Joint Admisiton Board Uganda:

Uganda International Monetary Fund. Statistics Dept.,2017-10-05 This Technical Assistance Report discusses technical advice and recommendations given by the IMF mission to the authorities of Uganda regarding compilation and dissemination of government finance statistics in accordance with the guidelines of Government Finance Statistics Manual 2001 14 The IMF mission in collaboration with the Uganda Bureau of Statistics the Bank of Uganda and the Ministry of Finance Planning and Economic Development produced a new institutional table that can be further reviewed adopted and used as a standard for the entire government of Uganda in the production of statistics The IMF mission recommends that the government of Uganda continue to disseminate government finance statistics to the IMF and the East African Community and start disseminating a broader range of public sector debt statistics through the World Bank Strengthening Uganda's Policy Environment for Investing in University Development ,1993 In recent years Makerere University has experienced increasing student and staff unrest The academic community is demoralized by tight government controls on spending especially by inaction on staff salary demands Donor support will not be forthcoming without broad policy reform in higher education rather than piecemeal reform Politics and higher education in East Africa from the 1920s to 1970 Bhekithemba R. Mngomezulu,2012-01-01 The main objective of this book is to establish the salient reasons why higher education was developed in East Africa and specifically why the Federal University of East Africa was constituted The book will identify the factors responsible for the collapse of this regional institution in June 1970 Another objective of this book is to demonstrate how the history of the University of East Africa sheds light on colonial and post colonial policies on education especially higher education as a contribution to educational planning in contemporary Africa Financing Higher Education in Africa World Bank,2010-04-21 The training and development of human capital in Sub Saharan Africa SSA will help countries in the region diversify their economies carry out economic transformation and support sustainable growth Higher education plays a key role in training qualified individuals who will be able to implement new technologies and use innovative methods to establish cost efficient and effective enterprises and institutions However in order for SSA to reap the benefits of this investment in human capital higher education institutions must secure financing to provide quality training and sound professional prospects to their students Currently tertiary education development is unsustainable resources per student are declining and the quality of education is affected These issues are particularly pressing in times of financial global crisis when available resources for tertiary education tend to diminish The impact of the crisis that started in 2008 provides a clear illustration of the need to explore innovative ways to diversify and secure financing for higher education in SSA Financing Higher Education in Africa provides a comprehensive overview of higher education financing in SSA The book begins with an explanation of the fundamental problems faced by higher education institutions and students in SSA namely the combined pressure of a rapid growth in demand and a growing scarcity of public resources and it presents the dramatic consequences of these trends on quality The book then turns to analyzing and comparing the current funding policies in SSA countries and it provides recommendations for improvement Finally the book examines the alternatives to the status quo and the policy tools needed to both diversify resources and allocate them based on performance It will be of great interest to governments universities research institutions and international organizations throughout the region

Differentiation and Articulation in Tertiary Education Systems Njuguna Ng'ethe,George Subotzky,George Afeti,2008-01-01 This title explores an area of tertiary education that is currently understudied this is the extent and nature of differentiation and articulation in African tertiary education systems The overall finding is that the binary system is dominant characterised by universities and polytechnics as distinct types of institutions Differentiation is clearly evident in Africa However though varied in nature and extent the differentiation is mostly horizontal as opposed to vertical Articulation on the other hand seems to be in its infancy as some universities in their admission requirements d Young Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Katherine V. Gough,Thilde Langevang,2016-03-02

Young people in sub Saharan Africa are growing up in rapidly changing social and economic environments which produce high levels of un and underemployment Job creation through entrepreneurship is currently being promoted by international organizations governments and NGOs as a key solution despite there being a dearth of knowledge about youth entrepreneurship in an African context This book makes an important contribution by exploring the nature of youth entrepreneurship in Ghana Uganda and Zambia It provides new insights into conceptual and methodological discussions of youth entrepreneurship as well as presenting original empirical data Drawing on quantitative and qualitative research conducted under the auspices of a collaborative interdisciplinary and comparative research project it highlights the opportunities and challenges young people face in setting up and running businesses Divided into a number of clear sections each with its own introduction and conclusion the book considers the nature of youth entrepreneurship at the national level in both urban and rural areas in specific sectors including mobile telephony mining handicrafts and tourism and analyses how key factors such as microfinance social capital and entrepreneurship education affect youth entrepreneurship New light is shed on the multi faceted nature of youth entrepreneurship and a convincing case is presented for a more nuanced understanding of the term entrepreneurship and the situation faced by many African youth today This book will be of interest to a wide range of scholars interested in youth entrepreneurship including in development studies business studies youth studies and geography as well as to development practitioners and policy makers The Open Access title has now been added to the Open Access page <http://www.tandfebooks.com/page/openaccess> Gender and Primary Schooling in Uganda

Thirty Years of Public Sector Reforms in Africa Paulos Chanie,Paschal B. Mihyo,2013 Over the past three decades African countries have been reforming their public sector with a view to improving efficiency effectiveness accountability and transparency as part of efforts to improve the delivery of public services Reform actions have included privatisation public private partnerships commercialisation and adoption of private sector approaches in managing public organisations This book put together by OSSREA reviews measures by African countries in that regard the extent to which the measures have achieved their intended results as well as the factors behind the failure to achieve those results where this was the case

Fake Degrees and Fraudulent Credentials in Higher Education Sarah Elaine Eaton,Jamie J. Carmichael,Helen Pethrick,2023-01-10 This book addresses an important topic in higher education credential fraud This includes but is not limited to fake degrees diploma mills admissions fraud and cheating on standardized admissions tests The book directly addresses fake and fraudulent credentials in higher education It explores transcript tampering and fraud in varsity athletics and discusses lazy practices in the higher education hiring processes that open the door for professors without proper credentials to get jobs in post secondary institutions The book also discusses how technology is being used to stop the proliferation of fake and fraudulent credentials in a variety of ways including blockchain technology

Knowledge Production and Contradictory Functions in African Higher Education Nico Cloete,Peter Maassen,2015-03-01 The dominant global discourse in higher education now focuses on world class universities inevitably located predominantly in North America Europe and increasingly East Asia The rest of the world including Africa is left to play catch up But that discourse should focus rather on the tensions even contradictions between excellence and engagement with which all universities must grapple Here the African experience has much to offer the high participation and generously resourced systems of the so called developed world This book offers a critical review of that experience and so makes a major contribution to our understanding of higher education
