Encyclopedia of Contemporary Writers and Their Work Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of authors associated with the English language fiction of the twentieth and twenty first centuries

The Secret Miracle Daniel Alarcón, 2010-04-13 The world's best contemporary writers from Michael Chabon and Claire Messud to Jonathan Lethem and Amy Tan engage in a wide ranging insightful and oft surprising roundtable discussion on the art of writing fiction Drawing back the curtain on the mysterious process of writing novels The Secret Miracle brings together the foremost practitioners of the craft to discuss how they write Paul Auster Roddy Doyle Allegra Goodman Aleksandar Hemon Mario Vargas Llosa Susan Minot Rick Moody Haruki Murakami George Pelecanos Gary Shteyngart Daniel Alarcón and others take us step by step through the alchemy of writing fiction answering everything from nuts and bolts queries Do you outline to perennial questions posed by writers and readers alike What makes a character compelling From Stephen King's deadpan distinction between novels and short stories Novels are longer and have more s t in them to Colm Toibin's anti romanticized take on his characters They are just words to Jos Manuel Prieto's mature perspective on the anxieties of influence Influences are felt or weigh you down more when young every page contains insights found nowhere else With honesty humor and elegance The Secret Miracle gives both aspiring writers and lovers of literature a master class in the art of writing

Climate Fiction and Cultural Analysis Gregers Andersen, 2019-09-25 Climate Fiction and Cultural Analysis argues that the popularity of the term climate fiction has paradoxically exhausted the term's descriptive power and that it has developed into a black box containing all kinds of fictions which depict climatic events and has consequently lost its true significance Aware of the prospect of ecological collapse as well as our apparent inability to avert it we face geophysical changes of drastic proportions that severely challenge our ability to imagine the consequences This book argues that this crisis of imagination can be partly relieved by climate fiction which may help us comprehend the potential impact of the crisis we are facing Strictly assigning climate fiction to fictions that incorporate the climatological paradigm of anthropogenic global warming into their plots this book sets out to salvage the term's speculative quality It argues that climate fiction should be regarded as no less than a vital supplement to climate science because climate fiction makes visible and conceivable future modes of existence within worlds not only deemed likely by science but which are scientifically anticipated Focusing primarily on English and German language fictions Climate Fiction and Cultural Analysis shows how Western climate fiction sketches various affective and cognitive relations to the world in its utilization of a small number of recurring imaginaries or imagination forms This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecocriticism the environmental humanities and literary and culture studies more generally

Citizenship, Law and Literature Caroline Koegler, Jesper Reddig, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2021-10-25 This edited volume is the first to focus on how concepts of citizenship diversify and stimulate the long standing field of law and literature and vice versa Building on existing research in law and literature as well as literature and citizenship studies the collection approaches the triangular relationship between citizenship law and literature from a variety of disciplinary conceptual and political perspectives with particular emphasis on the performative aspect inherent in any type of social expression and cultural artefact The sixteen chapters in this volume present literature as carrying multifarious at times opposing energies and impulses in relation to citizenship These range from providing discursive arenas for consolidating challenging and renegotiating citizenship to directly interfering with or inspiring processes of law making and governance The volume opens up new possibilities for the scholarly understanding of citizenship along two axes Citizenship as Literature Enacting Citizenship and Citizenship in Literature Conceptualising Citizenship The Other Side of the Island Allegra Goodman, 2008 In the eighteenth glorious year of Enclosure long after The Flood a young girl named Honour moves with her parents to Island 365 in the Tranquil Sea Life on the tropical island is peaceful there is no sadness and no visible violence in this world Earth Mother and her Corporation have created New Weather Sky colour is regulated and it almost never rains Every family fits into its rightful orderly and predictable place Except Honor s Her family does not follow the rules They ignore curfew sing songs and do not pray to Earth Mother Honour doesn t fit in with the other children at the Old Colony School Then she meets Helix a boy who slowly helps her uncover a terrible secret about the Island Sooner or later those who do not fit disappear and they don t ever come back
