Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature Robert Spoo, Simon Stern, 2025-01-09 The Elgar Concise Encyclopedia of Law and Literature surveys the intersection between two important fields of study Interdisciplinary in scope the volume showcases the many ways in which literary and legal methods and insights both converge and remain distinct The Herald, 2011 Shirley Jackson, Influences and Confluences Melanie R. Anderson, Lisa Kröger, 2016-05-20 The popularity of such widely known works as The Lottery and The Haunting of Hill House has tended to obscure the extent of Shirley Jackson s literary output which includes six novels a prodigious number of short stories and two volumes of domestic sketches Organized around the themes of influence and intertextuality this collection places Jackson firmly within the literary cohort of the 1950s The contributors investigate the work that informed her own fiction and discuss how Jackson inspired writers of literature and film The collection begins with essays that tease out what Jackson s writing owes to the weird tale detective fiction the supernatural tradition and folklore among other influences The focus then shifts to Jackson s place in American literature and the impact of her work on women s writing campus literature and the graphic novelist Alison Bechdel The final two essays examine adaptations of The Haunting of Hill House and Jackson s influence on contemporary American horror cinema Taken together the essays offer convincing evidence that half a century following her death readers and writers alike are still finding value in Jackson s words Liberalism and American Literature in the Clinton Era Ryan M. Brooks, 2022-06-30 Based on the author s dissertation doctoral University of Illinois 2014 The Ethical Foundations of Postmodernity Nina Michaela von Dahlern, Nina Michaela Von Dahlern, 2013-07 A re turn to ethics which began in the 1980s and 1990s and is still predominant today has been ascribed to literary studies and theory In this book theoretical issues within ethics are discussed based on the examples of literary analyses The authors examined are Margaret Atwood Jeffrey Eugenides and Robert M Pirsig The main questions concern the foundation on which ethical concepts are based and the way in which such concepts function These topics are evidently connected to matters of human concepts and human nature in general which are understood to be fundamentally communicative Contrary to popular conclusions of relativity the need for a realist foundation of ethics implying universal validity will be revealed It is not only possible but also necessary to develop such an idea of ethics within a postmodern relativist framework A communicative foundationalist ethics will thus be designed With regard to literature an increasing emergence of first person narrative can be witnessed in addition to a new focus on a realist and more mimetic style after a peak of pluralist conceptions at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries The analysis of such narrative situations will reveal the significance of the narrative generation of individual personalities for an understanding of ethical questions The conflict between relativist and realist points of view centers on the postmodern critique of the individual The study of the literary generation of individuals will elucidate means of confronting this critique The theoretical background includes the poststructuralist and communicative concepts of Judith Butler and Seyla Benhabib as well as Ernst Tugendhat's analytical approach Nina von Dahler studied English language and literature philosophy sociology and educational sciences at the Universities of Hamburg and Heidelberg This book is based on her Ph D thesis

A Literary Cavalcade-VII Robert A. Parker, 2017-04-19 Writer and editor Robert A Parker has followed up his six volume A Literary Cavalcade with a seventh volume This volume of criticism covers mainly the fiction he has read from 2013 to early 2017 His comments are informed by his Jesuit upbringing but also by an independent critical view that balances a moral and literary sensibility The writers here represent a broad range of writing styles cultural influences and moral philosophies And all are rated on their literary achievement the effectiveness of plot character and setting plus their recognition of the moral ethical and spiritual values of mankind Here is a unique critical perspective that measures the meaning of literature against the meaning of life
