Accountability Through Public Opinion From Inertia To Public Action:

Accountability through Public Opinion Sina Odugbemi, Taeku Lee, 2011-05-10 This book analyses the role of public opinion for generating genuine citizen demand for accountability providing case studies from around the world to illustrate how public opinion forces governments to be accountable Closing the Rights Gap LaDawn Haglund, Robin Stryker, 2015-03-21 Rights language and practices have been used increasingly in the last decade to address conditions of economic social and cultural marginalization It is still unclear however whether such efforts have been effective at promoting transformative social change Have rights as embodied in constitutions statutory and judicial law international conventions resolutions and treaties fostered demonstrative improvements in the lives of the excluded When where how and under what conditions This volume explores these questions through a systematic comparison of the mechanisms actors and pathways MAPs operating in a diversity of cases analyzed by established scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds The MAPs comparative approach provides insights into the conditions under which and institutions through which rights on the books are more or less effectively translated into substantive rights realization We suggest multiple pathways in which litigation may combine with non legal mechanisms and strategies including institutionalized and non institutionalized politics and global and local networks and advocacy The volume is unique in its synthesis and advancement of parallel issues and debates across different disciplines and geographic regions it likewise brings into dialogue scholars of economic social and cultural rights with the scholarship on civil and political rights These cross fertilizations allow us to conclude by proposing a series of testable hypotheses about how economic and social rights might be realized as well as an agenda for future research to broaden and deepen empirical integration and theoretical synthesis in ways that can facilitate human rights realization worldwide Provided by publisher Nepal's Federalism and the Pursuit of Deliberative Democracy Vishnu Kumari Tandon, 2025-08-29 This book identifies the factors that either encourage or discourage participation and deliberation thereby demonstrating the potential and reality of deliberative democracy in Nepal at the local level Focusing on the local level planning process in two municipalities Buddhabhumi and Dhanushadham the book examines whether decentralized elements introduced by federalism encourage participation and deliberation or whether they continue to remain a challenge Throughout this exploration the author explores how the debate between common good and self interest unfolds within the context of deliberative democracy in Nepal A blend of empirical and theoretical investigation this book addresses the concept of common good and self interest in deliberative democracy in the context of unequal societies in South Asia A pioneering contribution on Nepal this book will be of interest to researchers studying political science federalism participatory democracy deliberative democracy and local governance in Nepal and South Asia Aeffect Stephen Duncombe, 2024-05-07 The first book to seriously identify how artistic activism works and how to make it work better The past decade has seen an explosion in the hybrid practice of artistic activism as artists have turned toward activism to make their work more socially impactful and activists have adopted techniques and perspectives from the arts to make their interventions more creative Yet questions haunt the practice Does artistic activism work aesthetically Does it work politically And what does working even mean when one combines art and activism In ffect author Stephen Duncombe sets out to address these questions at the heart of the field of artistic activism Written by the co founder and current Research Director of the internationally recognized Center for Artistic Activism ffect draws on Duncombe s more than twenty five years of experience in the field and one hundred in depth interviews with artistic activists worldwide More than a mere academic exercise the theory research and tools in this book lay the groundwork for artistic activists to evaluate and strengthen their practice and to create better projects The exploration of good artistic activism is grounded in three sets of concerns 1 Change Upon what theories of change is artistic activism based 2 Intention What do we hope and expect artistic activism to do and how does it do this 3 Evaluation What actually happens as the result of an artistic activist intervention Can it be measured ffect is rich with examples that demonstrate successful artistic activism including Undocubus an old bus painted No Fear across its side that was driven cross country by a group of undocumented immigrant activists Journal Rapp a video show created by Senegalese rappers who created long form investigative reports by rapping the current news in French and Wolof and War on Smog a staged a public performance piece by artistic activists in the city of Chongqing in Southwest China Scannable QR codes are included to provide tools that help readers assess the ffect of their artistic activism Changemakers Jane Holgate,John Page,2025-01-14 Crafted for those who dare to challenge the status quo this is a radical guide for activists Drawing from frontline experiences in trade unions environmentalism animal rights and social justice movements the book explores essential themes from leadership to the art of negotiation It asks crucial questions about organising and social movements in the 21st century Avoiding easy prescriptions the authors uniquely guide readers to where theory meets practice Written by two experts in activist education and community organising this is a refreshing take on movement building empowering changemakers of today to forge new paths towards a more just world Population Health: Creating a Culture of Wellness David B. Nash,Alexis Skoufalos,Raymond J. Fabius,Willie H. Oglesby,2019-11-11 Since the passage of the Affordable Care Act the field of population health has evolved and matured considerably Improving quality and health outcomes along with lowering costs has become an ongoing focus in delivery of health care The new Third Edition of Population Health reflects this focus and evolution in today s dynamic healthcare landscape by conveying the key concepts of population health management and examining strategies for creating a culture of health and wellness in the context of health care reform Offering a comprehensive forward looking approach to population health the Third Edition s streamlined organization features 14 chapters divided among 3 major sections Part I Population Health in the U S Part 2 The Population Health Ecosystem and Part 3 Creating Culture Change Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.) ,2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history rationalization and secularization have played central roles but interiorization nearly disappears as a driving force Also in continuity with the past the state insists on an exclusive right to define and adjudicate orthodoxy Contributors include Daniel H Bays S bastien Billioud Adam Yuet Chau Na Chen Philip Clart Walter B Davis Arif Dirlik Thomas David DuBois Lizhu Fan David Faure Melissa Wei Tsing Inouye Ji Zhe Xiaofei Kang Eric I Karchmer Andr Lalibert Angela Ki Che Leung Xun Liu Richard Madsen David Ownby Ellen Oxfeld Volker Scheid Grace Yen Shen Michael Szonyi Wang Chien ch uan Xue Yu

The Environment of Compassion Cia Sautter, 2025-05-09 The Environment of Compassion explores questions of what it means to be in relationship to nature if and how it is a religious experience and how understanding humans as part of nature alters theology The book offers a performance perspective that looks at ritual dance and theatre as a means of presenting discussion of sacred values in the public realm The premise is that performance may serve as an effective means for developing human sacred values that recognize the more than human world as it increases intersubjective awareness to address issues of social and environmental justice The author investigates religion and theatre as a means of better understanding how eco consciousness requires an aesthetic of the sacred Rather than separate religion culture and nature the book presents an aesthetic looking at the relationship between them It considers how an embodied theatrical story might develop an inclusive community of compassion Weaving the chapters together is an account of The Garden A Refuge an eco centered play based on the biblical book of Job Ecotheology aesthetics and embodiment theories are examined throughout with scholarship and examples drawn largely from the Jewish tradition The book is relevant to scholars of religion and theology particularly those with an interest in the environment as well as theatre dance and performance studies interdisciplinary engagement is embraced Play cultivates reflection connection and creativity offering new epistemological directions for the humanities With examples from a range of disciplines including poetry history science religion and media this book treats play as an object of inquiry but also as a mode of inquiry The chapters each focusing on a specific cultural phenomenon do not simply put culture on display they put culture in play providing a playful lens through which to see the world The reader is encouraged to read the chapters in this book out of order allowing constructive collision between ideas moments in history and theoretical perspectives The act of reading this book like the project of the humanities itself should be emergent generative and playful Human Occupation Ted Brown,Stephen Isbel,Louise Gustafsson,Sharon

Gutman,Diane Powers Dirette,Bethan Collins,Tim Barlott,2024-09-17 This comprehensive textbook provides occupational therapy and science students and practitioners with a complete overview of the key human occupation concepts as well as a range of perspectives through which occupational therapy and occupational science can be viewed and understood Comprising 40 chapters the book is divided into five sections Section 1 Overview of Human Occupation Introducing the occupational therapy field and its conceptual landscape including different models of therapeutic practice and practice reasoning Section 2 Contemporary Perspectives on Human Occupation Including critical perspectives on disability and race and the philosophical foundations of occupational science Section 3 Principal Concepts Explaining the conceptual language of human occupation across key person social psychological physical performance and environmental issues Section 4 Human Occupation across the Lifespan and Life Course Covers human occupation from infancy to later adulthood Section 5 Domains Types of Human Occupation From sleep to play sexuality to social participation and education to work Uniquely international in scope each chapter in this edited book includes learning objectives key terms summary dot points review questions and a list of additional online resources for readers to refer to This is a complete resource for anyone beginning an occupational therapy course clinicians seeking an accessible reference work to support their practice or occupational scientists needing to refer to contemporary occupation related concepts How Ordinary People Make Aid Work Stefan Kruse,2025-10-07 How community organizations and civic engagement drive the success of global health aid What makes health related development assistance truly effective In How Ordinary People Make Aid Work Stefan Kruse argues that the answer lies in the power of ordinary citizens By examining the role of community organizations and social movements Kruse challenges conventional approaches to aid showing that true accountability requires more than institutional reforms or participatory spaces that offer citizens a seat at the table Through rigorous analysis and compelling case studies the book reveals how traditional forms of exercising voice especially in politically challenging contexts drive the success of donor funded health projects Kruse demonstrates that reducing infant mortality since the 1990s owes more to an engaged citizenry than to formal accountability mechanisms Surprisingly state capacity and democratic institutions show little effect on the success of health aid once citizen involvement is accounted for By bridging macroeconomic studies of aid effectiveness with research on political behavior these findings underscore the indispensable role of civic engagement in building resilient health systems How Ordinary People Make Aid Work critiques the limitations of traditional top down development models and advocates for empowering communities to lead their own progress It highlights how social ties and collective action equip citizens to oversee health projects and create sustainable solutions to public health challenges Offering fresh insights for policymakers development practitioners and scholars this book redefines what it takes to make aid truly impactful

Accountability Through Public Opinion Sina Odugbemi, Taeku Lee, 2011 Accountability has become a buzzword in international development Development actors appear to delight in announcing their intention to promote accountability but it is often unclear what accountability is and how it can be promoted This book addresses some questions that are crucial to understanding accountability and for understanding why accountability is important to improve the effectiveness of development aid We ask What does it mean to make governments accountable to their citizens How do you do that How do you create genuine demand for accountability among citizens how do you move citizens from inertia to public action The main argument of this book is that accountability is a matter of public opinion Governments will only be accountable if there are incentives for them to do so and only an active and critical public will change the incentives of government officials to make them responsive to citizens demands Accountability without public opinion is a technocratic but not an effective solution In this book more than 30 accountability practitioners and thinkers discuss the concept and its structural conditions the relationship between accountability information and the media the role of deliberation to promote accountability and mechanisms and tools to mobilize public opinion A number of case studies from around the world illustrate the main argument of the book Public opinion matters and an active and critical public is the surest means to achieve accountability that will benefit the citizens in developing countries This book is designed for policy makers and governance specialists working within the international development community national governments grassroots organizations activists and scholars engaged in understanding the interaction between accountability and public opinion and their role for increasing the impact of international development interventions

Building Collective Leadership for Culture Change Maria Avila, Aisle Aman Rivera, Joanna B. Perez, Alan P. Knoerr, Kathleen Tornow Chai, Philip A. Vieira, 2023-04-15 Building Collective Leadership for Culture Change shows how five community engagement research projects in the greater Los Angeles area were able to create more collaborative and participatory cultures in their academic institutions and nonacademic settings by using community organizing research in action and narrative inquiry These projects focused on incorporating civic engagement into the work of scholars creating a civic engagement minor at California State University Dominguez Hills integrating community organizing practices within the Los Angeles Unified School District and building a regional organizing network among civically engaged higher education institutions As the case studies authored by Maria Avila and her collaborators show these projects succeeded because they took place in collaborative spaces where participants were part of

designing the purpose goals and specific actions to create culture change Building Collective Leadership for Culture Change is a vital inquiry into the possibilities of collective interpretation of accomplishments among researchers and participants
