1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      New

Territories in Modernism Laura Wainwright,2018-03-15 Until very recently Welsh literary Modernism has been critically neglected both within and outside Wales This is the first book devoted solely to the study of Welsh literary Modernism revealing and examining eight key Anglophone Welsh writers Laura Wainwright demonstrates how their linguistic experimentation constituted an engagement with the unprecedented linguistic social and cultural changes that were the making of modern Wales and formed the crucible for the emergence of a distinct Welsh Modernism This study of Welsh Modernism challenges conventional literary histories and in more than one sense takes Modernism and Modernist studies into new territories      The Cambridge Companion to British Poetry, 1945-2010 Edward Larrissy,2016 This Companion brings together sixteen essays that explore the full diversity of British poetry since the Second World War Focusing on famous and neglected names alike from Dylan Thomas to John Agard leading scholars provide readers with insight into the ongoing importance and profundity of post war poetry      The Poetry of the Forties A.
