At Speed My Life In The Fast Lane:

At Speed Mark Cavendish, 2013-12-13 Written off as fat and useless in his youth Mark Cavendish has sprinted to the front of the Tour de France peloton to become cycling's brightest star and its most outspoken. Following his debut book Boy Racer Cavendish has truly come of age as one of the best cycling sprinters of all time. In At Speed the Manx Missile details what it took to become the winningest Tour sprinter ever; examines the plan that led to his world championship victory; reveals the personal toll of his sacrifice that helped teammate Bradley Wiggins become the UK's first ever Tour de France winner; and confesses his bitter disappointment at the London Olympic Games. Screaming fights with teammates; rancorous contract negotiations; crushing disappointments for Mark Cavendish; winning is always the cure. His book At Speed is the page-turning story of a living legend in the sport of cycling.

Life in the Fast Lane Chris Stoddart, 2023-01-04 In the late 1960s a new sport emerged in Canada that would change the lives of many people: wheelchair sports. In Life in the Fast Lane Chris Stoddart recounts the rise of wheelchair racing with him as one of its pioneers. Born with spina bifida, a condition that affects the development of the spine, Stoddart witnessed the extraordinary transformation of the wheelchair from a heavy and unwieldy functional contraption to a light and sleek design meant for the racetrack. From his beginnings as a wheelchair basketball player to his evolution into a three-time Paralympian and fifty-mile marathon racer, Stoddart shares his life journey as it parallels Canada's rise in wheelchair sports. With a matter-of-fact but approachable tone, Stoddart shines a light on the many veterans of wheelchair sports who may have been forgotten over the years. Most notably, however, is this athlete's dedication to people who live with disabilities. During his successful career as an amateur athlete, Stoddart worked for the War Amps of Canada for almost thirty years. Learn about the history of wheelchair racing in Canada where we stand today and what we need to do to make sure people with disabilities share the spotlight with able-bodied athletes.

At Speed Mark Cavendish, 2013-11-07 The hottest sprinter in the world. Telegraph. Mark Cavendish is the first British cyclist to win the Tour de France's green jersey, the first to wear the iconic rainbow jersey in almost 50 years, and our only ever rider to capture the Giro d'Italia points title. He is the most prolific sprinter in the Tour's history, and according to L'Equipe, the best sprinter of all time. But smashing records and racking up victories means whole new levels of fame, and this has come at a price. Living in the goldfish bowl, he has come under fire for his bombastic riding style and been portrayed as everything from an outlaw to a psychopath. Joining Sky in 2012, Cav soon found his own sprint interests to be incompatible with the team's other goals, while the expectations of a nation made his London Olympic failure hard to take. In At Speed, Cav takes you through the highs and lows of it all in intimate detail. This is a take-no-prisoners account of life at the pinnacle of his sport and learning how to survive in the fast lane, both on and off the bike.
