The Moon And The Bonfire By Cesare Pavese:

The Moon and the Bonfires Cesare Pavese, 1953 The narrator's reminiscences unfold on three parallel levels his boyhood as a bastard child in a Piedmontese farm his failure to find a home in America and his return to the village in the aftermath of the war of partisan strife and of buried political hopes Pavese is haunted by the feeling that modern life has no roots Our life is either mechanical or utopian practical or fanatical Amid the poverty stricken people of backward countries sap is still flowing he says but it may very well dry up soon Dust cover The Moon and the Bonfire Cesare Pavese, 1974 The Moon and the Bonfire Richard Bradley, Sharon Arrowsmith, 2005 Whilst a report on excavations at three stone circles and two fieldwalking projects in north east Scotland may not seem very appealing this book does much to heighten public awareness and interest in such sites and re connects us with the mysterious monuments of the past This study of the sites of Tomnaverie Deeside Cothiemuir Wood Donside and Aikey Brae Buchan is written in an engaging and approachable style with plenty of illustrative material Whilst the project was geared towards investigating the character chronology structural development and wider context of the stone circles its results go much further in revealing how people used and perceived such sites and the landscape around them Here contextual information discussion of methodology and objectives are combined with factual data and interpretation as the project members examine various aspects of the sites such as the characterisation shape colour and texture of the stones used construction techniques evidence of burning the presence of human remains and possible solar and lunar alignments The proffering of new insights into the use and symbolism of the monuments is highly valuable for example the suggestion that we should perhaps consider the use of these stone circles during the hours of darkness rather than daylight an idea first proposed by Aubrey Burl requires us to re think our preconceptions about monuments in the past The rewards of painstaking excavation and trudging through muddy fields are evident in a publication such as this The Moon and the Bonfires Cesare Pavese, 2021-01-28 Insinuating haunting and lyrically pervasive The New York Times Book Review A new translation by Tim Parks Twenty years after making his fortune in America Eel is drawn back to the closest thing he has to a home the Piedmontese countryside where he grew up poor and illegitimate Wandering the valleys and vineyards with his childhood friend Nuto Eel remembers the farm where he worked his employer's beautiful daughters the rituals of rural life Yet as he discovers more about what happened there during the war he realizes that these timeless landscapes hide terrible savage secrets By turns fond and evocative seductive and troubling The Moon and the Bonfires is a lyrical masterpiece of memory and betrayal Translated with an Introduction by Tim Parks Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence Cesare Pavese Mythographer, Translator, Modernist: A Collection of Studies 70 Years after His Death Iuri Moscardi, 2023-04-18 This volume on Cesare Pavese is published on the
