Major Thomas Hardy, 2013 Thomas Hardy 2nd June 1840 11th January 1928 celebrated poet and writer was born in a modest thatched cottage near Dorchester in the West Country to a builder father His mother came from a line of intelligent lively and ambitious women so ensured her son had the best formal education available for their modest means although this ended when he was 16 He became a draughtsman specialising in the building of churches was able to give it up to be a full time writer and poet with the publication of Far From the Madding Crown which became a bestseller and like much of his work was serialised His writing reflects his passionate beliefs for social reform and exposes the hypocrisy of the rules of the Victorian age which constrained many freedoms with convention and restricted the transcending of class boundaries His novels are almost entirely set in rural Wessex which although fictional is clearly rooted in the SW counties of England where he was born and lived most of his life Hardy s writing caused controversy in his lifetime but despite this he was highly praised and showered with doctorates from many universities and a knighthood which he refused The Trumper Major shows why such praise and accolades were given The Trumpet-Major, John Loveday, by Thomas Hardy (Historical Novel)
