Accountancy Standards In Depth Fourth Edition Cima Student Handbook V 1:

Teaching IFRS Richard M.S. Wilson, Ralph W. Adler, 2013-09-13 The increasing pace of global conformance towards the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS highlights the need for accounting students as well as accounting practitioners to be conversant with IFRS Teaching IFRS offers expert descriptions of and insights into the IFRS convergence process from a teaching and learning perspective Hence this book is both timely and likely to have considerable impact in providing guidance for those who teach financial reporting around the world The contents of the book come from authoritative sources and offer something distinctive to complement the existing textbooks which typically focus on the technical aspects of IFRS and their adoption Drawing upon the experiences of those who have sought to introduce IFRS related classroom innovations and the associated student outcomes achieved therefrom the book offers suggestions about how to design and deliver courses dealing with IFRS and catalogues extensive listings of IFRS related teaching resources to support those courses This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An international journal

Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A. Cascio, 2005-05 Inside Accounting Dr David Leung, 2012-08-28 Based on a study covering a one year financial reporting cycle at a commercial subsidiary of a well known scientific research organization Inside Accounting examines how accountants and non accounting managers construct their company s earnings Addressing issues in both internal management accounting such as budgeting performance evaluation and control as well as external financial accounting such as book keeping monthly year end accounts and auditing David Leung focuses on how people classify transactions make professional judgments and use computer software for accounting and prepare for and facilitate the auditing process He also looks at accountancy training and the impact of people s affiliations to the accounting profession or other professions on their accounting and on their perceptions of financial statements Other contingent or contextual factors that influence the choice of accounting method such as time pressure reward structures management authority and institutions are also considered David Leung s research employs an innovative blend of theory and practice that redresses the imbalance between ethnographic studies of financial accounting and management accounting and helps close the gap between the academic curriculum and the experiences of practitioners His research leads the author to conclude that no act of accounting classification is ever indefeasibly correct that the accounting community s institutions and authority are central to the accounting process and to the truth and fairness of accounting numbers that accounting training involves extensive use of learning by doing and that both accountants and non accounting managers have goals and interests that often result in no better than good enough accounting This book will appeal to accounting and finance professionals and academics in finance as well as to sociologists and academic researchers interested in research methods and science studies
