June 2013 Memorandum For Ems Grade9:

House of Commons - European Scrutiny Committee: Reforming the European Scrutiny Process in the House of Commons: Volume I - HC 109-I Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee,2013-11-28 The depth and pace of EU integration has demonstrated the need for effective democratic parliamentary scrutiny and accountability of Government at Westminster This is the first major inquiry into the European scrutiny system in the House of Commons for eight years There is more that the Committee could do to look at the impact of new proposals There should be a new requirement to appoint Reporters to take the lead within Committees on EU issues as well as a more coordinated approach to the Commission Work Programme Whilst the system need not be scrapped as some have said it must be enhanced Many problems arise from the fact that new Members are appointed for each document The Committee argues forcefully for a return to the permanent membership system new powers and a change of name to reflect the Committees core purpose EU Document Debate Committees The Committee also examined how EU business is taken on the floor of the House and the procedures which apply to it They set out a series of recommendations about the way debates are scheduled and conducted and put the case for a new session of EU Questions They also review working practices and the visibility of the House s scrutiny of the EU in the media It concluded that now is the time to propose the introduction of a form of national veto over EU legislative proposals and then to explore the mechanics of disapplication of parts of existing EU obligations notwithstanding the European Communities Act 1972

Gauging the Value of Education for Disenfranchised Youth,2017-11-26 Disengagement of youth from schooling is an issue of significant national and international concern and is a key driver of educational policy and reform that look to maximise school retention for the benefit of both students and the wider community In Australia Flexible Learning Options FLOs have arisen as a response to the premature disengagement from schooling of a sizeable number of Australian youth FLOs attend to the educational social and well being needs of young people experiencing complex life circumstances yet empirical evidence of their value to date has been largely anecdotal The significance of this book lies in its innovative approach to gauging the value of FLOs to young people themselves as well as the wider Australian community Drawing on past research and new findings from a national investigation the authors provide novel insight into the pressures pushing young people out of schools and the mechanisms at work in FLOs to re engage them in education The varied contributions of this book elucidate many of the measurable impacts of FLOs on the life trajectories of disenfranchised youth including improved economic integration mental and emotional wellbeing and myriad other outcomes The significance of this project lies in its exploration of how young people and staff understand the transformative nature of the FLO experience with an analysis that brings to light the wider value of this type of educational intervention in terms of long term community benefit
