mandatory reading for those who want a critical understanding of the place of factual formats in today's exploding television and media industry as well as expert guidance in complex craft skills in order to fully participate. The practical advice and wisdom here is second to none. Tony Steyger, Principal Lecturer, Southampton Solent University, UK. The Documentary Handbook is a critical introduction to the documentary film, its theory and changing practices. The book charts the evolution of documentary from screen art to core television genre, its metamorphosis into many different types of factual TV programme and its current emergence in forms of new media. It analyses those pathways and the transformation of means of production through economic, technical and editorial changes. The Documentary Handbook explains the documentary process, skills and job specifications for everyone from industry entrants to senior personnel and shows how the industrial evolution of television has relocated the powers and principles of decision making. Through the use of professional Expert Briefings, it gives practical pointers about programme making from research, developing and pitching programme ideas to their production and delivery through a fast evolving multi platform universe.

Hang-Ups Simon Schama, 2010-08-31. Pre-eminent author and art historian Simon Schama has written widely on art for many years to great acclaim. In Hang Ups, a personal selection of his articles from amongst others The New Yorker, appears in Britain for the very first time. Brilliantly and lucidly written by one of the most singular voices in non-fiction, this volume of provocative and often idiosyncratic essays makes hugely satisfying reading for lovers of both art and social history. It contains pieces on artists as diverse as David Hockney, Rembrandt and Charles Rennie Mackintosh and on such subjects as the unforgettable peculiarity of Stanley Spencer. From the author whose writing has been called sublime and whose ability to bring art and history vividly to life has earned him admiration worldwide, Hang Ups is Schama's rallying cry for the art lover to look at familiar works of art and their artists and embrace a new way of seeing.

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018. This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics, issues, methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts.

Icons of War and Terror John Tulloch, Richard Warwick Blood, 2012. This book explores the ideas of key thinkers and media practitioners who have examined images and icons of war and terror. Icons of War and Terror explores theories of iconic images of war and terror not as received pieties but as challenging uncertainties in doing so. It engages with both critical discourse and conventional image making. The authors draw on these theories to re-investigate the media global context of some of the most iconic representations of war and terror in the international risk society. Among these photojournalistic images are Nick Ut's Pulitzer Prize winning photograph of a naked girl, Kim Phuc, running, burned from a napalm attack in Vietnam in June 1972, a quintessential ethnic cleansing image of massacred Kosovar Albanian villagers at Racak on January 15, 1999, which finally propelled a hesitant Western alliance into the first of the new humanitarian wars, Luis Simco's photograph of marine James Blake Miller, the Marlboro Man at Fallujah, Iraq, 2004, the iconic toppling of the World Trade Centre towers in New York by planes on September 11, 2001, and the Falling Man icon, one of the most controversial images of 9 11 the image of one of the authors of this book as close up victim of the 7 7 terrorist attack on London which the media quickly labelled iconic This book will be of great interest to students of media and war sociology communications studies cultural studies terrorism studies and security studies in general Art Simon Schama,2019-10-03 Great art has dreadful manners The hushed reverence of the gallery can fool you into believing masterpieces are visions that soothe charm and beguile but actually they are thugs Merciless and wily the greatest paintings grab you in a headlock and proceed in short order to re arrange your sense of reality In inimitable style our greatest historian and master storyteller Simon Schama makes an irresistible case for the power of art and its necessary place in our lives examining art through the prism of the troubling life and works of Italian master painter and murderer Caravaggio Selected from The Power of Art VINTAGE MINIS GREAT MINDS BIG IDEAS LITTLE BOOKS A series of short books by the world s greatest writers on the experiences that make us human Also in the Vintage Minis Great Ideas series Religion by Karen Armstrong Science by Ian McEwan LOST and PROFOUND Mark McKirdy,2015-03-03 LOST and PROFOUND The Rejected Book Reviews by Famous People is a unique and hilarious collection of unpublished book reviews seemingly written by household names who have reached the top in film television journalism science music sport art business politics and literature Included among the reviewers are George W Bush David Letterman Madonna Gore Vidal Shirley MacLaine Arnold Palmer Elton John Gloria Steinem David Suzuki Walter Cronkite Salvatore Sammy the Bull Gravano Jimmy Swaggart and Monica Lewinsky All the books reviewed are real and the astonishing diversity of interests of the celebrities demonstrates that shallow perception can never be disguised as deep thought no matter how cleverly expressed As revealed in the book s Introduction Mark McKirdy acquired this collection when he successfully bid for a small dusty box at a Sotheby s auction in 2013 Upon his return to Oxford University where he was the anthropologist in residence he opened the box and like Howard Carter marveling at the treasures he d just unearthed from Tutankhamun s tomb in 1922 the author was holding a golden collection of book reviews by many of the world s most significant people Each review had apparently been commissioned by the prestigious literary journal The London Review of Books and each for reasons never revealed received a soul crushing rebuff by way of a large red Rejected stamp As with all well written satire LOST and PROFOUND will give readers pause for thought seconds for chuckling minutes of laughing out loud and hours of fun and if the celebrities mentioned in the book didn t actually write the reviews cited they probably wish they had In the Black Fantastic Ekow Eshun,2022-06-09 In the Black Fantastic assembles art and imagery from across the African diaspora that embraces ideas of the mythic and the speculative Neither Afrofuturism nor Magic Realism but inhabiting its own universe In the Black Fantastic brings to life a cultural movement that conjures otherworldly visions out of the everyday Black experience and beyond looking at how speculative fictions in Black art and culture are boldly reimagining perspectives on race gender identity and the body in the 21st century Transcending time space and genre to span art design fashion architecture film literature and popular culture from African myth to future

History on Television Ann Gray, Erin Bell, 2013 In recent years non fiction history programmes have flourished on television This interdisciplinary study of history programming identifies and examines different genres employed by producers and tracks their commissioning production marketing and distribution histories With comparative references to other European nations and North America the authors focus on British history programming over the last two decades and analyse the relationship between the academy and media professionals They outline and discuss often competing discourses about how to do history and the underlying assumptions about who watches history programmes History on Television considers recent changes in the media landscape which have affected to a great degree how history in general and whose history in particular appears onscreen Through a number of case studies using material from interviews by the authors with academic and media professionals the role of the professional historian and that of media professionals commissioning editors and producer directors as mediators of historical material and interpretations is analysed and the ways in which the logics of television shape historical output are outlined and discussed Building on their analysis Ann Gray and Erin Bell ask if history on television fulfils its potential to be a form of public history through offering as it does a range of interpretations of the past to and originating from or including those not based in the academy Through consideration of the representation or absence of the diversity of British identity gender ethnicity and race social status and regional identities the authors substantially extend the scope of existing scholarship into history on television History on Television will be essential reading for all those interested in the complex processes involved in the representation of history on television

Fictions of Art History Mark Ledbury, 2013-10-28 DIV Fictions of Art History the most recent addition to the Clark Studies in the Visual Arts series addresses art history's complex relationships with fiction poetry and creative writing Inspired by a 2010 conference the volume examines art historians' viewing practices and modes of writing How the contributors ask are we to unravel the supposed facts of history from the fictions constructed in works of art How do art historians employ or resist devices of fiction and what are the effects of those choices on the reader In styles by turns witty elliptical and plain speaking the essays in Fictions of Art History are fascinating and provocative critical interventions in art history div The Furies of Marjorie Bowen John C. Tibbetts, 2019-11-25 This first book length critical examination of the life and work of Marjorie Bowen 1885-1952 reveals a major English writer whose prodigious output included stories of history romance and the supernatural As Pulitzer Prize winning critic Michael Dirda writes in his Foreword Bowen may be the finest British woman writer of the uncanny of the last century a view that echoes the high regard of cultural historian Edward Wagenknecht who called her a literary phenomenon one whose best work places her alongside such contemporaries as Edith Wharton and Daphne du Maurier Publicly acclaimed known only by a series of pseudonyms including Marjorie Bowen but privately inscrutable she was and is a mysterious and complex character Drawing for the first time upon archival resources and the cooperation of the Bowen Estate this book reveals a woman who saw herself as a rationalist and serious historian but also as a mystic and dark enchantress of dread Above all through a lifetime of domestic storms and creative ecstasy Bowen worked tirelessly as both a professional writer and a consummate artist always seeking as she once confessed to find beauty in dark places
