LONGLISTED FOR THE DYLAN THOMAS PRIZE LONGLISTED FOR THE IMPAC DUBLIN LITERARY AWARD 2014
SHORTLISTED FOR THE KITSCHIES PRIZE 2014 GOLD TENTACLE The brooding bold and brilliant first novel from the Man Booker and Bailey s Prize shortlisted author of A Little Life In 1950 a young doctor called Norton Perina signs on with the anthropologist Paul Tallent for an expedition to the remote Micronesian island of Ivu ivu in search of a rumored lost tribe They succeed finding not only that tribe but also a group of forest dwellers they dub The Dreamers who turn out to be fantastically long lived but progressively more senile Perina suspects the source of their longevity is a hard to find turtle unable to resist the possibility of eternal life he kills one and smuggles some meat back to the States He scientifically proves his thesis earning worldwide fame and the Nobel Prize but he soon discovers that its miraculous property comes at a terrible price Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer,2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels

films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer's analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment

Exploring Dark Comedy in Ecological Literature Mohammad Rahmatullah, Tanu Gupta, Nagendra Kumar, 2025-09-30 In this textbook dark comedy is reimagined as an ecological instrument a volatile compound of irony grotesquerie and mischievous insight that exposes the carbonised scaffolding of late capitalist life Rather than sneering at catastrophe the chapters anatomise the mechanics defamiliarising punch line carnival inversion affective whiplash by which humour slips past guard dogs and rouses an anaesthetised public The horizon against which this inquiry unfolds is the Capitalocene a name that indicts capitalism not Man as the principal geological agent of ruin Moving from Aristophanes to Atwood from street theatre to streaming satire each text shows laughter doing intellectual lifting In one moment it fractures complacent common sense in the next it stitches together circuits of feeling in which eco grief can transmute into civic resolve Juxtaposed with the authority of tragic form dark comedy proves the more permeable solvent it dissolves cultural defences lets paradox breathe and leaves readers wondering how ecosystems became punch lines Methodologically the book is multidisciplinary Literary tangles with environmental philosophy humour theory quarrels with eco Marxism cultural studies supplies the ethnographic grit that keeps abstraction honest By braiding those strands the argument departs from standard ecocritical curricula insisting that jokes are not side shows but catalytic sites where ethics affect and political economy collide Designed for advanced undergraduates yet hospitable to researchers the volume refuses the consolations of easy optimism even as it gestures toward actionable hope Its wager is simple teach readers to hear the subversive crackle inside dark laughter and they may also learn to re script the damaged world that provokes it Fictions of Dementia Susanne Katharina Christ, 2022-09-20 Taking its cues from both classical and post classical narratologies this study explores both forms and functions of the representation of dementia in Anglophone fictions Initially dementia is conceptualised as a narrative epistemological paradox The more those affected know what it is like to have dementia the less they can tell about it Narrative fiction is the only discourse that provides an imaginative glimpse at the subjective experience of dementia in language The narratological modelling of four narrative modes elaborates how the paradox becomes productive in fiction Depending on the narrative perspective taken but also on the type of narration the technique for representing consciousness and the epistemic strategy of narrating dementia the respective narrative modes come with different prerequisites and possibilities for narrating dementia The analysis of four contemporary Anglophone dementia fictions based on the developed model reveals their potential functions Fiction allows readers to learn about the challenges of dementia grants them perspective taking it trains cognitive flexibility and explores the meaning of memory knowledge narrative and imagination and thus also offers trajectories of a cultural coping with dementia

The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary Gothic Clive Bloom, 2020-07-10 Simply put there is absolutely nothing on the market with the range of ambition of this strikingly eclectic collection of essays Not only is it impossible to imagine a more comprehensive view of the subject most readers even specialists in the subject will find that there are elements of the Gothic genre here of which they were previously unaware Barry Forshaw Author of British Gothic Cinema and Sex and Film The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary Gothic is the most comprehensive compendium of analytic essays on the modern Gothic now available covering the vast and highly significant period from 1918 to 2019 The Gothic sensibility over 200 years old embraces its dark past whilst anticipating the future From demons and monsters to post apocalyptic fears and ecological fantasies Gothic is thriving as never before in the arts and in popular culture This volume is made up of 62 comprehensive chapters with notes and extended bibliographies contributed by scholars from around the world The chapters are written not only for those engaged in academic research but also to be accessible to students and dedicated followers of the genre Each chapter is packed with analysis of the Gothic in both theory and practice as the genre has mutated and spread over the last hundred years Starting in 1918 with the impact of film on the genre's development and moving through its many and varied international incarnations each chapter chronicles the history of the gothic milieu from the movies to gaming platforms and internet memes television and theatre The volume also looks at how Gothic intersects with fashion music and popular culture a multi layered multi ethnic even a trans gendered experience as we move into the twenty first century

Science Fiction as Legal Imaginary Alex Green, Mitchell Travis, Kieran Tranter, 2024-11-21 This book examines how science fiction informs the legal imagination of technological futures Science fiction the contributors to this book argue is a storehouse of images tropes concepts and memes that inform the legal imagination of the future and in doing so generate impetus for change Specifically the contributors examine how science fictions imagine human life in space in the digital and as formed and negotiated by corporations They then connect this imaginary to how law should be understood in the present and changed for the future Across the chapters there is an urgent sense of the need for law as it has been and as it might become to order and safeguard the future for a multiplicity of vulnerable entities This book will appeal to scholars and students with interests in law and technology legal theory cultural legal studies and law and the humanities Literary Materialisations and Interferential Reading Ingrid Hotz-Davies, Martin Middeke, Christoph Reinfandt, 2025-03-28 This book traces literature's long history of repurposing representational language use for performative material effects. It brings this tradition into dialogue with the recent material turn in literary and cultural theory which seeks to supplant or at least rethink the foundational influence of the linguistic turn in the field. Drawing on a variety of cutting edge new materialist theories this book programmatically outlines the contours of a methodology of Interferential Reading that is then brought to bear on examples ranging from Shakespeare Donne Keats and Tennyson to Northern Irish poets Colette Bryce and Sin ad Morrissey and Scottish poet Kathleen Jamie from British thing essays to J G Ballard John Berger Nicola Barker Richard Powers Colum McCann Tim Crouch Hanya Yanagihara and Korean writer Han Kang winner of the 2024 Nobel Prize for literature and from the history of theatrical bodies to the intermedial as well as affective textures in very recent experimental theatre live theatre broadcasting and media art The Forest and the EcoGothic Elizabeth Parker, 2020-02-13 This book offers the first full length study on the pervasive archetype of The Gothic Forest in Western culture. The idea of the forest as deep dark and dangerous has an extensive history and continues to resonate throughout contemporary popular culture. The Forest and the EcoGothic examines both why we fear the forest and how exactly these fears manifest in our stories. It draws on and furthers the nascent field of the ecoGothic which seeks to explore the intersections between ecocriticism and Gothic studies. In the age of the Anthropocene this work importantly interrogates our relationship to and understandings of the more than human world. This work introduces the trope of the Gothic forest as well as important critical contexts for its discussion and examines the three main ways in which this trope manifests as a living animated threat as a traditional habitat for monsters and as a dangerous site for human settlement. This book will appeal to students and scholars with interests in horror and the Gothic ecohorror and the ecoGothic environmentalism ecocriticism and popular culture more broadly. The accessibility of the subject of The Deep Dark Woods coupled with increasingly mainstream interests in interactions between humanity and nature means this work will also be of keen interest to the general public The New Cambridge Companion to Joseph Conrad J. H. Stape, 2015 This volume offers both students and scholars a comprehensive overview of the most recent developments in Conrad studies Art Essays Alexandra Kingston-Reese, 2021-12-15 Art Essays is a passionate collection of the best essays on the visual arts written by contemporary novelists. With an introduction by literary critic and editor Alexandra Kingston Reese Art Essays is an enthralling vision of a new wave of literary essays shaping contemporary culture The Palgrave Handbook of Animals and Literature Susan McHugh, Robert McKay, John Miller, 2020-11-25 This volume is the first comprehensive guide to current research on animals animality and human animal relations in literature. To reflect the history of literary animal studies to date its primary focus is literary prose and poetry in English while also accommodating emergent discussions of the full range of media and contexts with which literary studies engages especially film and critical theory User friendly language references even suggestions for further readings are included to help newcomers to the field understand how it has taken shape primarily through recent decades To further aid teachers sections are organized by conventions of periodization and chapters address a range of canonical and popular texts Bookended by sections devoted to the field s conceptual foundations and new directions the volume is designed to set an agenda for literary animal studies for decades to come

Livestock and Literature Liza B. Bauer, 2024-08-08 This book explores the past and current traces that cows pigs chickens and other animals used by humans have left in Anglophone literary fiction In times of accelerated global warming an acute pandemic and breakthroughs in bioengineering practices discussions on how to rethink the relationships to these animals have become as heated as perhaps never before Livestock and Literature examines what literature has to contribute to these debates In particular it draws on counter narratives to so called livestock animals commodification in selected science and speculative fiction SF works from the twenty first century These texts imagine what if scenarios where livestock practice resistance transform into biotechnologically modified postanimal beings or live in close companionship to humans Via these three points of access the study delineates the formal and thematic strategies SF authors apply to challenge anthropocentric and speciesist thought patterns The aim is to shed light on how these alternative storyworlds expand readers understanding of the lives of farmed animals seeking insight into how literature shapes human animal relationships beyond the page

The Cambridge History of Queer American Literature Benjamin Kahan, 2024-06-06 Moby Dick s Ishmael and Queequeg share a bed Janie in Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God imagines her tongue in another woman s mouth And yet for too long there has not been a volume that provides an account of the breadth and depth of queer American literature This landmark volume provides the first expansive history of this literature from its inception to the present day offering a narrative of how American literary studies and sexuality studies became deeply entwined and what they can teach each other It examines how American literature produces and is in turn woven out of sexualities gender pluralities trans ness erotic subjectivities and alternative ways of inhabiting bodily morphology In so doing the volume aims to do nothing less than revise the ways in which we understand the whole of American literature It will be an indispensable resource for scholars graduate students and undergraduates

A COMPENDIUM OF CLASSIC AND POSTMODERN NOVEL SUMMARIES Vivian Siahaan, 2019-08-03 This book is comprised of a compendium of summaries from all novels that I have read for almost twelve years Obviously the summaries have been documented on my blog since 2016 and seemingly in my opinion it is better bundled in a book form since the statistic views show that the classic fictions are those among most read so I rose to comply with that demand The purpose for which I devote myself to compose 85 summaries is to provide quick reading for novel readers and students Numerous genres are presented because I am quite conscious those will bequeath you an imaginative horizon As a work of art many of them transcend their expiatory aspects And still more important to us than scientific significance and literary worth is the inspirational impact those novels have on serious readers Finally happy reading and I hope you will find this book useful To Paradise Hanya Yanagihara, 2022-01-11
