book assesses the challenges within the Nigerian educational system and provides a concrete plan to revitalize the low performing system by strengthening high stakes testing at all levels In Nigeria many citizens believe that the solution to the country's low performance in education is to eliminate high stakes standardized testing High stakes testing refers to applying standardized student achievement tests as a primary mechanism to evaluate students teachers and their school's performance This book argues that the poor quality of education and low ranking of Nigeria's educational system is not related to the negative consequences of high stakes testing but rather is due to many intrinsic factors By conducting a comparative analysis of six high performing education systems worldwide the book offers a comparative summative evaluation of the educational system and offers recommendations This book will be of interest to policymakers and scholars in the fields of African education higher education quality and global studies African studies management and administration leadership and professional development studies Joseph Abiodun Balogun is former Dean and retired Distinguished University Professor at the College of Health Sciences Chicago State University USA Visiting Professor Program Consultant at the Centre of Excellence in Reproductive Health Innovation University of Benin Nigeria and President CEO Joseph Rehabilitation Center Tinley Park Illinois USA
