She was the last person he wanted to fall for but now she's the only one he wants. People called Meredith Alexander a high society do-gooder with a penchant for trusting the wrong people, especially men. Some said the failing had to do with her tyrant father who valued money and power over love and kindness toward his only daughter. Meredith spent years searching for the elusive something that would give her life meaning, but all she found were dead-end jobs, false starts, empty relationships, and wrong choices. When she decides to ditch her designer lifestyle and settle in Chicago, a routine trip to the grocery store prompts the creation of a company for struggling entrepreneurs and gives her life meaning. Eight months later, Meredith once again experiences a random life-changing encounter when former Reunion Gap resident Daniel Reese walks into a café. What are the odds that two people from the same small town would both land in Chicago at the same café? Or that he'd be a woodworker looking for a big break and she'd own a company that helped entrepreneurs? He seems more interested in her than her support, and there's no denying the white-hot attraction that has him calling their meeting destiny. Except it isn't. It's all been orchestrated in Daniel's attempt to save his father from the blackmail scheme he's been caught up in by the most ruthless man in Reunion Gap. Meredith's father, Daniel, will have to pretend he's a wannabe woodworker low on cash and not the anonymous artist behind the famous woodturning company that's gained national recognition. And he'll have to find a way to lure Meredith back to Reunion Gap for a meeting with her father. Then he can come clean and hope she forgives him. But it's not going to be that easy. Once Meredith learns about the real Daniel Reese and how he's played her, only forgiveness, true love, and destiny will bring them back together.

The Sweetest Deal Mary Campisi, 2018-09-26

Unlikely couples, matchmakers, and moral dilemmas are the heart of the Best Intention series, a collection of novellas set in a business environment where negotiations and deals turn personal. The Sweetest Deal is Book One in this series. Ian Woodford is about to close the most important business transaction of his life and realize his father's dream; all he has to do is agree to one request: give the man who's controlling the deal a grandchild. The proposition is every level of wrong, but an arrangement like this would honor his father's memory, and while Ian can never replace the child he lost, it would give him an opportunity for another child this time without the encumbrance of a wife. But the more time he spends with C.C., the more he realizes he wants her for more than a way to get a deal and a child. C.C. aka Catherine Crowell gave up on dreams of a family after Mr. Worse Than Wrong broke her heart. Hiding behind spreadsheets and oversized suits, she's determined to show her business mogul father she's capable of taking over his company and won't be fooled by smooth-talking liars again. Her work has become her life, and while she'd love a child, that's not going to happen. When Ian Woodford, the company's newest business partner, shows interest in her, C.C.'s more than a little suspicious and determined to find out if his intentions are real and what she plans to do about it if they are or aren't. It's going to get messy, and once the truth comes out as it always does, it's going to take more than one matchmaker to get the Sweetest Deal.
