Western Gold Adventures 1849-1854 (Abridged, Annotated) Kimball Webster, In April 1849 a little over six months before he was twenty-one, Kimball Webster caught the gold fever. Characteristic of his methodical ways, he kept a journal of his journey across the country and of his experiences as a miner in California and land surveyor in Oregon. His experiences in the Land of Gold is told in his own vivid language in these pages and forms one of the most interesting narratives of the days of the gold seekers of the Pacific Slope. Under trying circumstances that we can't fully appreciate today, the hardy men and women of the Gold Rush the 49ers faced danger from disease, accident, Native Americans, other miners, and most likely poverty. Yet nearly 300,000 came to California to seek their fortune and tempt fate. Kimball Webster didn't strike it rich but went on to make a good life for himself. And he made us richer by leaving his account of those tumultuous years of the 1849 Gold Rush. Be sure to LOOK INSIDE or download a sample.

Meteorology Today C. Donald Ahrens, Peter Lawrence Jackson, Christine E. O. Jackson, 2012 Meteorology Today 1st Canadian edition is the first textbook of its type written specifically with the needs of the Canadian market and its unique meteorological environment in mind. This first Canadian edition builds upon the tried and tested strengths of the Ahrens Meteorology series and provides a more relevant resource for Canadian students and instructors by ensuring that Canadian content, practices, conventions, and examples are used throughout. An Earth Systems feature, the first of its kind in Ahrens, has been developed for this edition, presenting the interconnectedness of elements and providing a peek at the chapter content. This visual table of contents highlights the Earth system components reflected in each chapter: the atmosphere, hydrosphere, cryosphere, lithosphere, biosphere, and anthrosphere. The relationships between the chapter's content and Earth systems are further expanded upon in the introduction of each chapter.
