Anderson, 1993 Harry Truman s administration began searching for an American response to the clash in Indochina between French colonialism and Vietminh communism in 1945 Thirty years and five administrations later Gerald Ford and his aides tried unsuccessfully to solicit additional aid for South Vietnam from a reluctant Congress For Truman Ford and every American leader in between the dilemma in Vietnam hung ominously over the presidency In Shadow on the White House seven prominent historians examine how the leadership of six presidents and an issue that grew into a difficult and often unpopular war shaped each other Focusing on the personalities politics priorities and actions of the presidents as they confronted Vietnam the authors consider the expansion of presidential power in foreign policy formulation since World War II In their analyses they chronicle the history of executive leadership as it related to Vietnam assess presidential prerogatives and motives on war and peace
