At Home In The World A Memoir:

At Home in the World Joyce Maynard, 1999-10-29 This coming of age memoir which outraged some and inspired others when first released in 1998 goes beyond Maynard's writing life to explore the heartbreaks and triumphs of her life growing up with brilliant parents who also had faults as well as her short romance at age 18 with J D Salinger a subsequent failed marriage and her struggle to rebuild at mid life

Home in the World Amartya Sen, 2021-07-08 The extraordinary early life in India and England of one of the world's leading public intellectuals Where is home For Amartya Sen home has been many places Dhaka in modern Bangladesh the little university town of Santiniketan where he was raised as much by his grandparents as by his parents Calcutta where he first studied economics and was active in student movements and Trinity College Cambridge to which he came aged 19 Sen brilliantly recreates the atmosphere in each of these He remembers his river journeys between Dhaka and his parents' ancestral homes and wonderfully explores the rich history and culture of Bengal In 1943 he witnessed the disastrous unfolding of the Bengal Famine and the following year the inflaming of tensions between Hindus and Muslims In the years before Independence some of his family were imprisoned for their opposition to British rule Central to Sen's formation was the intellectually liberating school in Santiniketan founded by Rabindranath Tagore who gave him his name Amartya and exciting conversations in the Coffee House on College Street in Calcutta In Cambridge he engaged with many of the leading economists and philosophers of the day especially with the great Marxist thinker Piero Sraffa who provided a direct connection not only to Wittgenstein but to Antonio Gramsci and the anti fascist battles in Italy in the 1920s After years in Europe and America the book ends when he returns to Delhi in 1963 Home in the World shows how Sen's experience shaped his ideas about economics philosophy identity community famines gender inequality social choice and the power of discussion in public life The joys of learning and the importance of friendship are powerfully conveyed He invokes some of the great thinkers of the past and his own time from Ashoka in the third century BC and Akbar in the sixteenth to David Hume Adam Smith Karl Marx John Maynard Keynes Maurice Dobb Kenneth Arrow and Eric Hobsbawm Above all Sen emphasises the importance of enlarging our views as much as we can of human sympathy and understanding across time and distance and of being at home in the world
