Historic Savannah:

Savannah's Historic Neighborhoods Polly Stramm, 2001 A trio of historic neighborhoods in Savannah Georgia rank among the most picturesque in the United States Ardsley Park Chatham Crescent and Ardmore are well known for their unique layouts and varied architectural styles as well as lush shrubbery and the moss draped oaks that have become a trademark of Savannah's charm The development of Ardsley Park and Chatham Crescent began around 1910 as the advent of the automobile allowed more Savannahians to move to the suburbs Neighboring Ardmore to the south of Ardsley Park and Chatham Crescent came later during the 1920s The entire area was named to the National Register of Historic Places in 1985 For decades the neighborhoods have been home to some of Savannah's most prominent families Former residents include media mogul Ted Turner and the University of Georgia bulldog mascot owned by Frank W Sonny Seiler Within these pages are photographs from private collections never before made available to the public images of Savannahians at work and at play Captivating scenes of days long ago reveal the history of a much beloved community Historic and Picturesque Savannah Adelaide Wilson, 1889 Historic Savannah, 1968 Savannah's Historic Public Schools Larry W. Smith, 2004 The story of Savannah's historic public schools both black and white is one of modest beginnings noteworthy achievement and remarkable people As the small schoolhouses of downtown Savannah evolved into the sprawling educational complexes of today they maintained an impressive record of service to the community's most important citizens its young people Savannah's commitment to public education is as old as the city itself from the beginning efforts were made to ensure that education was available to all The opening of the Massie Common School in 1856 marked the start of the modern era of public education in Savannah For the first time a building was designed built staffed and maintained for the express purpose of providing education to all of the city's children regardless of their families ability to pay Massie Common School's first principal eventually left Savannah to become superintendent of Atlanta's public school system paving the way for local politicians who took their school board experiences with them when they were elected to state office These pioneers of public education in Savannah spread methods and practices established in local schools throughout the state Historic Savannah Mary Lane Morrison, 1979 Historic and Archeological Preservation United States.
