The Terrible Privacy Of Maxwell Sim By Jonathan Coe:

The Terrible Privacy Of Maxwell Sim Jonathan Coe, 2010-05-27 Maxwell Sim seems to have hit rock bottom Estranged from his father newly divorced unable to communicate with his only daughter he realizes that while he may have seventy four friends on Facebook there is nobody in the world with whom he can actually share his problems Then a business proposition comes his way a strange exercise in corporate PR that will require him to spend a week driving from London to a remote retail outlet on the Shetland Isles Setting out with an open mind good intentions and a friendly voice on his SatNav for company Maxwell finds that this journey soon takes a more serious turn and carries him not only to the furthest point of the United Kingdom but into some of the deepest and darkest corners of his own past In his sparkling and hugely enjoyable new book Jonathan Coe reinvents the picaresque novel for our time

Understanding Jonathan Coe Merritt Moseley, 2016-07-30 An examination of the life career and oeuvre of the British novelist and biographer In Understanding Jonathan Coe the first full length study of the British novelist Merritt Moseley surveys a writer whose experimental technique has become increasingly well received and critically admired Coe is the recipient of the John Llewellyn Rhys Prize the Prix Medicis the Priz du Meilleur Livre Entranger the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prizes for Fiction and the Samuel Johnson Prize for Nonfiction His oeuvre includes eleven novels and three biographies two of famous Hollywood actors Humphrey Bogart and Jimmy Stewart and one of English modernist novelist B S Johnson Following an introductory overview of Coe s life and career Moseley examines Coe s complex engagement with popular culture his experimental technique his political satire and his broad canvased depictions of British society Though his first three books An Accidental Woman A Touch of Love and The Dwarves of Death received little notice upon publication Moseley shows their strengths as literary works and as precursors In 1994 Coe gained visibility with What a Carve Up which has remained his most admired and discussed novel He has since published a postmodern take on sleep disorders and university students The House of Sleep a two volume roman fleuve consisting of The Rotters Club and The Closed Circle a touching account of a lonely woman s life The Rain before It Falls a satiric vision of a misguided life The Terrible Privacy of Maxwell Sim and a domestic comedy thriller set at the 1958 world s fair in Brussels Expo 58 Moseley explicates these works and discusses the recurring features of Coe s fiction political consciousness a deep artistic concern with the form of fiction and comedy

Power in Politics and Academia in Jonathan Coe's Novels Denisa Dumitrascu, 2018-04-18 This book explores the intricate manifestations of contemporary power its related ideology and the resistance and reaction to the dominant discourse in Jonathan Coe s political fiction covering the dismantling of the British social democratic consensus Thatcherism and Blairism up to the new ideology of Globalism Beyond the predictable dichotomy of support opposition to power the book argues the modern individual seems to have found another ontological approach for which it coins the concept of intentional unpower Furthermore it demonstrates that there are three possibilities regarding the evolution of this type of social response and invites the readers to discover them while enjoying Coe's subtlety and humour. Given its broad approach, the book will appeal to researchers in a wide range of domains including literary and cultural studies, political theory and sociology, as well as any reader fascinated with the essence of power, intellectual response and discourses containing their own elements of subversion.

Anti-Heroes in the Works of Easton Ellis, Coe, Martel and Tsiolkas Panos Gerakis, 2024-04-02. In the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries, globalization has significantly influenced gendered experiences worldwide. While scholarly attention has predominantly focused on women's lives and marked gender identities, since the seventies there remains a conspicuous gap in the exploration of the phenomenically unmarked gender and particularly men's identities and the unique challenges they face. Drawing upon a diverse array of texts and ideas from cultural theory, this book delves into crucial issues surrounding masculinity, the shame struggle, precariousness and predicaments inherent in navigating the expectations of being a man in today's era of neoliberalism and globalization. Through the lens of the main characters in novels by Bret Easton Ellis, Jonathan Coe, Yann Martel and Christos Tsiolkas, all from the anglophone sphere, the narrative illuminates these often overlooked facets of masculinity crisis. The book seeks to contribute to a deeper understanding of masculinities today, shedding light upon the vulnerable nature of the masculine experience.

Jonathan Coe Philip Tew, 2018-03-22. In novels such as What A Carve Up and The Rotters Club, Jonathan Coe has established himself as one of the great satirical writers of our time. Covering all of his major novels, including his most recent book Number 11, Jonathan Coe: Contemporary British Satire includes chapters by leading and emerging scholars of contemporary British writing. The book features a preface by Coe himself and covers the ways in which his work grapples with such themes as class, politics, popular music, sex, gender and the media.

Jonathan Coe Vanessa Guignery, 2015-12-01. Jonathan Coe is one of the most popular and critically acclaimed contemporary British writers. This comprehensive introduction places his work in clear historical and theoretical context, offering extensive readings of the author's ten novels from The Accidental Woman to Expo 58, including the remarkable What a Carve Up. The book explores Coe's biography and his experimentations with narrative genre and comedy, as well as his thematic preoccupations with history, memory, loss and nostalgia. The first volume devoted entirely to Coe, this book includes a supporting timeline of key dates in literature and current events, an examination of the critical reception to Coe's works, an exclusive interview with Jonathan Coe himself.

Transnational French Studies Charles Forsdick, Claire Launchbury, 2023-10-01. The contributors to Transnational French Studies situate this disciplinary subfield of Modern Languages in actively transnational frameworks. The key objective of the volume is to define the core set of skills and methodologies that constitute the study of French culture as a transnational, transcultural and translingual phenomenon. Written by leading scholars within the field, chapters demonstrate the type of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities, both material and non-material, that are integral to what is referred to as French culture. The book considers the transnational dimensions of being human in the world by focussing on four key practices which constitute the object of study for students of French language and multilingualism the construction of transcultural places and the corresponding sense of space the experience of time and transnational subjectivities The underlying premise of the volume is that the transnational is present and has long been present throughout what we define as French history and culture Chapters address instances and phenomena associated with the transnational from prehistory to the present opening up the geopolitical map of French studies beyond France and including sites where communities identified as French have formed

World Building Joanna Gavins, Ernestine Lahey, 2018-02-22 World Building represents the state of the discipline in worlds based approaches to discourse collected together for the first time Over the last 40 years the text as world metaphor has become one of the most prevalent and productive means of describing the experiencing of producing and receiving discourse This has been the case in a range of disciplines including stylistics cognitive poetics narratology discourse analysis and literary theory The metaphor has enabled analysts to formulate a variety of frameworks for describing and examining the textual and conceptual mechanics involved in human communication articulating these variously through such concepts as possible worlds text worlds and storyworlds Each of these key approaches shares an understanding of discourse as a logically grounded cognitively and pragmatically complex phenomenon Discourse in this sense is capable of producing highly immersive and emotionally affecting conceptual spaces in the minds of discourse participants The chapters examine how best to document and analyze this and this is an essential collection for stylisticians linguists and narrative theorists The Routledge Companion to Literatures and Crisis Silvia Pellicer-Ortín, Julia Kuznetski, Chiara Battisti, 2024-10-22 The Routledge Companion to Literatures and Crisis provides deep insight into a complex and multi layered phenomenon The third decade of the twenty first century is being marked by a polycrisis caused by various world crises such as the COVID 19 pandemic armed conflicts and climate change leading to economic geopolitical environmental health and security crises Featuring 42 chapters the collection examines crises through literary texts in relation to the environment finance migration and diaspora war human rights values and identity health politics terrorism and technology It illuminates the many faces of the current permacrisis as well as the multifarious crises of the past and their representation in literatures across ages and cultures from the Viking wars Black Death in mediaeval Europe technology in ancient China and the crisis of power in Elizabethan England to imperial biopower in nineteenth century India the genocides in the twentieth century upsurge of domestic violence during the Covid lockdown in Spain and the development of AI The Companion connects diverse cultures disciplines and academic traditions to show how and why literature media and art can voice all types of crises across times It will be a key resource for students and researchers in a broad range of areas including literature film studies narrative studies cultural studies international politics and ecocriticism Chapters Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license
