At Whatever Cost The Story Of The Dieppe Raid:

At Whatever Cost - The Story Of The Dieppe Raid R.W. Thompson,2013-05-31 The Dieppe Raid is perhaps the best known and the least known about of all the important actions of the Second World War The complete facts were never made known to the public and the scrappy bits and pieces published at the time created a sense of frustration and unease Sir Winston Churchill wrote Military opinion seemed unanimous that until an operation on that scale was undertaken no responsible General would take the responsibility of planning for the main invasion Thompson s book is history very old fashioned history and he has done his utmost to lay down the facts clearly The brief snatches of dialogue quoted are authentic usually word for word but always sticking to the simple sense of what is known to have been said For example Sergeant Dubuc being a French Canadian may have cried Sauve qui peut the moment after he had killed the German guard He certainly said something very like that in French or English At Whatever Cost Reginald William Thompson,1956

Special Bibliographic Series US Army Military History Research Collection,1978 The Era of World War II Louise A. Arnold-Friend,1979 The Dieppe Raid Robin Neillands,2005 In 1942 a full two years before D Day thousands of men mostly Canadian troops eager for their first taste of battle were sent across the Channel in a raid on the French port town of Dieppe Air supremacy was not secured the topography of the town and its surroundings hemmed in by tall cliffs and steep beaches meant any invasion was improbably difficult the result was carnage the beaches turned into killing grounds even as the men came ashore and whole regiments literally decimated Why was the Raid ever mounted Was the whole thing even as has been darkly alleged expected and even intended to fail a cynical conspiracy to prove to the Americans at the expense of so many Canadian lives the impracticability of staging the Normandy landings for another two years Robin Neillands goes behind the myths to tell what really happened and why Special Bibliography ,1977 The New York Times Book Review Index, 1896-1970: Subject index ,1973 Rangers in World War II Robert W. Black,2010-11-17 From the deadly shores of North Africa to the invasion of Sicily to the fierce jungle hell of the Pacific the contribution of the World War II Ranger Battalions far outweighed their numbers They were ordinary men on an extraordinary mission experiencing the full measure of the fear exhaustion and heroism of combat in nearly every major invasion of the war Whether spearheading a landing force or scouting deep behind enemy lines these highly motivated highly trained volunteers led the way for other soldiers they were Rangers With first person interviews in depth research and a complete appendix naming every Ranger known to have served author Robert Black a Ranger himself has made the battles of WWII come to life through the struggles of the men who fought to win the greatest war the world has ever seen National Union Catalog ,1956 Includes entries for maps and atlases Green Beach James Leasor,2015-05-10 In 1942 radar expert Jack Nissenthall volunteered for a suicidal mission to join a combat team who were making a surprise landing at Dieppe in occupied France His assignment was to penetrate a German radar station on a cliff above Green Beach Because Nissenthall knew the secrets of British and US

radar technology he was awarded a personal bodyguard of sharpshooters Their orders were to protect him but in the event of possible capture to kill him His choice was to succeed or die The story of what happened to him and his bodyguards in nine hours under fire is one of World War II s most terrifying true stories of personal heroism Green Beach has blown the lid off one of the Second World War s best kept secrets Daily Express If I had been aware of the orders given to the escort to shoot him rather than let him be captured I would have cancelled them immediately Lord Mountbatten Green Beach is a vivid moving and at times nerve racking reconstruction of an act of outstanding but horrific heroism Sunday Express The Bookmark New York State Library,1955 Children s books of 1939 in August issue 1940 AB Bookman's Weekly ,1996 Newsweek ,1957 Air War Bibliography, 1939-1945 Myron J.
