The present study offers a comprehensive analysis of faith as a key motif in the Gospel of Matthew where it plays a major role in communicating this Gospel's vision for how readers should respond to the person and message of Jesus. The argument propounded is that Matthew's unique narrative portrayal of the Canaanite woman's faith (15:21-28) is used for pedagogical purposes namely that by comparing and contrasting her great faith with those characters expressing no faith and little faith Matthew uses Jesus's quantitative terms to teach on the nature of true faith. She embodies Matthew's theological vision of faith. Even though she is a gentile outsider/enemy she comprehends the universal scope and abundant blessings of Jesus's mission. Moreover she acknowledges Jesus's messianic identity correctly perceiving him to be both David's royal heir and David's Lord. Finally based on who she perceives Jesus to be and the purpose of his mission she demonstrates faith as trust manifested in action. Egan's Fundamentals of Respiratory Care E-Book Robert M.
